NEWS RECEIVED FROM REV. C. B. MASHBURN

To The Enterprise: Have been thinking of my friends while up here and longing to return to them. Providence permitting, I shall return Friday, February 20th, and fill my pulpit on Sunday morning. Have had a good rest here and am much stronger. The Shythes have been very attentive to my needs, so that I have much improved. Will be very glad to see my people and friends Sunday morning.

We cordially invite the public to hear Rev. W. H. Edwards, one of our missionaries, who will speak in the Christian Church Sunday evening, March 1st, at 7:30.

Rev. Edwards was on the Athena when it was sunk off the coast of Scotland in September, 1939, and was on the Zamsan also when it was torpedoed. Surviving these terrible experiences and being back at home, he will have a wonderful message. The public is invited to hear this here.

Sincerely yours, C. B. MASHBURN.

GARDEN CLUB TO LEND EFFORTS IN KEEPING ALL DOGS CLOSELY CONFINED

The Farmville Garden Club has announced that it is working with the local Police Department in an effort to enforce the City's ordinance regarding dogs running at large, and are appealing to dog owners to confine their pets as they are not only a menace to children but do great damage to lawns and flower beds of neighbors, who are striving to add to the beautification of their grounds and to the appearance of the town.

The general attitude of the Garden Club members and all other citizens who are trying to improve their grounds is that "Dogs are all right as personal property if the owners keep them at home with the lawn mower, radio and piano, but on the streets the canines are a vandalizing nuisance."

Miss Grant Reads Play At Major May Chapter Meet

Splendid Programs Mark Meetings of Clubs During The Week.

Featuring the program of the February meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., which was held at the home of Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson with Mrs. Louise D. Harris as joint hostess, was the reading of Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer prize play, "Our Town," by Miss Ruby Grant, a senior at East Carolina Teachers College.

Miss Grant, who is heard over the Greenville radio station twice each week, captivated her listeners by her impersonation of the characters and her vivid portrayal of the scenes of the play. The reader was presented by Mrs. Travis Hooker, of Greenville.

Mrs. C. S. Eagles conducted a devotional program based on "Prayer." Mrs. Williamson presided over a business session, during which Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mrs. T. E. Joyner presented projects, which were accepted by the members as activities for the early Spring; these included a blanket club.

During a pleasant social hour the hostesses served ices with the Valentine motif and coconut cake, which were followed by coffee, cheese biscuit and salted nuts. The Williamson home was beautifully decorated with red carnations, berries and greens.

Contract Club. Members of the Contract Club met at the Red Cross Sewing Room and worked as a group on Tuesday afternoon.

Woman's Club. The February meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood with Mrs. E. C. Carr, Mrs. John B. Lewis, Mrs. P. K. Ewell and Mrs. Dunbar Lamar as gracious hostesses. Sprays of early blooming shrubs were in pleasing arrangements throughout the home.

Mrs. J. H. Moore presided. Mrs. A. B. Moore, Defense chairman, gave a report of the Nutrition classes now under way as a project of the federated clubs of the town.

The following officers were elected at this time: Mrs. Jesse Moyer, president; Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, 1st vice president; Mrs. E. F. Gainer, 2nd vice president; Miss Tabitha DeVivanti, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Shearin, treasurer.

Mrs. Cherry Easley, program chairman, presented Mrs. Marvin Y. Self, in charge of the program for the afternoon, and Mrs. Self introduced Miss Patricia McKinney, the guest speaker. Miss McKinney made an interesting and constructive talk on the subject, "Toward A New World Order," discussing economic, social, political and spiritual changes and the part National Defense influence will play for "the duration" and after the war. She concluded with the prophecy that a saner and more dependable order will come out of the old.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. The table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of narcissus and fern. Mrs. Dunbar Lamar and Mrs. Mary Lewis Lang served ices and cake from either end of the table.

Special guests were: Mrs. Mary Lewis Lang, Mrs. Carl Blackwood and Miss Patricia McKinney.

Bridge Shower. A lovely affair among the younger set this week was a bridge party and miscellaneous shower, given by Miss Frances Howard in compliment to Miss Letha Lauretta Holloman, who left this morning after the party to enter training at St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, Va.

Early spring flowers were used as a setting for the tables. Miss Anne Jones and Miss Agnes Virginia Quinley compiled high scores and received Valentine boxes of chocolates.

A shower of lovely gifts was presented to Miss Holloman by her friends. Apple ice cream pie and assorted cakes were served after the games.

Literary Club. Mrs. C. E. Moore continued the study of the Literary Club, "Georgian England" on Wednesday afternoon with a splendid presentation of George Hepplewhite's life and his skill as a cabinet maker.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson presided and called for a report of the Nutrition class, which is being sponsored by this group in conjunction with the other federated clubs of the town. Mrs. H. Neal Howard told of progress being made in this connection.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alfred B. Moore, in which Hawthorne, first breath of Spring and scarlet berries were used in artistic arrangements. Following adjournment, the hostess served delicious cherry pies topped with cream, salted nuts, cherry candies and coffee.

Special guests were Miss Fanny Gary, Miss Edna Robinson and Mrs. Louise D. Harris.

Demonstration Club. A delightful meeting of the Home Demonstration Club was held at the club building, Thursday, with the vice president, Mrs. J. H. Bynum, presiding. Patriotic decorations of flags and miniature cherry trees brought suggestions of the approaching birthdays of Lincoln and Washington.

The Star Spangled Banner was sung by the group and followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. B. T. Weaver, who discussed Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and used President Roosevelt's special prayer for peace.

A number of Red Cross garments, the making of which has been undertaken as a special project by this group, were distributed among the members. Pledges were made for furnishing clothing for three tubercular patients to be sent from the community to the State Sanatorium.

Following a business session, Miss Verona Lee Joyner, County Home Demonstration Agent conducted a study and demonstration of the preparation, cooking and serving of vegetables and salads. A Lincoln word building contest was won by Mrs. Herman Baker.

Mrs. B. F. Weaver and Mrs. J. H. Bynum, hostesses, served angel food cake topped with cream and decorated with cherries.

Progressive Bridge Club. Members of the Progressive Bridge Club enjoyed an afternoon of contract at the home of Mrs. L. T. Pierce this week. Potted plants were used as decorations and tallies and table appointments carried the Valentine idea.

Mrs. Jack Smith, winner of the high score prize, was awarded a heart shaped box of candy. Delicious ice box cake and Valentine candies were served after the usual number of progressions. Special guests were Mrs. L. E. Walston and Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr.

GIRLS AUXILIARY. The members of the Intermediate Girls Auxiliary met Saturday evening at the home of Johnnie Moore. The hostess had charge of the devotional exercises. Mrs. George W. Davis as guest speaker, discussed "Honesty."

After adjournment, the members joined in games and contests, in which Dorothy Rawles and Flora Johnson were winners. Delicious refreshments were served.

Jones, local member of the board, and it is considered among the most necessary of civilian defense measures.

WATER TANK BEING RAZED THIS WEEK. The old water tank, which flanks Farmville's municipal building, and has been something of a landmark for the past twenty-eight years, is in process of being razed and transferred to its purchaser, N. E. Crigger, of Gastonia.

The new tank, erected in 1939, is deemed adequate, and the old tank is not standard height, and there is some difficulty experienced in filling it, it has been unused for some time.
