WALLER-TURNAGE VOWS SPOKEN

In an informal ceremony on Friday morning, May the eighth, at eleven o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Evelyn Hope Turnage and Mr. Clyde S. Waller were united in marriage.

A rose covered trellis formed a lovely background for the improvised altar and lighted candles glowed on either side.

Reverend C. B. Mashburn officiated over the impressive ring ceremony. The wedding ring was one used by the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. A. C. Turnage, Sr.

The bride was attired in a lovely dark blue outfit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of Killarney roses. The couple was unattended.

Mrs. Waller is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Turnage, Jr., of Farmville. She received her education in the Farmville School and is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville. At the time of her marriage she was a teacher in the High School at Cleveland, N. C.

Mr. Waller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Waller of Barber, N. C. After finishing High School he attended the University. He now holds a position in Salisbury.
