SOCIETY HOURS

The Society Department of The Farmville Enterprise is open on Tuesday through Thursday from 10:30 a. m. to 1:00 p. m., and from 2:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. We ask your kind consideration

Eli Joyner returned Saturday from a trip to Florida.

Read the advertisement of Pecar Grove Dairy on this page.

Mrs. L. T. Pierce and Mrs. W. M Willis spent Wednesday in Greenville.

Mrs. Tom Ryon and Mrs. R. T. Williams were Greenville visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Henrietta Williamson and son, Milton, will spend this week end in Williamston.

Mrs. John King and daughter, Miss Betsy, visited in Wilson several days of last week.

Mrs. Anna Belle Allen and Mrs. G. E. Thompson were Wilson visitors on Friday.

Mrs. Florence Thorne and Mrs. M.

G. Thorne were Greenville visitors Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. J. Rasberry spent Wednesday in Rocky Mount as the guest of Mrs. W. E. Waters. Mrs. J. W. Parker, Mrs. B. S.

Smith and Miss Alice Harper Parker were Raleigh visitors Wednesday. Red Cross First Aid Course begins

Tuesday, May 5th, in the City Hall, at 8:00 P. M. For men and women. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss and son, Charles, Jr., are spending several days with friends in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis. Sr., Mrs. Alex Allen and Mrs. Ralph Rader spent Tuesday in Richmond.

Red Cross First Aid Course begins Tuesday, May 5th, in the City Hall, at 8:00 P. M. For men and women.

Miss Geraldine Gardner attended a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mosier of Greenville, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Louise Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thorne, Mrs. Richard Bagley and Dick Harris were Raleigh visitors, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Petteway visited relatives in Washington, D. C., and Alexandria, Va., during the first part of the week. Boots Thomas, student, at North Jones. Carolina State College, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Thomas. ing relatives and friends in Hender- in Perkins Hall, at 8:00 o'clock.

sonville, Spindale, Charlotte and Lumberton this week. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Price of Grif-

Hobgood of Farmville. Mrs. G. E. Thompson returned yesterday from Carolina General Hospital in Wilson where she underwent a nose operation. Mrs. Lizzie Allen, Mrs. Anna Belle Allen, Mrs. Bonnie Allen and mother spent Thursday last with relatives in Momeyer and Spring Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holmes attended Missionary Education, and Mrs. J. H. the funeral of Mr. J. W. Holmes' Harris, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Hodge brother, Benton Holmes, in Reidsville and Mrs. Marvin Baker of Kinston, leave today for Hot Springs, Ark. by the Methodist women at the En route, they will visit with Private Parsonage, on Wednesday, with Robert Monk at Sheppard Pield, thirty-two women attending. Texas, for a few days.

Mrs. George Burnette is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Earl Forbes, in Norfolk, Va., this week. We are Binds." glad to report that Mrs. Forbes who has been very ill is now better.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes an Miss Frances Winstead left Thursday for Seattle, Washington, where they will visit Mrs. Holmes' son, Dr G. Ashby Winstead who is connected with the U.S. Marine Hospital, there

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Outland, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Melton, Agnes Melton and Allie Melton were among those from Farmville who heard Dr. George W. Truett's splendid address on Sunday evening in Memorial Au-ditorium, Raleigh.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, Way 4 8:00 P. M .- Spiritual Life Group, Methodist Woman's Society.
3:30 P. M.—Woman's Council, at Christian Church.

3:30 P. M .- Woman's Society of Christian Service, at Methodist 3:30 P. M. - Baptist Missionary

3:30 P. M .- Circle No. 1, Presbyterian Auxiliary, meets with Mrs. J. C. Corbett. 4:00 P. M.-Episcopal Auxiliary meets with Mrs. J. K. Cobb. 8:00 P. M.-Circle No. 2, Presbyterian Auxiliary, meets with Mrs. J. B. Lewis. Tuesday, 5 3:00 P. M.-Contract Club meets with Mrs. Arthur Joyner. 7:00 P. M .- Rotary Club.

