High School Graduates Hear Inspiring Address

Rev. Mr. Alexander Ray Edward Braxton, Jr., Malcohin Numbering 32; Dwire of Duke Spoke Tuesday Night

Rev. Chester Alexander, pasto of Howard Memorial Presbyterian Church, Tarboro, delivered a messag of deep thought and great inspiration to the thirty-two members of the '41 class of the Farmville high school, in the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening. A large number of parents and friends were in attendance.

Prayers were offered by Rev. M. Y. Self, of the Methodist Church, and Rev. B. B. Fordham, Baptist minister, and the Scripture lesson was read by Rev. C. B. Mashburn, of the Christian Church.

Members of the various choir groups of the town rendered two anthems with Mrs. Haywood Smith as accompanist, and a quartet sang selections. Rev. H. M. Wilson, Presbyterian Davis, Raymon Lane, Leland Flanaminister, introduced the speaker, Rev. Mr. Alexander spoke on the subject of "Building-Stone Lives,"
