
To Present Full Information on Britain's Finances; Felt U.S. Plans

Washington, Dec. 4. - Theasury

Secretary Morgenthau announced today that Sir Frederick Philips, Undersecretary of the British Treasury, was scheduled to arrive in the United States today "to place the latest available information (on British ?-

Morgenthau's statement followed by Secretary of Commerce Jones, speaking as federal loan administrator, who said that the British government was a "good risk" for loans.

nances) before the U. S. Treasury."

Give More Aid

Greenville, Dec. 4.—The Festival Symphonic Chorus of Eastern Carolina Symphonic Choral Association will present Handel's "Messiah" for the fourth consecutive year. Each year the chorus of 100 voices has given at least five performances of this great musical meaturnines, in many cities and towns in Eastern Carolina. These annual Massiah present are fast becoming an outstanding musical tradition in Eastern Carolina. This year's first performance will be held in the Goldsboro high school auditorium Sunday, December 8, at 3:30 p. m. The second presentation will be held in the Wright Memorial auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College, Sunday, December 8 at 8 p. m. Snow Hill will have the third performance in the Calvery Memorial Methodist Church Sunday, December 15, at 3:30 p. m. That evening the chorus will journey to Ayden for the fourth performance at the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Arrangements are being made for a fifth performance in Wilson December 22.

John Hamiel, tenor soloist from New York City, who scored such a triumph last year, will again return for the Goldsboro and Greenville performances.

Miss Margaret Smoot of Goldsboro and a graduate of Westminister Cho'r College, will be guest soprano soloist, as will Miss Annie Lee Bynum of Goldsboro and New York. Miss Marguerite Moye of East Carolina Teachers College, will also be a soprano soloist. Margaret J. Bullock will be contralto soloist.

is composed of the Symphonic Choruses in Greenville, Ayden, Snow monopolize the price of nitrogen, ni- son asserted today that the people of Rufus Lockhart Gibbs, Herman Hill and Goldsboro. The accompantate of sods and other nitrates used the United States had "at last swak- Huggins Bradham, Drew Hinson Alists are Mrs. C. W. Hearne of Green- in the production of munitions was ened from our beautiful dream of len, R2; James Leslie Joyner, R1; ville, Miss Virginia Belle Cooper of charged by a federal grand jury to- universal disarmament" to face the Wodrow Wilson Welton, R1; Acy Thanksgiving in the Major Benjamin Ayden, Miss Jessie Bullock of Snow day against 29 corporations, includ- "cold, hard reality that the neighbor- Robert Lee, R2; Bruce Jarvis Pol- May Chapter House for one of the . Hill, and Mrs. H. C. Selby of Golds- ing the E. L. Du Pont de Nemours hood we are living in is a tough lard, R2.

All of these performances are free to the public because of the generosity of the sponsors of the association.

Preparation For Christmas Mailing

Shop now and mail early for early Wednesday, December 25, 1940.

Post Offices will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done with the cooperation of the public. Compliance with the following York, Chilean Nitrate Sales Cor, that our freedom, our existence as a suggestions will greatly aid the Post Office and insure the prompt handling of your dail.

Mail early for delivery before Christmas Day. Register or insure Early Mailing Buring the holiday time the volume of mail increases approximately 200 percent. It is a physical impossiility to handle this great mass of mail officiently and promptly within local Red Cross, and director of the a few days. Therefore to assure de- annual roll call, conducted here just ivery of their Christmas presents, before the Thanksgiving holidays, reards, and letters by Christmas Day ports total receipts of $227.54, with the public should shop and mail half of this amount to be retained city. Do your Christmas shopping according to the prevailing custom so that you can mail your gifts, by the chapter for local work. medings, and latters a week or 10 Among the recent interesting new distance of his will not only make in action were the following: spent aid to your costal service and which cover the entire United States to postal employees and enable them and its insular possessions. to seems the Christmes holiday with The American Red Cross is char he proper window stamps, parce est, money erder, registry, etc.

S. O. Turnage, Postmaster.

Of Conspiracy

ing Munitions Are Involved

New York, Dec. 4.—A world-wide Columbia, S. C., Dec. 4.—Assistant possibly next spring. and company.

Federal Judge William Bondy nam- to invade, conquer and loot." and employees of the corporations. | the American Legion, Patterson said Clearthur Toyner. ed with national defense in addition defenseless, inoffensive and safe." to production of munitions.