8:00 P. M.-Junior Order. Wednesday, 6 4:00 P. M.-Literary Club meets with Mrs. Haywood Smith. Thursday, 7

8:00 P. M. - "Wedding Without Women," sponsored by the P. T. A., will be presented in Perkins

Friday, 8 3:30 P. M.-Woman's Club meets at home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood. 7:30 P. M.-Boy Scouts. 8:00 P. M.-Woodmen of World. Saturday, 9

10:00 A. M .- Bird Club. 3:30 P. M.-Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., meets in the Chapter House, with Mrs. & B. James and Miss Eunice McGee

CIVILIAN DEFENSE

10:00 A. M.-Red Cross Home Nursing Class in the school building. 7:00 P. M.—Red Cross Nursing Class in the school building. 8:00 P. M .- First Aid Class in municipal building.

Friday 10:00 A. M.—Red Cross Home Nursing Class in the school building.

7:00 P. M.-Red Cross Home Nursing Class in the building. 8:00 P. M.-First Aid Class

municipal building.

HONORING BRIDES-ELECT

Mrs. S. A. Garriss entertains this morning, complimenting Miss Geraldine Gardner and Miss Vernice Lang

SENIOR PLAY TO-NIGHT

"Hobgoblin House," a mystery Mrs. J. M. Hobgood has been visit- farce, in three acts, will be presented

NOTICE EPISCOPALIANS

Bishop Thomas D. Darst will bring ton spent the week end with Mrs. the message at the Episcopal Church Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. at the eleven o'clock hour, on Sunday, May 3.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

David Harris attended the North Carolina R. E. A. Superintendents Conference, which was held in Charlotte, April 22 and 28.

STUDY CLASS MEET

Mrs. Marvin Y. Self, Secretary of gave splendid talks based on the Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk will cy," at an all day study class held Opening the meeting, Mrs. Pearl Johnston conducted the devotional. At the conclusion, all joined hands and sang "Blest Be The Tie That

During the luncheon hour, a delicious chicken salad course was served with iced tea and a frozen dessert.

Mrs. R. A. Fields was chairman of the luncheon committee. Miss Fanny Gray was a guest.

PASTOR AND CHURCH HERE TO CELEBRATE ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

Next Sunday, May 3, marks the eleventh year of happy and friendly relationship between the Christian church and C. B. Mashburn, minis-

Junior-Senior Victory Banquet Is Outstanding Event of Wee

Merry Matrons Have den Club Meets: Other

The Junior Class of the Farmville on Friday evening, April 24, at a Victory Banquet and Dance in the High School Gymnasium.

The Patriotic color scheme was used in floral decorations, table ap-pointments and favors. The Speak-er's table was centered with a lovely arrangement of red and white carna-tions and blue iris, with groups of flags, later given as favors, being used on the other tables, which were arranged in "V" shape. Table covstripes and the programs were cut as shields. Baskets of spirea and iris

Cabot Monk, President of the Junior Class, was toastmaster and gave the address of welcome. Bill Carr. President of the Senior Class, responded to the teast to the Seniors given by Miss Lois Jones, Junior Vice-president. Edsel Mills toasted the faculty, W. C. Harrell, responding. Miss Wilma Staheil gave the prophecy and Miss Edna Ruth Ivey was giftorian. Special music was rendered by

Malcolm McConnell, who sang "Tommy Lad" and "When I Grow Too Old Miss Agnes Quinerly, Secretary and Treasurer of the Juniors, and J. R. Gowan presented a "Take It Or Leave It" program in which Miss Cornelia Knott and Jack Paylor won served. The dessert course was ice cream topped with miniature flags and cakes iced in white with V designs in red. Following the banquet a large number of additional guests from Farmville, Wilson, Kinston and Fountain joined the Juniors and Seniors for the dance. Miss Russell Ward and Miss Elizabeth Motley assisted the various committees in banquet preparations and Home Economic students served.

Progressive Bridge Club

Mrs. Jack Smith was gracious hos tess to her bridge club and other guests, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. R. D. Rouse, Mrs. W. L. Smith and Mrs. W. C. Holston, on Thursday afternoon at her home which was beautifully decorated with roses and iris, with valley lilies being used to center the refreshment tables. Tallies were in floral design.

Mrs. W. C. Holston, high for guests r. Pierce, as consolation received a fragrant bouquet of lily of the valley picked from the hostess own garden. Following play, Mrs. Smith served delicious pineapple shortcake with salted nuts and coffee.

