On Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, May 18th, the Church will observe "Church School Rally Day." The observance combines the objectives of Church School Day in the former Southern Methodist Church, and the Rally Day in the former Methodist Episcopal Church. The purpose of this day is to inform and challenge the people of the community with the Church's program of religious education.

The white population of Farmville is approximately 1550. The average attendance at Sunday School is approximately 455. Many of these do not live within the town limits. There are approximately twelve hundred white people in Farmville who are absent from Sunday School every Sunday. Have we forgotten the value of the Church in the community?

The subject of the program for Sunday morning at seven o'clock is "The Church School Builds the Church."

The Young People's Groups will meet at 7:30 p. m.

The Worship Service will be at 8:00 p. m.

MISS GRETA HAYES BRIDE OF MR. ERNEST PETTEWAY

Kinston, May 12.—In a lovely ceremony at Queen Street Methodist Church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Greta Rachel Hayes became the bride of Mr. Ernest Norwood Petteway of Farmville. The Rev. Walter C. Ball, pastor of the church, heard the vows. The church was beautifully decorated with red and white roses. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Henry Johnson, organist, played "Poems" and Mrs. A. L. Hogan sang "I Love You Truly." "To a Wild Rose" was played softly during the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches were used. There were no attendants. The bride wore a three-piece tailored suit of sheer navy with wide hat of white felt and other accessories of navy and white. Her only ornament was a cameo belonging to her parental grandmother. Her flowers were a corsage of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Petteway is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnis Prince Hayes of Lake View, S. C. She attended Lake View High School and graduated from James Walker Memorial Hospital, Wilmington. She has been a member of the nursing staff at Parrott Memorial Hospital for several years. Mr. Petteway is a son of Mr. Hilda Petteway and the late Mr. E. N. Petteway. He is a graduate of Grainger High School. For the past year he has been employed at Farmville. Following a wedding trip to Western North Carolina, Virginia and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Petteway will reside at 104 South George Street, Farmville. Out of town guests here for the wedding in addition to relatives of the bride who spent the weekend in the city were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dixon, Mr. Cecil Johnston and Misses Margaret Smith, Viola Williams, Marjorie Nichols, Dorothy Skinner and Malette Green all of Farmville.

LOCAL GROUP TO SPONSOR RADIO PROGRAM MAY 22

The Farmville Home Demonstration Club will sponsor a radio program at WGTC, Greenville, on May 22, from 12:30 to 12:45. Miss Verona Lee Joyner, County Agent will be in charge, and Mrs. B. R. Fields will give a humorous monologue on gardening. Farmville friends are especially invited to listen in.

TO OBSERVE BIRTHDAY

A cordial welcome awaits members and visitors to a Brazilian Good Neighbor Party, to be held in observance of the birthday of the Presbyterian Auxiliary, in the Church, Monday evening, May 19, at 8:00 o'clock. An offering will be taken for evangelistic work in Brazil and the Collegiate Home for missionary children at this time.

BIRD CLUB NOTES

Billie Russell read an article, "The Robin's Nest" at the last Bird Club meeting, telling how the robins build their nests and raise their young; Paschall Barrett told about the sweet song of the nightingale and his habits; Carl Creech brought out the sociability and beauty of the oriole, who likes people and loves to watch the children at play; James Thorne, program leader, sang a song regarding the feeding of birds in winter, and Stanley Warren brought the program to a close with a poem, "Birds in a Nest."

The members made plans for a trip to the park for a study of birds on Saturday morning, when they will meet there at ten o'clock and enjoy a lunch together. Billie Russell was welcomed as a new member.

A. D. Frank, World War Veteran Addresses Chapter; Clubs Hold Lovely Meetings

Professor A. D. Frank, head of the history department at East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, was guest speaker at a delightful meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., at which Mrs. T. B. Hooker and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Greenville, were the gracious hostesses.

Professor Frank, a World War veteran, gave an enlightening and comprehensive talk on the present foreign situation, comparing the present war with the World War as mechanism vs men, and stressing the fact that European diplomatic thinking emphasizes expediency and force rather than high principles and ideals. An open forum was held at the conclusion of the address. The speaker was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Frank Brown.

