MISS LEWIS ENTERTAINS

Miss Martha Lewis was charming hostess at a dinner party on Friday evening at her home. Lovely arrangements of yellow jonquils and white spires with groups of lighted yellow candles, made a pleasing setting for the tables, in the living room.

A three course, fried chicken, dinner with grapefruit cocktail and jelly roll, topped with whipped cream and orange slices, was served.

Guests were Miss Elizabeth Motley, Miss Elvira Tyson, Mrs. Kathleen Moore, Miss Irene Worthington and Miss Mary Mayo, Andy Martin, George Allen, Eli Joyner, Malcolm Hardy, Bill Duke, Alfred Lewis and Albert Lewis.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST UNION

The Contentnea Union of the Primitive Baptist Church met at the Damascus Church, here, on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. J. B. Roberts, pastor, announces that this meeting was one of the best they have ever had. Every Church in the union was represented and there were also representatives from corresponding unions. Six visiting preachers were in attendance, each making short talks.

The local church was presented a silver communion service by Mr. and Mrs. Lautares of Greenville.

Rev. Roberts, in behalf of all attending, wishes to express thanks to all the Farmville friends who helped to make this union a success, especially the warehousemen who so kindly opened their buildings for the luncheon spread. About five hundred people were in attendance for the Sunday services.

REV. WILSON PREACHES FAREWELL SERMON

Rev. H. M. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church preached his last sermon Sunday morning. After expressing appreciation for the cooperation and fellowship of Church Officers, Woman's Auxiliary, and Young People's Organizations, he emphasized the need of continuing in Christian graces that Christ be truly represented in the world through His followers. At the close of the service the sacraments were administered, thus fittingly bringing to a close a ministry of meek, unselfish and tireless devotion.

Rev. Wilson was called to the Farmville Church in February, 1933 and, since that date, has faithfully served as God's minister to the local Church, the Presbyterian Church of Falkland, and the two mission points—Carraway's Chapel and Ballards.

In his quiet way, never faltering in nor swerving from the course set before him, he has endeared himself to many who feel the challenge of the race set and whose love and best wishes go with him.

Rev. Wilson, with his wife and son, left Thursday to take up his new duties as pastor of Bayless Memorial Church of Concord, North Carolina. Mrs. Wilson and James will return Monday and continue here until the close of the graded school. They will then join Mr. Wilson in Concord.

Engagement Announced at Lovely Luncheon Saturday

Mrs. A. B. Moore was gracious hostess at a luncheon on Saturday, announcing the engagement of Miss Martha Turnage Raspberry to James Daniel Grady, Jr., of Kinston.

Bouquets of yellow daffodils, forsythia and bridal wreath made a lovely setting for the four tables which were arranged in the living room where a three course luncheon was served. Guests were invited into the dining room for the dessert course, which was served from a beautifully appointed table. Bubble bowls filled with white narcissus and fern and flanked by lighted tapers, formed the background for the decorated cake which centered the table.

Showers of white ribbons leading from the center of the cake to the individual dessert plates, when pulled by each guest, revealed individual engagement rings for each. The honor guest's place was distinguished by a corsage of white narcissus and attached to her ribbon was her own engagement ring. As the ribbons were pulled, the hostess lifted a lace cover from the top of the cake, which bore the announcement, Martha and J. D., April 18. The honoree cut the cake which was served with green and white ices, salted nuts and mints.

The hostess presented Miss Raspberry with china in her chosen pattern. Miss Myrtle Sutton, bride-elect of the month, was remembered with a lovely pottery vase.

Guests included, the honoree, and her mother, Mrs. C. H. Raspberry, Miss Myrtle Sutton, Miss Nellie Butler, Mrs. Cleveland Paylor, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Louise Paschall, Miss Louise Farrior, Mrs. R. T. Monk, Mrs. Horace Lewis, Mrs. David Harris, Mrs. J. D. Holmes, Mrs. Bertha Lang Potter, Mrs. Sterling Gates of Kinston, Mrs. Warren Lupton of Belhaven and Miss Mabel Barbee of Wilson.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. B. Joyner, Mrs. Henrietta Williamson, Mrs. R. A. Parker, Mrs. Louise Harris and Miss Bettie Joyner.