Lovely Party Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck and Mrs. T. E. Women on Thursday evening, May Joyner, Co-presidents, charmingly en- 7, at eight o'clock in Perkins Hall. tertained the members of their Church School class, concluding the game of The proceeds from this entertain Pollyanna, engaged in by the class members for the past several weeks, the stage of the gym. on Friday evening in the Roebuck

Graceful arrangements of roses iris, tulips and pansies were used in

Mrs. Wesley Willis conducted in teresting contests with Mrs. M. V. Horton and Mrs. Marvin V. Jones winning, in a bean game, prizes of paper napkins. Mrs. Ed Nash Warren received a package of waxed and a novel vase of flowers for re-arranging the jumbled names of great lovers. In a fish contest, conducted by Bobitt, Mrs. Garland Holden won an appropriate fish-shaped vase filled with flowers. Following these, members learned the identity of their

During the refreshment hour, the hostesses invited their guests into the dining-room where Mrs. J. I. Morgan, class teacher, served fruit punch and guests helped themselves to a variety of rookies, party sandwiches and salted nuts. A three-tier hostess tray bore randies on the top tier, pansies on the middle tier and birds tray bore randies on the top tier, pansies on the middle tier and birds nests, aand tarts and coconut macaroons in pustel shader were arranged on the bottom tier.

A bouquet of purple iris and pink weigelia flanked by lighted white tapers was used on the table.

Red Cross:

Class ending March 6, 1942:
Charles F. Baucom, A. G. Cayton, L. C. Dixon, W. H. Duke, P. K. Ewell, Jack Friedman, William B. Gaddy, Stanley A. Garris, Ellis N. Hatem, E. C. Holmes, C. S. Hotchkiss, Henry D. Johnson, Walter Jones, A. L. Joyner, Jake Joyner, H. W. Kemp. All bert Laws valley lilies and sweetpeas.

Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. A. G.
Cayton gave interesting talks on the nounced plans for the State Garden Club Meeting to be held in Golds-boro, May fifth and sixth with the ed the planting of herbs and veget ables among the garden flowers.

Merry Matrons Mrs. W. Leslie Smith charmingly entertained the Merry Matrons an at her home, in which quantities of roses, narcissus, iris, sweetpeas, verbena, pansies, ragged robins, snowball and weigelia were in artistic arrangement.

Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, program chairman of the afternoon, presented Professor R. C. Deal of Greenville. who termed his talk as a real "street corner chat." He stressed the building up of morale during these war days, by taking what is happening the best way and in the best nature possible. Continuing, he said that we can all help in stopping all unnecessary and ignorant criticism and sit in the boat and take our medicine as the soldiers are doing without murmuring or complaining. Professor Deal's remarks were extremely entertaining and humorous, yet he also brought out certain tinges of Miss Betsy Willis Jones, talented young violinist, played "Charlotta" and "Largo." Mrs. J. D. Holmes beautifully rendered as vocal numbers, "A Dream" and "Out of the Dusk To You." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. V.

Guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. R. A. Fields, resident of the Club, served lime frappe and Mrs. LeRoy Rollins, Past President, served cakes, from either end of the beautifully appointed table. Cookies, sandwiches, nuts, mints and ham biscuits were also served. A color scheme of green and white was used.

In addition to the Merry Matrons guests included Mrs. Zeb Whitehurst, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, Mrs. J. M. Stancil, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. J. B. Joyner, Mrs. M. E. Dixon, Mrs. W. C. Holston, Mrs. G. E. Beckman, Mrs. Frank and Mrs. G. M. Holden, high for the Davis, Jr., Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. club, won defense stamps. Mrs. L. Agnes Blount, Mrs. Henrietta Williamson, Mrs. J. D. Holmes, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Miss Betsy Jones.

WEDDING WITHOUT WOMEN

The Parent-Teacher Association will present a Wedding Without Admission will be 10 and 25 cents. ment will be used toward equiping

Plans are going forward and the selected cast is making every effort. for this outstanding event to be a jolly evening of fun for all. Remem-ber the date!

Red Cross First Aid Courses Begins Tuesday Night, City Hall

Due to misunderstanding on the date of the beginning of the next Red Cross First Aid Course, the date has been postponed to Tuesday night, May 5, at 8:00 o'clock. Registration May 5, at 8:00 o'clock. Registration and Class will be held at that time at the City Hall. The course will be open to both men and women. All citizens are strongly urged to take advantage of this opportunity to learn First Aid.
The following have finished the Standard Course and will receive Certificates from American National Red Cross:

ner, Jake Joyner, H. W. Kemp, Albert Lewis, John B. Lewis, Chester Outland, Joseph El Ramey, B. O. Turnage, Claude G. Tyson, John T. Walston, and B. T. Wooten.

uray, of Wash of the Washington Cathedral, Satu

rize Song from "Maester Singer, straum" by Liszt and "Ave

Ushers were Major O. W. Clark and John R. Galbr ith, and M. Crim was best man.

