Notes of Appreciation

I wish to express appreciation on behalf of those conducting the recent campaign for the Red Cross War Relief Fund, for the fine response and cooperation of citizens of Farmville and community, and to the Captains and their teams who did the canvassing at no expense to the organization. I wish to extend hearty congratulations along with sincere thanks for their efforts.

Mrs. J. M. Hoggood, Chm., Farmville Branch Red Cross.

BIRD CLUB NOTES

At the last Bird Club meeting, Jean Boyce read a selection regarding the Scarlet Tanager, a timid, shy and retiring guardian of the Oaks, which slowly but surely eradicates grubs, worms and insects, eating some himself but talking most of them to his family. His brilliant coat is of the reddest red with velvety black wings. His mate is not scarlet but is greenish above and yellow below with dark wings and tail.

Julian Boyce told interesting facts about the Ugly Duckling and the Bluebird. After the Bird Pledge and a Bird Quiz, snow cream and pound cake were served.

LETTER RECEIVED FROM PVT. WILLIAM WOOTEN

Relatives and friends of Pvt. William Willis Wooten, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Wooten, will be glad to learn that the young man's parents received a letter, written by him on December 17 from Hawaii, saying he was well. This is the only news relatives have had since the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Young Wooten has been with the United States Army, in infantry service, for the past 14 months and went to Honolulu soon after enlisting.

Lynn Lovic, brother of Mrs. Wooten, who is a sheet metal worker for the government, has sent a communication since the war started, and in this letter sent news regarding William Wooten, nephew of Mrs. Wooten, who is with the army somewhere in Hawaii.

MINISTERS MAKE STATEMENT

Upon request, the Farmville Ministerial Association met and formulated the following statement setting forth the attitude of its members toward war:

"We are opposed to war. War is contrary to the spirit of the Prince of Peace, therefore is evil. War is a destroyer of property, of ideals, of human lives. We are not destroyers. We are builders. This conflict, having been forced upon us, we give ourselves to the preservation and extension of the ideals of American democracy and Christian liberty. We seek to defend our country from foes without and within; believing the best defense is to teach and exemplify the Christian way of life. Let us hope and pray that out of this present evil there shall come a just and lasting peace."

The Farmville Ministerial Ass'n. B. B. Fordham, Secretary.

Friends Entertain For Newly Married Couples This Week

Miss Frances Winstead was hostess at a lovely dinner party Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lewis, bride and groom of December. The table was laid with a cut work cloth and centered with an arrangement of white carnations and fern, flanked by white candles. The places of the eighteen guests were marked with cards of bridal motifs and that of the bride with a corsage. A course dinner was served at 7:00 o'clock.

Interesting contests were enjoyed throughout the evening and the bride received a clever recipe of how to cook a husband. A treasure hunt, led by the bride, resulted in the discovery of a piece of crystal in her chosen pattern, a gift of the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Holmes entertained with vocal selections.

Miss Winstead's guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bearman, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. and Mrs. and Mrs. E. C. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, Miss Nellie Butler, Miss Louise Paschall, Miss Margaret Hester, and Clarence Bradham.

Progressive Bridge Club
 Miss Tabitha DeVisconti was hostess to the Progressive Bridge Club this week, entertaining at the home of Mrs. W. C. Holston, in which forest berries and bowls of narcissus were used with artistic effect. Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. E. H. Robinson were winners of the high score awards for members and guests, Defense Savings stamps.

After the games delicious strawberry shortcake was served with hot tea. Special guests were Mrs. E. H. Robinson, Mrs. W. C. Holston, Mrs. R. O. Lang and Mrs. J. M. Christman.

Merry Matrons
 Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, of Fountain, guest speaker at the Merry Matrons meeting, Tuesday, was heard with great interest in her discourse on the subject, "Seeing Movies Intelligently." In conclusion Mrs. Beasley gave a review of the picture, "Sergeant York." Mrs. J. O. Pollard, as program leader for the afternoon, presented the speaker. A group of patriotic songs was sung by Mrs. John D. Holmes with Mrs. J. M. Hoggood at the piano.

The meeting was held with Mrs. A. C. Monk as the gracious hostess and with Mrs. R. A. Fields, the newly elected president, presiding. Other

Junior Woman's Club
 The semi monthly meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John M. Mewborn, with Mrs. Linwood Russell, Mrs. Claude Tyson and Mrs. Linwood Joyner as joint hostesses. Mrs. Jesse Moye, vice president, presided in the absence of the president.

Mrs. C. M. Paylor, year book chairman, distributed the year books at this time. The reporter, Mrs. Mabrey Pollard, gave a review of Junior activities as gleaned from the North Carolina Club Woman. The members discussed the purchase of Defense Bonds and Stamps.

An interesting program, with Mrs. Chester Outland and Miss Evelyn Gay as leaders, was featured with a discussion of "The Alien Question" by Miss Annie Perkins.

After adjournment, the hostesses served dainty sandwiches, cookies, tea, mints and nuts. The Mewborn home was artistically decorated with overgreens and potted plants.

Club Party
 Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., was hostess at a lovely club party on Wednesday, entertaining members of the New Deal Club and additional friends for six tables. Ivy and potted plants were used in pleasing arrangements throughout the home.

Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, winner of high score for club members, and Mrs. Pat Ruffin, scoring high among guests, received double decks of cards as awards. Mrs. M. V. Jones was given Defense Stamps as consolation prize.

A delicious frozen salad, crax, sandwiches, date bars and hot coffee were served after cards were laid aside. Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. G. M. Holden, Mrs. J. H. Darden, Mrs. W. C. Holston, Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. J. H. Paylor, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner and Mrs. J. H. Moore.

Wednesday Afternoon Club
 The Wednesday Afternoon Club was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. W. Alex Allen at her home, in which bowls of pink snapdragons and carnations were used as a floral setting for the tables.

Miss Elizabeth Davis compiled high score for members and received a box of face powder, and Mrs. John B. Lewis won the guest award of perfume.

Individual snowball cakes were served after play with crystallized orange peel, nuts and coffee. Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. George Monk, Mrs. Robert T. Monk, Mrs. John B. Lewis and Mrs. Walter Jones.

Woman's Club
 The Woman's Club held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. D. R. Morgan with Mrs. O. G. Spell as joint hostess. Forest greens and potted plants were in effective arrangements throughout the home.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. J. H. Moore, the members voted to give their service to the Red Cross sewing room from 2:00 to 4:30 on fourth Fridays. Mrs. J. M. Hoggood, Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Mrs. John B. Lewis were appointed as a nominating committee. Mrs. Cherry Esley, sponsor of the Junior Women's Club, gave a report of the
