OUR CHINESE ALLIES

We of the United States of America all too frequently think of China as being a somewhat mythical land of rice paddies and temples lying far away across the Pacific. We fail to appreciate the part which China plays and has been playing in the present war. It is high time that every American Citizen realized that China is an ally of the United States, and that as an ally, she should be accorded every help that it is within our power to give.

The story of the heroic struggle which China has been waging against our now common enemy for these past years is too well known to be repeated here. Let it suffice to say that every loyal American is growing daily more appreciative of the endurance, fortitude, and sterling qualities of our Chinese allies.

Let us remember that every blow that the Chinese strike at the armed forces of Japan is a blow struck as much in our behalf as in theirs. Let us do everything that we can by word and deed to show that we of America are worthy of the help which these gallant allies are giving us. This is not a war in which one nation can stand alone. It is a clash of titans. It is a clash of ideologies. It is a clash of our way of life with the way of Hitler and the War Lords of Japan.

China is our ally—we are China's ally. We must remember that, and bend every effort to see that both we and our allies win through to absolute victory.

BIRD NOTES

At the last Bird Club meeting, Billy Russell discussed the Kinglets, which are the smallest of the bird kingdom with the exception of the Humming Birds. They are very prolific, raising the largest families among the song birds and often laying two layers of eggs in their nests made of moss and fine strips of bark. The nests are interwoven and lined with softest feathers and placed in the highest trees. The Kinglets are never still but are in constant motion in their quest of insects. Zeb Whitehurst brought the program to a close with a poem relative to this songster.

WHAT TO DO IN AN AIR RAID

Suggestions No. 4 as issued by the United States Office of Civilian Defense in a pamphlet entitled "What To Do In An Air Raid."

No. 4—LIE DOWN

If bombs start to fall near you, lie down. You will feel the blast least that way, escape fragments or splinters.

The safest place is under a good stout table—the stronger the legs the better.

A mattress under a table combines comfort with safety.

The enemy may use explosive bombs or incendiary bombs, or both. If incendiaries are used, it's more important to deal with them than to be safe from blast. So defeat the incendiary with a spray (never a splash or stream) of water, then go back to safety under a table in a refuge room.

Most raids will likely be over in your immediate neighborhood in a short time. However, stay under cover till the "all clear" is sounded.

Know your raid alarm. Know the all clear. Official news of these will come to you from your Air Raid Warden. Don't believe rumors. Watch this paper for air raid alarm description. Ask the warden when he comes.

Should your house be hit, keep cool. Answer rappings from rescue crews if you are trapped. (You most likely won't be either hit or trapped, but if you are, you can depend on rescue crews to go after you.) Again—keep cool, and wait. Don't run after you hear them coming to you, unless they tell you to. Keep cool.

When helping cool heads the enemy won't know anything else you can do. Stay calm. Stay at home. Put out the lights.

RELIGION—HOPE OF THE WORLD

To try to root out religion itself from society is a wild-goose chase. And were such an attempt to succeed, it would mean the destruction of society. . . . The existence of the world, in a broad sense, depends upon religion.—Mohandas K. Gandhi, sage of India, in the current Rotarian magazine.

SCHOOL SCHEDULE CHANGED THIS WEEK

In an effort to forestall hardships and discomforts, which the children of the rural districts would experience in the regular school schedule under the War Time system this winter, Farmville school authorities have approved the following schedule, which went into effect Tuesday, and will be continued for several weeks.

School opens at 9:15; lunch period 1:00 to 1:45 P. M.; closes at 4:45 P. M.

M'ARTHUR REFUND

Washington, Feb. 9.—Having tax troubles? Here's consolation — the government had them, too, during the fiscal year of 1941.

And those particular woes provided cheery news to thousands who dug too deep in paying past levies, and, as a result of over-assessments were refunded a total of $54,006,888.

If General MacArthur is not too preoccupied with other matters, his name appeared for a modest sized refund.

In a bulky document turned over today for law-required inspection by Congress, the Internal Revenue Bureau listed the names of those who paid more than their share and the amounts of their refunds.

Deep in the list was the name of Douglas MacArthur, now holding Bataan peninsula against the Japanese invaders of the Philippines. The bureau reported it had sent the general its check for $629.66, as executor for the estate of Mary P. MacArthur, his mother.

Scientists are not sure where civilization began but everybody knows how it may end.
