Miss Myrtle Irene Sutton Bride of Fred Carr Moore

Hostesses of The Week Entertain At Lovely Parties

In an impressive afternoon ceremony, on Wednesday, April the eighth at four o'clock in the Methodist Church, Miss Myrtle Irene Sutton and Fred Carr Moore were united in marriage. Rev. Marvin Y. Self, pastor of the church, officiated.

The altar was beautifully decorated with tall baskets of peaches, gladioli and fern. Cathedral candles in floor candelabra cast a soft glow over the nuptial scene.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Haywood Smith, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music, using "Traumerel" by Schuman, "Ave Maria" by Schubert and "Schubert's Serenade." Mrs. M. V. Jones sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond and John and Elbert Holmes sang "The Waltz of You" by Vanderpool, in duet. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jones wore corsages of Briardiff roses.

Traditional marches were used and "To A Wild Rose" by Macdowell was softly played during the ceremony. At the close, "Benediction" by Lutkin was sung.

The bride and bridegroom entered unattended. The bride wore a blue crepe costume suit with a matching off the face hat. Her corsage was of orchids.

The bride's mother wore a navy sheer costume suit and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a black dress with white accessories, and her corsage was of red roses.

Ushers were George Moore and Theodore Moore of Farmville, Edison Moore of Mayaville and Willis Phillips of Greenville.

Mrs. Moore, a young woman of ability and pleasing personality is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sutton of Greenville. She was graduated from the Greenville Schools and for a number of years was assistant designer at the Greenville Floral Co. At present she is owner and manager of the Farmville Flower Shop.

Mr. Moore received his education in the Farmville School and the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill. He is now engaged in farming. He is the son of Mrs. G. E. Moore and the late Mr. Moore, of Farmville.

Mrs. B. O. Turnage and Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr., entertained informally on Tuesday evening at a cake cutting, honoring Miss Sutton and Mr. Moore, at the home of Mrs. Turnage, which was beautifully decorated with bouquets of gladioli, snapdragons, carnations, irises, pansies and sprigs.

Guests were greeted by the honorees, and Mr. and Mrs. Turnage, Mrs. Garland Holden received in the gift room.

Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr., and Miss Mary Friar Rouse served punch from an appointed table in the hall.

Guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. G. E. Moore, served heart shaped ices, from the table which was covered with a drawn work cloth and centered with a lovely arrangement of pink roses, carnation and gypsophila. Lighted pink tapers were used. The three tier wedding cake was iced in pink and white and topped with a miniature bride and groom. It held the traditional bridal tokens. Nuts and mints were passed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Suttin, of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baldree of Ayden were among a host of town guests.

U. D. C.

Mrs. F. M. Davis, Sr. was gracious hostess to the Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, U. D. C., on Friday afternoon at her home which was beautifully decorated with pleasing arrangements of carnations, snapdragons and mixed bouquets of garden flowers.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "God Bless America," followed by the pledge of allegiance to the United States Flag and the Salute to the Confederate Flag.

The Chaplain, Miss Annie Perkins, read an appropriate Easter poem as a devotion.

Mrs. W. M. Willis, President, presided over the business session. She

Mrs. O. M. Hunt of Greensboro, who has been visiting her son, Ernest Hunt and Mrs. Hunt here, will return to her home Sunday. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Hunt and children, Mary Louise and Woody who will remain for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Avery and Miss Janet Moore of Richmond, Va., Barney Stahl of Lexington, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Gurley and son, Tommie, of Burlington were guests of Mrs. Kathleen Moore and Mrs. Albert Johnston over the week end.

Mrs. A. B. Hammond, Jr., and daughter, Little Miss Lucy Olivia, will leave today for Camp Forest, Tidewater, Va., to join Lieutenant Hammond. They will be at home here for some time. Mrs. Hammond will be accompanied by Miss Edith Turner who will remain for a short visit.

Refreshments were ice cream, prune cake, mints and salted nuts, arranged in a color scheme of green and white.

In conclusion, a series of songs were played for the structure of the week with gladioli and carnations which adorned each table. These expressed her appreciation to the members for their loyal support in the entertainment of the District Meeting, also all friends of the chapter who in any way assisted the members. Letters were read from State Officers in which they thanked the chapter for its gracious hospitality.

Announcement was made that fifteen books had been collected and were ready for immediate shipment to an army camp library.

Continuing the Chapter's study of Southern Universities and Colleges, Mrs. G. M. Holden talked on the University of Louisiana and Mrs. R. D. Rouse on Tulane University.

Special musical numbers were beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. D. Holmes, Mrs. E. C. Holmes and Miss Nellie Butler with Mrs. J. M. Hobgood as accompanist. Mrs. J. D. Holmes and Mrs. E. C. Holmes sang "Oh, That We Two Were Maying," Miss Butler, "Luxembourg Gardens" and as a trio they sang "Was and Did My Saviour Bleed," taken from the "Crown Thorne King."

Delicious refreshments consisting of green and white ices, angel cake, nuts and mints were served with hot coffee. Candy Easter Bunnies were used as favors.

Following the games of contract, the hostess served coca-colas with a variety of delicious sandwiches. On each plate was a miniature nest made of salted peanuts and filled with candy eggs.

Artistic arrangements of jonquils, pansies and sprigs were used in decoration.

Mrs. W. R. Burke and Mrs. R. D. Rouse scoring high, received gifts of Defense Stamps.

After cards were laid aside, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Carr, served a delicious grapefruit salad course with pungent sandwiches, ham biscuits, cookies and iced tea.

Junior Woman's Club.

The Junior Woman's Club enjoyed a delightful meeting on Thursday evening with Miss Pat McKinley, Miss Louise Farrier, Miss Estelle McBride and Miss Elizabeth Motley as hostesses at the home of Mrs. R. A. Parker, where spring flowers were used in artistic decoration.

Mrs. Richard Chadwick, incoming President, presided over the business session. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. N. Petteway.

Miss Mary Barbee and Miss Margaret Smith presented a most entertaining and instructive program, staging a "Take It Or Leave It" Quiz, with members as contestants. Subjects used were Pseudonyms, Army Insignia, Famous Stadiums, Best Seller Novels of 1940 and 1941, Matching Army and Navy Rankings, etc.

The Jack Pot question was, "What officers of the Army wear their insignia of rank on their overcoat sleeve?" Miss Barbee and Miss Smith were assisted by Mrs. W. P. Easley, Club sponsor.

During the social hour, delicious refreshments of fruited punch, chocolate cookies, and three-tier sandwiches, carrying the pink and yellow color scheme and cut in egg and chick shapes were served. Sandwiches and cookies were served from hostess trays which were centered with nests of candy Easter eggs. Favors were individual corsages of spring flowers, tied with yellow ribbons.

Additional guests were Mrs. James Wheeler, Jr., and Miss Sage, Jane Grantham.