The bride was escorted by Colone A. H. Turnage of the United States mink furs, a French blue hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was

Her only attendant was her daughter, Miss Novella Horton Capps, a student at Gunston Hall. She wore a suit of waterfall blue with brown ories and a corsage of French

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left immediately following the ceremony

Mrs. Dora Horton Keel, of Farmville, and the largest is 81/2 inches. No and the late Moses Tyson Horton, other group of birds is so brilliant in and the widow of the late Frank plumage or so different from all Capps. She lived in Raleigh for sev- others in mode of flight and manner eral years prior to becoming a resi- of feeding. Their food, consisting dent of Washington. She was a mainly of small insects but also of former secretary of the late Con- the nectar of flowers, is mostly every day.

Missouri, is connected with the the flowers they love best . . . trump-Veterans Administration as the Per- et creeper, larkspur, nasturuium, sonal Confidential Representative of columbine, petunia, sweetpeas, holly General Frank Hines.

Among the prenupital courtesies extended the couple was a luncheon at which the secretaries of the Federal Land Bank were hosts; a dinner party at the Shoreham with Mrs. Harvey W. Turnage, Mrs. Ann Neal and Mrs. Marcia Mellum as joint hostesses, and a cocktail party at the Victory Room of the Roosevelt Hotel, with Jim Cobb as Most.

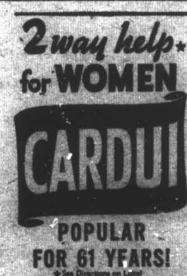

NO BOTHER ABOUT BUTTONS Jockey UNDERWEAR 60¢ up P. S. See the clever Jockey boy-and-do

BIRD CLUB

On Saturday morning at the Bird frip to New York, Boston and other Club Meeting, Billie Johnson and Northern points, from which they Bruce Skinner talked about the Humwill return for a visit to North Caro-lina. After May 15 they will be at home at the Roosevelt Hotel, Wash-come back and nest in our gardens. There are over five hundred known Mrs. Murray is the daughter of species. The smallest is 2% inches gressman E. W. Pou, of Senator J. gleaned from blossoms. He who W. Bailey and Frank Hancock. would have these flying bits of color Mr. Murray, a native of Doniphan, in his garden must woo them with hocks and especially the scarlet bee

Red Cross First Aid Course begins Tuesday," May 5th, in the City Hall, at 8:00 P. M. For men and women.

Subscribe To "THE ENTERPRISE" View cemetery in Danville.

Drink More Milk And Take Care of Bottles

Farmville, N. C.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Pecan Grove Dairy, elsewhere on this page. Read it carefully and lend your wholehearted cooperation to such a

This firm furnishes us with the very best in Grade-A-Milk, at a very low price in comparison with other keeping the price of milk low by putting out your bottles promptly Drink more milk and save the difference in higher priced foods. Tuesday, May 5th, in the City Hall,

NUIT B. HOLMES

at 8:00 P. M. For men and wo

Reidsville. - Nuit Benton Holmes died Tuesday at the home of his nephew, T. G. Dixon, in Reidsville His death was attributed to heart trouble. He had been in declir health for ten years. He formerly worked at the Dan River Mills in Danville, Va. For the past several years he had made his home in

Reidsville. He is survived by one steps F. Tuck of Danville; two brot W., of Farmville and J. T. Holn of Rocky Mount; six sisters, Mrs. L. R. Murray of Erwin, Mrs. N. P. Vheeler of Selma, Mrs. Frank The ton of Benson, Mrs. Palmer Cox of Greenville, Mrs. I. V. Allen of Angier, and Mrs. Helen Mangum of Reidsville; and a number of ni and nephews. His wife, the form Miss Tila Talbot, died 18 years ag

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in Reidsville. Burial was in Mountain

MILK CONSUMERS!

Please help us to hold the price of Milk down by carefully putting out your empty Bottles ever day—as bottles are a big item of expense in the handling and delivery of milk.

Although everything used in the production of good milk has advanced with other commodities, we have held the price down to a minimum, and with your using more milk you can save on Foods of a much higher price.

WE MUST HAVE YOUR BOTTLES TO PUT MORE MILK IN.

Take Care of and Put Out Your Milk Bottles Every Day.