"Our American Way"
"A Parable"

"Democracy is like a great tree, capable of producing rich, luscious fruit. But like all fruit trees, it needs care. It must be warmed by the sun of faith in human nature and watered by the refreshing rains of understanding. For when too many of its branches become useless and the tree fails to produce good fruit, it will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

"This tree may also be destroyed by the worms of doubt gnawing at its roots, or by the dry rot of indifference which weakens its trunk. Or the pests of alien ideas may begin to feed upon its leaves and bring a blight upon its fruit. To guard against those dangers from within means constant vigilance on the part of those who would enjoy the fruits of liberty."

The North Carolina Clubwomen have resolved to do their bit in safeguarding this tree of democracy by tracing out its various roots and by studying the soils which nourish them. Mrs. John D. Robinson, state president, is taking the initiative in this pioneering movement which is gaining nation-wide notice.

In connection with the visits to industrial plants now being made by clubwomen all over the state, they are making a serious study of a book published by the Woman's Division of the National Association of Manufacturers called Primer For Americans. Members of the three Farmville clubs affiliated with the Federation, the Woman's Club, the Junior Woman's Club, and the Literary Club, are planning to set aside Thursday, March 13, to study the book.

The three groups are to meet at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hogwood at 10:30 a. m., each bringing a covered dish or some contribution for the joint luncheon. It is expected that the study will be concluded by 2:30 or 3:00 p. m. The splendid choral of teachers secured for the presentation of the four sections of the book, Mrs. Hogwood, Miss Mamie Davis, Mrs. Jesse Moye, and Miss Elizabeth Davis are a guarantee of a concise, lively program.

There is no use to worry about the powers of the President to begin a war. Every president of the United States has had ample power to begin warfare.

partment of History at the University of North Carolina, will speak at the 11:00 o'clock hour in the Walstonburg Methodist Church. Dr. Beale will use as his subject—"The Historical Background of the Present World Conflict" or "What Caused the Present War."

The public is cordially invited to attend this address, which is presented as a public service in the interest of finding a more accurate basis for judging the real issues included in the world conflict.

FEBRUARY PROGRAMS

Miss Kornegay's seventh grade presented a very interesting program in commemoration of Lincoln and St. Valentine.

A brief synopsis of the life of Lincoln was given by different members of the class. Appropriate songs were rendered.

It being Valentine's Day, a short explanation of how Valentine's Day originated, was given.

Miss Miller's sixth grade had charge of the chapel program that was given in commemoration of George Washington.

A group of pupils representing the original thirteen colonies, gave outstanding facts concerning each. Emphasis was given to Virginia, the state in which Washington was born.

With placards spelling George Washington, interesting incidents in his life were related.

Certain dates and their significance in the life of Washington were reviewed. Throughout the program songs about Washington were sung.

GEORGE WASHINGTON BANQUET

Midst flags and hatchets, the Junior-Senior classes of Walstonburg High School past hours of entertainment Friday night, February, 21st, at the annual banquet given in the Carolina Room of the First Christian Church of Wilson.

Toast Mistress, Dora Mae Stepps, welcomed the guest of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walston and Mr. Key Taylor. Varied toasts were given and incidental ice breakers used.

The menu followed trends of Washington's day, namely: Red Rhode Island, Powdered Wig, Yankee Blood, Navy products, Wine Saps, Cherry Tree Roots, Limbs Twigs, Hearts of His Countrymen, Drummers Joy, Martha's Cow Fruit, Frozen Delaware, Mt. Vernon Pudding and Boston Tea.

George Washington was revealed by the speaker, Mr. Taylor of Walstonburg, as being the leader among the founders of our democratic way of life.

He said that the challenge of democracy is our. What are we going to do with it?

STATE LEGION COMMANDER TO VISIT FARMVILLE POST

Late communications from R. Dave Hall, of Belmont, State Commander of the American Legion, received by Post Commander R. LeRoy Rollins here, state that he will be present at a luncheon meeting of the Farmville Legion Post, on Friday, March 7. The Legion Auxiliary of which Mrs. S. A. Garris, is president, will entertain the Legion at the luncheon in celebration of the 22nd anniversary of the organization and as a courtesy to the State Commander. The luncheon will be held at 1:00 o'clock.

In a special ceremony to be held at 2:30 o'clock the flag and flag pole, recently presented to the Farmville graded school by the Post and the Auxiliary, will be dedicated. The public is cordially invited to be present at the dedication exercises.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering!

Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.

Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI's principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodical distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

Looking at Washington

health and welfare activities in areas adjacent to large military and naval training centers and defense industries has been adopted by the Interdepartmental Advisory Committee on the basis of surveys made by the Public Health Service. It is estimated that Congress will be asked to appropriate about $250,000,000. The program embraces about every problem except housing, from fresh water and sewerage facilities to amusement and recreation.

JAMES JEFFERSON INTERVIEWS PONS

In an interesting account of the recent Lily Pons concert, in Raleigh, written for his school publication, Creek Pebbles, James Jefferson, of Fountain, student at Campbell College, Bules Creek, describes Miss Pons' concert gown and jewels, and writes also of an after-the-concert interview, in which the singer autographed his program and told incidents relating to her childhood, her first realization of possessing a fine voice and subsequent happenings in her career.

The concluding paragraph of Jefferson's account states:

"When the Governor and his family came in, I stopped asking questions and decided to go to her hotel and wait to get another look at her. After waiting for about fifteen minutes, a long custom-built Packard drove up with license number PONS Connecticut. I opened the door and Miss Pons got out. She had changed to a black velvet dress and black suede slippers and a long sable coat. I was surprised when she recognized me and said, 'We meet again.'"

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

Claude Turner and family, who live on the farm of George W. Davis on the Farmville-Greenville highway, just outside the incorporated limits, had the misfortune to lose all of their furnishings and personal effects in a fire which destroyed the home early Monday morning. The family waked just in time to escape through a window.

The Farmville fire department answered the call but the flames had made such headway that it was impossible to render assistance.