Red Cross Membership Passes 200 Mark Here

Mrs. R. S. Scott, chairman of the ave before Christmas, according to items issued regarding the Red Cros cortain that they are received be. Your Red Cross Chapter is one of fore Christman Day but will be a 3,716 Chapters and 7,133 branches

Use Air Man for speed. First in the President of the United States reival first delivered first open. One-third of the members of its cov-

Nitrates Used In Mak- War Department Aide Says Nation Awakened Board No. 1, from 676 to 775; and From Dream chain of conspiracies to control and Secretary of War Robert P. Patterneighborhood . . . where military A series of six Sherman anti- weakness is taken by the aggressors George Bryant, Thomas Moye, R2; tion. W. G. Sheppard, of Snow Hill, trust act indictments handed up to as nothing more than an invitation Dennis Swain, R2; John Bynum, R2;

The nitrates which the defend that "scarcely a year ago some of ants allegedly conspired to control our people told us that we did not | William Allen Moseley, RI; Richworks and other indusries connect- they asked us to look at Norway,

"We have looked at Norway, to Ellis, R1; John Foreman Staton and Named with the Du Pont company say nothing of Czechoslovakia, Po- Arleman Sylvester Bynum among others were the Allied Chem- land, Denmark, Holland, Belgium ical and Dye Corporation of New and France, and the sight tells us poration, Synthetic Nitrogen Prod- nation, depends on the strength of ucts Corporation, the Barrett Com- our right arm. And if the worst pany of New Yorks and the Solvay should come, let it not be our cities Process Company of Syracuse, N. Y. that are bombed, our country laid

Cotton Prices Up But Tobacco Down

Washington, Dec. 4.—Gains in cotnut prices.

spite uptures in price. of specific school will be accepted. I hope that grades at spot markets, the report you can serame to attend the meet-said Local market prices of cotton, inc in Memphis, which begans Tuesdand, averaged 9.38, cents a point day moving, December 10, at nine ound; dobacco 14.5 cents per pound.

John Payne Top Great Peatured day to the Euramonia Pheatre. Here games of insultation."

Cast et to the mood of America, this moult "We The basis are a bit limited in Francisco, then which accounts a the will sware a world of fame toy fur. With Jack Online and John Private NTA: "Hello, little folks." THOREN: "Hello, Santa Dear." ANTA: "I expect you have heard of my visite to nearby towns and are wondering when I will get to Farmville."

HLDREN: "We certainly are, in fact we have been talking about this for days." SANUA: "Well I'll be there tonight.

(Friday) at 7:80, and I want to see every one of you then." CHILL AD THE ROSE TO A VOTE SHE SWEETING TO betcha. How about presents?" SANTA: "I am bringing a present from Toyland for each of you.' CHILDREN: "Oh, goody, goody ated here but there are no Christmas lights yet." SANTA: "I know that, and I am goto turn on hundreds of red, blue, green, yellow and orange lights

Say, Santa, the streets are decor-when I arrive." CHILDREN: "May the grown ups go to our merry party too?" SANTA: "Every blessed one of them. In fact the merchants will keep their stores open that night, so all may see the beautiful gifts I have sent for their shelves this CHILDREN: "O. K. Santa. We'll all be looking for you."

(6) 61 D 24 R (0) / 1 / 1 / 1 / 1 / 1 / 1 / 2 CICHENT ESTERNATIONS OF FREE

The following named persons of Farmville and Fountain communities have been mailed their questionnaire since our last issue. These represent those drawn in order by Pitt County according to R. LeRoy Rollins, memof the Pitt County Board No. 1, will be the last to be mailed out until

James Joyner, R2; Reuben Lee As- as his contribution to the program. ed, in addition to the corporations | Speaking before the fall rally of kew, Staling Wilkes, R2; Joe Bryant, 66 individuals - officers, directors the South Carolina Department of Jr., John Henry Foreman, R2; and Joyner, Jr., of Greenshore, a native Fountain-White are used in agriculture, the opera- need military strength, that it was and Tripp, R1; Benjamin Ashby delivery—only special deliveries on tion of steel mills, gas plants, water enough if we gave no effense and Pope, Jr., Brums Theodore Gray, Rl. municipal official canacities during

J. E. Moore, Superintendent of the with a telegram received Thursda ton returns over the 1939 level high- from D. J. Henry Highsmith, of Rallighted the southeastern farm index eigh, a member of the State commit for mid-November, but this was off; tee of the Southern Association of set by declines in tobacco and pea- Colleges and Schools, that he gave this paper the privilege of spreading This was pointed out by the Agri- the glad news of this advands culture Department's mid-month for which he has been laboring untir-local market price report. It said the incly since taking over the superngly since taking over the superaverage agricultural prices for the vision of the local educational center The measure reads:

