Auction Sales Open At Highest Prices Since The World War; General Atmosphere Of Satisfaction Prevails

With prices ranging anywhere from 10 to 14 cents higher than it an average of from $27 to $29 each day of this week on the Farmville market, satisfaction is being expressed by farmers in general and optimism reigns throughout the Bright Leaf Belt, comprising the towns of Farmville, Greenville, Wilson, Kinston, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro, Washington Williamston, Robersonville Smithfield, Ahoskie, Tarboro, Wallace and Wendell, among which are to be found the world's largest tobacco markets.

The warehouses and streets here were filled to overfowing on openin day with a crowd of jubliant farmers and their families, who met the scarcity of man power on the farms, occasioned by defense activities, with an almost superhuman effort during the blistering heat of the housing season. And so the advance in price was gratifying and heartening to them ..

The Georgia-Flordia Belt brought prices of $23.06 the first week, $4.71 above last year's levels, and the Border Belt has brought an average of $28.12, which is way ahead of the $16.14 record of last season.

The 235,200,000 pounds estimated as produced in this Belt for the 1941 season will in all probability bring the highest prices since the World War. Though not as high in comparison, the offerings are believed to be selling 60 per cent higher than last season. Few tags have been turned this week.

The opening break on the Farmville market was placed at 650,000 pounds by Sales Supervisor R. A. Fields, who reported that this market's new sales system, which provides a sale every day for both of the warehouse firms, is operating to the general satisfaction of patrons of this market, since they are assured a sale every day.

Observers state that the breaks this week hav been composed of 78 per cent lugs, the best of which showed an advance of 10 to 12 cents August 30, at ten o'clock with Heber over last year and the choice primings even better in proportion.

Farmers have hurried home after their sales each day to speed the grading of their weed and tobaccoof sales during the next week with
