VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The Vacation Bible School conducted by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches this week was a real success. A group of capable teachers and workers directed this school. Between 75 and 80 workers and children were enrolled. The children were interested and faithful in their class work.

There will be a picnic for the school at the swimming pool Friday evening at 6 o'clock. The parents will provide a basket lunch. A free ticket to the "swim" will be given to each child who is enrolled in this school. Parents are urged to come with their children.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at the Methodist Church, an appropriate program will be rendered by the school and some of the young people.

LIBRARY NOTES

The Farmville Public Library announces the following new books: "The Winds of God," by Irving Bacheler; "Sugar in the Gourd," Evelyn Hanna; "The Hill of Doves," Stuart Cloete; "Quince Boliver," Mary King; "No Stone Unturned," Josephine Lawrence; "County School Ma'am," Della Lutes; "The Don Flows Home to the Sea," and "Quietly Flows the Don," by Mikhail Sholokhov.

Also additional for the War Information Center: Pamphlets on—Auxiliary Firemen, First Aid, Rescue Squads, Services to the Armed Forces, The Soldier (and his problems), Defense Housing, 1941, U. S. Citizens Defense Corps.

We are expecting to receive much additional literature on defense problems and would greatly appreciate the patronage of the public or War Information Center.

VICTORY CHOR ON TOUR

The North Carolina Symphonic Choir, which Governor J. Melville Broughton has commissioned as the American Victory Choir of North Carolina, to act as Ambassadors of Music and Good Will from this State on its Northern Tour of 1942, left Sunday morning for a two week's trip.

Among the places they are visiting are Petersburg and Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C.; Baltimore, Md.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York City; Providence, R. I.; New Haven, Conn.; Yale University; Trenton, N. J. and Boston, Mass.

Those making the tour from Farmville are Miss Helen Rouse, Miss Ann Jones, Miss Frances Howard, Miss Mary Ann Townsend, Miss Alice Harper Parker, Miss Etta Frances Harper, Albert Roebuck, James Wilson and Malcolm McConnell. Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck accompanied them.

BIRD CLUB NOTES

From an article by Zeb Whitehurst at the Bird Club meeting Saturday it was learned that there are more than five hundred and fifty species of pigeons or doves known, of which only about 100 species occur in America, and only seventeen of these occur north of the Southern boundary of the United States. The nest is a very simple affair, usually flat and frail, composed of straws, straw or similar material. The eggs number one or two. Both the male and female take equal part in nest building, incubation, and care of the young. In drinking, the bill is immersed to the nostrils and the water is drawn in in a continuous draft, a method in which they are, so far as known, unique among birds.

Louise Flake was a welcomed guest.

LANG'S 4-H MEETING

(By Lois Jones, Reporter)

The Lang's 4-H Club held their monthly meeting on June 4th at the home of A. C. Turnage, Jr., at 8 p. m. The leaders, Miss Kirby and Mr. Winchester, were present. Miss Kirby told the members of the plans for the crowning of the King and Queen of Health on June 17. Twelve of the members are to do the Virginia Reel at this program so they practiced it on the lawn. The group then assembled on the porch and the president, Elizabeth Moore, called the meeting to order and the group gave the Club pledge. The roll was called by Dorothy Jones. Elizabeth Moore read a letter left by Minnie Mae Moore, who has left to go in training at Rex Hospital at Raleigh. This letter was Minnie Mae's resignation from the office of reporter. A new reporter, Lois Jones, was then elected. The group then sang four songs; "America the Beautiful," "Sweet and Low," "A Song of Health," and "God Bless America." After the songs, refreshments of ice box cake and peanuts were served.

THOMPSON-THIGPEN

Greenville, June 5.—This morning at half after ten o'clock, the Eighth Street Christian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding, when Miss Margaret Louise Thigpen was married to Mr. Reuben Dickerson Thompson, III, of Richmond, Va. The vows were spoken before the Reverend William A. Ryan, pastor of the bride.

The altar was decorated with tall standards of white gladioli, lilies, combined with palms and plumosa fern in the background. Ivory tapers in tall cathedral standards of seven-branched candelabra burned on either side of the flowers.

A program of nuptial music was played by Miss Marie Smith, with solos by Mrs. George Leonard Mann of New Bern. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Claude Luther Thigpen, wore a lovely navy and Alice blue dress. A navy veil fell from her large off-the-face Alice blue hat. Her bouquet was of white bridal roses and orchids. The orchids were later taken from her bouquet and used for traveling.

Miss Frances Thigpen of Washington, D. C., attended her sister as maid of honor.

Preceding the bride was the little ringbearer, Master Charles Edward Broughton, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Broughton, Jr., of Durham. He carried the ring in a Regale lily.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Joel E. Thompson, as best man. The ushers were J. T. Windham of Farmville, George Morgan and Jack E. Nobles, of Greenville, and Tom W. Graves of Wilson.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Claude Luther Thigpen and the late Mr. Thigpen of Greenville. After attending the Greenville high school and East Carolina Teachers College, where she received her A. B. degree, she entered the teaching profession and for the past three years has been a member of the faculty of the Farmville city schools. She is popular among a wide circle of friends and has been entertained extensively since her engagement has been announced.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Dickerson Thompson, Jr., of Richmond, Va. He attended the Wilson high school and the University of North Carolina. For several years he has been connected with the Imperial Tobacco Company. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home for the summer in Richmond.

FOUNTAIN NEWS
(By MRS. M. D. YELVERTON)

Mrs. J. B. Spilman of Greenville spent Sunday in Fountain with friends.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a member of the school faculty of Roanoke Rapids, is at home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Smith spent Sunday with Mrs. Smith's parents, near Dunn.

Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Trevathan were hosts to a barbecue dinner Sunday afternoon at their home in Fountain. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parker and sons, Mr. Edgar Lane and son of Pinetops, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Turnage and family of Chapel Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Johnson and family of Fountain.

PRESTON GARDNER DIES

Fountain community was greatly shocked Wednesday afternoon at the death of Joseph Preston Gardner, 38. Mr. Gardner, his wife, the former Marie Williams, of Greenville, and Miss Carol Yelverton were at Bayview when he met accidental death. His neck was broken when he dived in shallow water and died instantly. Besides his wife Mr. Gardner is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