A lovely musical program was presented by Miss Agnes Fullilove, Mrs. Dink James and Miss Mary Shaw Roberson, all of Greenville; Miss Fullilove and Mrs. James sang as duet numbers, Old Calina, Little Old Garden, Mighty Lak' A Rose, and Mother Machree, and Mrs. James sang as solo selections, "Rose In The Bud" and "The Message." Miss Roberson was accompanist.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson presided in the absence of the regent, Mrs. T. C. Turnage.

Upon arrival of the members and guests, refreshing fruit punch was served by Miss Tabitha DeVisconti and Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, and after adjournment, a delicious ice course, carrying the colors of green, pink and white, was served from a beautifully appointed table. Old fashioned rock and pink roses were effectively used in decorations of the Chapter House.

The hostesses had as special guests, Professor Frank, Misses Fullilove, and Roberson, Mrs. Dink James, Mrs. C. B. Mashburn, Mrs. F. M. Davis, Mrs. John T. Thorne and Mrs. Patton Atkinson.

Merry Matrons.

Featuring the program of the Merry Matrons this week was an interesting discussion of "Spanish Gardens," by Mrs. Joel W. Moye, who conducted a floral contest as a conclusion to her talk.

Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins presided and appointed as a program-committee, Mrs. W. E. Willis, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and Mrs. J. O. Pollard. A delectable salad course with hot tea and sandwiches, was served after adjournment by Mrs. J. I. Morgan, who acted as hostess in the absence of Mrs. R. H. Knott, and by Mrs. G. M. Holden, in whose home the meeting was held. Arrangements of early summer flowers provided a lovely setting for the meeting.

Ace Club.

Mrs. J. T. Windham was a gracious hostess this week, entertaining the Ace Club and additional friends at her home, in which quantities of roses were used with artistic effect. Mrs. David T. Harris won the club prize, a salad set, and Mrs. H. H. Bradham, the guest award, a compact. The consolation prizes, ashtrays, went to Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss and Mrs. Walter Jones. The bingo prize, a handkerchief case, was won by Mrs. George Moore, Jr.

A refreshing beverage and salted nuts were served during the games, and delicious strawberry ice cream and angel cake at the conclusion of four progressions.

Special guests were Mrs. H. H. Bradham, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Hugh Blount, Mrs. Pat Ruffin and Mrs. Edgar Barrett.

Progressive Bridge Club

A delightful club party was that of Thursday, when Mrs. E. C. Beaman entertained the Progressive Bridge Club and friends at her home, in which iris, pinks, verbena and roses emphasized the chosen color lots of orchid and pink. Prizes of lovely pottery flower containers, were won by Mrs. B. O. Lang, club member, and Mrs. B. A. Parker, guest. Mrs. W. E. Joyner received a crystal ash tray as consolation. A frozen marshmallow salad course was served after the games. The hostess had as special guests; Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, Mrs. W. E. Joyner, Mrs. Lyman Lassiter, of Snow Hill, Mrs. Arthur P. Joyner, Mrs. J. M. Christman, Mrs. T. A. Parker, Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. L. E. Walston, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., and Mrs. Lath Morris.

Home Demonstration

The Farmville Home Demonstration Club met at the club house on Thursday with the president, Mrs. J. R. Lewis, presiding. A garden report was given by Mrs. J. H. Bynum. Mrs. B. F. Weaver discussed "The Use of the English Language," and Miss Verona Lee Joyner, County Agent, gave an interesting and helpful demonstration talk, based on "Storage and Closures."

Plans were made for attending the district meeting in Columbia, May 15, and the organization of a 4-H Club in this community was discussed. The Club voted to contribute $1.00 to England for garden seeds. The recreational portion of the program was presented by Mrs. B. R. Fields.

During the social hour delicious strawberry shortcake was served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. B. Baker and Mrs. B. M. Lewis, after which a shower was given, honoring Mrs. Karl Bagby.
