ARE YOU A STENOGRAPHER?

The government needs stenographers for National defense. One is prone to think of National defense in terms of soldiers, sailors and marines. But there are many types of defense work behind the lines. A large army of civilian personnel is now on duty as stenographers in the government service to take the dictation of the thousands of executives and administrative officers, and transcribe it into typewritten documents. Some of this material is of lasting importance. Some of it will set into motion Government orders of historical consequence.

It is estimated that the Government has approximately 85,000 stenographers, typists and secretaries on the payroll. Many young men and women are responding to the call. Thousands more are needed.

Aside from the present emergency, the opportunities for stenographers in the Government service are favorable. Good stenographers are always in demand. The positions pay $1,440 a year to start, with a good chance for advancement to positions of greater responsibility, such as secretarial positions, in the case of those who have the ability.

The examination announced by the Civil Service Commission for stenographers is open until further notice. The examination consists solely of a dictation test of 96 words a minute and transcription of notes. All persons who can qualify are urged to apply now.

The stenographer examinations are held at several hundred cities throughout the United States. In order to arrange for greater convenience to applicants, the Commission is planning to increase the number of places where the examinations will be held.

The proper application form may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at any first or second-class post office or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C.

To provide more living quarters for Government employees, especially for those in the lower-income groups, there has been begun, under Government sponsorship, a building program for constructing thousands of apartments, dormitories, and homes in Washington, D. C.

Card of Thanks

(By H. B. Sugg)

Dear Friends: We wish to take this method to thank each and every one of you who made any contribution, of any description, to the effort to provide Christmas Cheer for the indigent families, especially children, of the Negro population of our community. We are happy to state that the effort was a success. The community was first carefully and intelligently surveyed to determine the actual need. Then a drive was made to secure funds, or merchandise to meet these needs. The final step was to parcel and distribute these supplies. There was an absolutely fair and impartial distribution. Every urgent need was supplied and every one, to the best of our knowledge and belief, had a merry Christmas.

The sum of $42.79 in cash was raised. Of this 76.2 percent were given by white friends, of these Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., were the two highest donors. Mr. E. A. Joyner, city clerk, donated a quantity of fruit, nuts and candies. The highest colored donation was from St. John Free Will Baptist Church by deacon J. L. Armstrong. Whenever a community need is expressed, this church is always found either in or near the lead.

We must not close without expressing our sincere regret that we did not have the presence and guidance of Mrs. C. B. Mackburn, Sr., who began this move a few years ago. Her presence would have meant so much to us. However, inspired by the pleasant memories of her past labors, we were able to carry on.

We are wishing for every one a happy and prosperous New Year.

This is the time for all subscribers whose accounts are in arrears to come to the aid of The Enterprise.

America's War Victims Appeal for Your Help

First war poster of the new World War, painted by the distinguished artist James Montgomery Flagg, carries an appeal for a $50,000,000 war fund to aid the victims of aggression upon the United States and its island possessions.

To aid the victims of warfare being waged upon America and her island possessions, the American Red Cross has issued an appeal for a $50,000,000 war fund. Chairman Norman H. Davis announced from the national headquarters in Washington.

Mr. Davis urged men, women and children to give to this mercy fund through their local Red Cross Chapters. These funds will support the Chapter's war work with the families of men in the military services, as well as the broad relief program of the national Red Cross.

President Roosevelt, who is president of the American Red Cross, issued a proclamation urging all citizens to give to the Red Cross war fund.

In launching the appeal, Chairman Davis said: "There are millions of our citizens who desire today to demonstrate their will to victory over the enemy. Not all can be in the armed forces, and not all can volunteer their services for humanitarian work, but all can volunteer their dollars to arm the Red Cross to be their representative at the scene of battle and distress. "Today is the day to demonstrate our high morale, our unity, our determination not alone to support our President and our fighting men at the front, but also to insure to our wounded, homeless and suffering fellow citizens in our Pacific Islands that we stand one hundred per cent ready to aid them through the Red Cross."

Red Cross Issues An Appeal For $50,000,000 War Relief Fund

Washington.—The American Red Cross has launched an appeal for a minimum $50,000,000 American war relief fund. This has received the support of President Roosevelt, who has issued a proclamation in this connection.

Chairman Norman H. Davis, in making the announcement, stated the fund is needed to provide relief for civilian populations bombed from their homes by the Japanese, and for those who are under threat of enemy action in the Pacific war emergency or upon the continent of the United States. Funds also are required for the humanitarian work of the Red Cross for men in the armed forces, as outlined in the M-day regulations of the Army and Navy.

In notifying the 8,700 Red Cross Chapters of the need for the fifty million dollar fund and giving them the quotas which their communities are asked to contribute, Chairman Davis wired as follows:

"The American Red Cross again is called upon to serve our nation in war. Both nationally and locally we face vast and definite responsibilities for services to our armed forces and for relief to distressed civilians. To provide essential funds Red Cross today is launching campaign for war fund of minimum of fifty million dollars. Chapters may retain fifteen per cent of contributions received for local war relief expenditures. Chapters should at once devote full efforts to raising their quotas in shortest possible time. Please report action taken. We must not and shall not fail in this crisis."

In a statement Chairman Davis said: "There are millions of our citizens who desire today to demonstrate their will to victory over the enemy. Not all can be in the armed forces, and not all can volunteer their services for humanitarian work, but all can volunteer their dollars to arm the Red Cross to be their representative at the scene of battle and distress.

"Today is the day to demonstrate our high morale, our unity, our determination not alone to support our President and our fighting men at the front, but also to insure to our wounded, homeless and suffering fellow citizens in our Pacific Islands that we stand one hundred per cent ready to aid them through the Red Cross.

"Our challenge to the dictator nations can be made also through our support of the Red Cross—in terms of money and supplies, sacrifices and hard work. Let the Red Cross be the spokesman for every community in