Literary Club.

Miss Annie Perkins graciously entertained the Literary Club and additional friends, Mrs. B. B. Fordham, Mrs. Ben Lang, Miss Edna Robinson and Mrs. Roberts, on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood. Quantities of spring flowers were used in decoration.

During the business session, Mrs. W. M. Willis gave the concluding report on the Nutrition Classes, announcing that a gift had been sent to Miss Verona Lee Joyner, as a token of appreciation for her services in this endeavor. Miss Talitha DeViviant reported on the Cancer Control drive, reminding the members to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing talks on this subject at the scheduled mass meeting and over the radio.

Mrs. B. S. Sheppard gave a most interesting talk on the "Dress of the Eighteenth Century," colored plates being shown in illustration. In closing, Mrs. Sheppard requested Mrs. Haywood Smith to play "Rule Britannia," which was written in 1790, as a piano solo.

Miss Perkins conducted an interesting contest in which Mrs. Roberts scored high, winning an attractive vase, filled with yellow daffodils.

During a delightful social hour, lemon pie with salted nuts and hot coffee was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hobgood and Mrs. J. M. Wheelers.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmville Building and Loan Association will be held in the City Hall Wednesday night, April 15, at 8:00 o'clock. All members urged to attend.

J. O. Pollard, President.

HONOR ALFRED LEWIS

Members of the Farmville Furniture Co.'s staff of employees entertained at a lovely party on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Joyner, in compliment to Alfred Lewis, a fellow employee. Beautiful arrangements of Spring flowers decorated the Joyner home.

During the evening guests were entertained with games of bingo, quiz and music contests.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, which carried a color scheme of green and yellow, lighted tapers being used as backgrounds for flower bouquets.

Punch was served from a lace-covered table on which hostess trays, filled with novel shaped sandwiches, cookies, nuts and candies were placed.

Mr. Lewis was presented a watch as a gift from the company employees.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monk, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Gaddy, Mrs. Kathleen Moore, Miss Elvira Tyson, T. Eli Joyner, Jr., Miss Irene Worthington, of Winterville; J. D. Hobgood and Miss Rebecca Brantly, of Wilson.

ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Mrs. S. A. Garris, Mrs. R. L. Rollins, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. B. R. Fields and Mrs. Louise Harris attended the annual meeting of the Fifth District of the American Legion Auxiliary, which was held in Rocky Mount, on Monday.

Mrs. Rollins led the pledge of Allegiance to the United States Flag.

DIXON-HORTON VOWS SPOKEN

Mrs. Sallie Keel Horton and Mark Dixon were married on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in a quiet ceremony of dignity and simplicity, at the home of Mrs. Horton. Rev. Marvin Y. Self, pastor of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the living room where beautiful arrangements of pink carnations, roses and gladioli were used in decoration.

The couple was unattended. Mrs. Horton wore a dress of heavenly blue crepe with a matching coat, trimmed with blue fox. Her red hat was trimmed with blue and she used blue accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of pink Briarcliff roses and orchid.

Mrs. Dixon, a woman of much personal charm, is connected with the Post Office in Farmville.

Mrs. Dixon, popular tobacconist, holds a position with A. C. Monk and Company, here.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left for a trip to New York.

Wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Loyd Horton of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll D. Oglesby of Farmville, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Surrent of New Bern, Mrs. Bert McCullom of Eminence, Kentucky and J. M. Gibbs of Farmville.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Executive Board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, met on Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. B. O. Turnage, President of the Society, as hostess. Quarterly reports were filled out and business matters discussed. Officers for the year are: Mrs. Turnage, President; Mrs. S. G. Gardner, Vice President; Mrs. T. W. Lang, Conference Treasurer; Mrs. W. R. Willis, local Treasurer; Mrs. M. V. Horton, Recording Secretary; Mrs. J. W. Parker, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. R. O. Lang, Mrs. Frank Harper, Mrs. W. M. Willis and Mrs. O. G. Spell, Circle chairmen; and Mrs. Curtis Flanagan, Chairman of Wesleyan Guild. Special Committees are: Missionary Education, Mrs. Marvin Y. Self; Student Work, Mrs. J. H.