"The North Carolina committee recommending unanimously that the livers Address; Dr. Lee Carr Elected Pre At One of Best ions Dver Held. A large number of Tyson-May descendants assembled here Friday after annual sessions held by this organ zapresided and made a splendid talk The principal speaker was Andrew of Pitt County, a veteran of the World War and well known throughout North Carolina, having served both his State and city in various recent years. He was intr-ineed by R. A. Joyner, municipal clerk,

Andrew Joyner, Jr. De-

The speaker stated that the text of his address did not relate to "the law or the gospel, the new deal or Adolph Hitler, the salvation of agriculture or how to be the life of a party. In these days of radio frenzy and box-car headlines, when kith and of an occasion such as this, it occurred to ms that it might possess at least the virtue of variety if I selected the subject of "Ancestors."

"Now I know that a lot of fun has been had at the expense of innocent ancestors, yet I contend that ancestors are a necessary adjunct to every respectable family, And can you magine the tragic plight of certain prominent sections of the globe if the

Sheriff J. K. Proctor Injured Tuesday P. M.

Knott Proctor is confined to his home with a broken collar bone suffered was a "good risk" and that ordinaryesterday afternoon when a cable lly he favors leanding money to "good from a stump-puller broke and threw risks when they need it for a proper The sheriff will be out of the of
He declined at a press conference be done. I commend you for your strongly indicated today. tecs. I respectfully insist, however, cial conference. equainted with their illustrious free- followed quickly. were patriots who valiantly served at her recent heavy shipping losses. statesmen who restored order from discussed "it wasn't the big thing." chaos and established free government in North Carolina. "It we would hope for more brilliant future, we must instill in our people a decent appreciaton of their honorable past. "Parilous times confront us here in America God grant that the Mays, the Tysons and their illustrious in vain; God grant that we, as heirs of all the ages, may prove worthy of their name."

ramers, the mail order houses that ed jointly by the president and Rev. years, including 1940. inip you a gen-u-wine family cost C. B. Mashburn, and was based on the E. Y. Ployd, AAA executive officer of arms for 03 cents, the genealogists thought of the heritage left by those of the N. C. State College, urges

Carolina University facelty, who em- "A large majority of cotton growers mend those whome loyal services dying for it. Dr. J. Y. Joyner, of Let The nation-wide vote in favor of maintained and preserved it. Grange, Andrew Joyner, of Recty cotton marketing caotas for 1940

It was learned that the mission of Sir Frederick was one of the chief causes of a meeting yesterday of nine important government officials. At the State Department, meanwhile, Secretary Hull said that all phases of the sh'sping question in connection with aid to Britain were being considered by various officials, but that he was not aware that any further specific measures. He made the comment in response to press conference questions based on the meeting of high officials at Greenville, Dec. 4. -Sheriff J. the Treasury yesterday.

decisions had been reached on any

Jones said the British government fice for some time, during which to amplify these two remarks fur-Deputies R. W. King and R. W. ther. He specifically refused to say Pyson will have charge of the office. that he favored loans to the British for war purposes now or in

"We need more organizations in Washington, Dec. 4-Imminece of North Carolina such as the Tyson- an important new decision in the aid May association. We need more his for Britain program-perhaps on a torians more Paul Greenes, Progress par with the dramatic destroyer trade has been made but much remains to or the release of giant bombers-was afform in preserving the traditions of Positive information was facking this community and I hope that you as to the exact nature of the matter will not weary of well doing. It is under consideration, but high sigfine that our youth become familiar nificance was attached to the fact with the glory of Greece and the that it brought nine of the most grandeur of Rome; the heroism of important officials in the governparta and the civilization of the Az- ment together yesterday for a spe-

that our citizens should be better in- Thrice in recent months similar formed of North Carolina traditions; extraordinary, meetings have been that our boys and girls should be held and each time, it was pointed given a better opportunity of getting out, a major step in aiding Britain enrs. They, too, were heroes who First surmises were that the meet vaces, royal oppression and almost tion of supplying Britain with insufferable (lardships. They, too, enough tormage to replace some of Moore's Creek, Kings Mountain and Ore informed official said, how-Guilford Courthouse. They, too, were ever, that if merchant shipping was Cotton growers of North Carolina and other States in the Nation where comrades, may not have lived . the lint crop is produced will go to the polls Saturday, December 7th to decide in a referendum whether to have cotton marks ing quotas in effect on the 1941 crop. Quotas have The memorial service was conduct- been in effect for the past three ution, to any nathing of the Colonial led by Roland Parker, of the North polling place and express his opinion.

In little for the proceed Street That which have a flow Page and Bedly come. We may then strike we least; William Pyron, of Resident for proceed in 1988, specifically and the process of the process of