Lovely Parties Compliment To Miss Vernice Lang Jones

Announcement Party; Merry Matrons Meet; Daughters of The Confederacy

Honoring Miss Vernice Lang Jones, bride-elect of June the twenty-seventh, Mrs. R. T. Williams was hostess at a lovely bridge party on Saturday afternoon at the D. A. R. Chapter House.

Magnolia blossoms, white candles in silver holders and trailing ivy were used with beautiful effect on the mantels and ragged robins and roses in graceful bouquets were used on occasional tables.

Fifteen tables were at play. Mrs. W. B. Gaddy, scoring high, won a ivy bowl and Mrs. P. E. Jones as second high, received guest soap. Mrs. J. H. Moore was presented smoking accessories in consolation. In contests, Mrs. R. E. Pickett won defense stamps and Mrs. L. E. Flowers, linen towels.

A color scheme of green, white and pink was carried out in the refreshments consisting of ices, decorated cakes and salted nuts. An iced beverage was served before play.

The honoree's place was marked by a lovely corsage, miniature's of which were presented to guests as favors. The hostess' gift to Miss Jones was ice cocktails in her crystal pattern.

Morning Bridge.

Mrs. Walter B. Jones was charming hostess on Tuesday morning in compliment to Miss Jones. Roses and shasta daisies were used in decoration.

In the games, Mrs. H. Neal Howard won the high score prize of perfume and Mrs. P. E. Jones, the second high prize of Congress cards. Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., received bubble bath salts for low score.

The hostess presented Miss Jones with a corsage of tallman roses and a pair of lovely antique lamps.

Refreshment tables were centered with pink roses and delicious iced drinks were served with sandwiches, cheese straws, and pickles.

Luncheon.

Mrs. James R. Lang honored Miss Vernice Lang Jones at a lovely luncheon party on Thursday. Roses, hollyhocks, feverfew, ragged robins and daisies were used in artistic arrangement throughout the home.

The honoree's table was centered with a bouquet of pink and white flowers and place cards were in bridal design. Favors were pink and white nut baskets with handles of valley lily sprays.

A three course luncheon of iced tomato juice, cold ham, frozen fruit salad, asparagus tips in toast rings, green tomato pickles, buttered biscuits, iced tea and cherry tarts topped with whipped cream was served.

The hostess presented Miss Jones with a silver vegetable dish, and Miss Mary Friar Rouse was remembered with a bon-bon spoon in her pattern.

Announcement Party.

Mrs. James Monk, Jr., entertained at a lovely party on Friday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. B. O. Turnage, announcing the engagement of Miss Mary Friar Rouse to Mr. Richard Dixon Harris.

Summer flowers were in decorative arrangement throughout the home. Shasta daisies, feverfew and Queen Anne's lace were used on the enclosed porch where refreshing iced beverages, sandwiches in a variety of shapes and pickles were served, buffet. Cards bearing the names, "Friar and Dick" and "June nineteenth" were found centering the dainties on each refreshment plate.

Guests included the hostess, Miss Rouse, Miss Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. Tom Ryan, Mrs. George Moore, Jr., Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., Mrs. Alex Allen, Mrs. Coy Monk, Jr., Mrs. George Wilkerson, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Harry Harper, Mrs. Carl Turnage, Jr., Mrs. James Lang and Mrs. R. V. Fiser.

Supper Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Allen were hosts at a delightful supper party on Wednesday evening complimenting Miss Rouse and Mr. Harris.

Guests assembled at the Allen home and were invited to go on an old-fashioned hay ride to Green Wreath Park. During the trip the honorees were presented a gadget shower of useful gifts, which were attractively wrapped in newspapers, road maps, and paper bags, and were tagged with appropriate rhymed verses.

A delicious barbecue chicken supper with lemon pie was served.

Merry Matrons.

The Merry Matrons were graciously entertained by Mrs. W. M. Willis on Tuesday afternoon at her home which was beautifully decorated with bouquets of asters, sweetpeas, hydrangeas, ragged robins and roses.

Mrs. LeRoy Rollins, program chairman, submitted topics for study sent by the University Extension Division which were discussed with decisions being left to the committee. Mrs. M. V. Horton, program chairman for the afternoon, presented Miss Agnes Moore, who gave a splendid talk on "When Movies First Flowered." She gave a vivid picture of movies during the time of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks.

A musical program was beautifully rendered by Miss Dora Mae Barrett and Miss Betsy Jones, Master Neal Howard and Master Jackie Willis who sang "Wild Irish Rose" and "Home on the Range" and by Mrs. J. W. Joyner who sang "Trees" and "Indian Love Call."

Guests included Miss Vernice Lang Jones and Miss Mary Friar Rouse, brides-elect of the month, who were remembered by the hostess with lovely corsages of pink roses and feverfew and gifts, Miss Jones being presented a silver brood and butter plate and Miss Rouse, a lamp of antique brass with ivory and pink shade.

The Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, U. D. C., was graciously entertained by Mrs. Arch Flanagan on Friday afternoon at her home which was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. Blue and white larkspur and red roses carried the patriotic color scheme in the living room.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Lester Turnage. During the business session a report, stating that the recent flag sale netted eight dollars and ninety-five cents, was heard and the members voted to purchase a twenty-five dollar defense bond. The membership certificate of Mrs. Agnes Blount was presented at this time.

During the program, Marvin Horton, Jr., gave a splendid answer to the question "What is a Flag?" and Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Sr., gave an interesting paper on the Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga., which is the oldest Woman's College in the South. As a special feature, Mrs. Haywood Smith read a copy of a letter written by Jefferson Davis to her great-aunt, Miss Cora McClellan, in 1870, concerning some hair which he had sent to her to be used in the making of a wreath. This wreath is still in existence and is fashioned of strands of hair from many world famous people.

A delicious salad course was served with iced tea, sandwiches and pickles.

Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church Met Monday

MRS. J. D. HOLMES HONORED

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Monday afternoon, June 8, in the Church parlors with a large attendance. Mrs. Albert Holmes, President, presided, and opened the meeting by all singing the Woman's Hymn of the year. Mrs. J. H. Moore led the devotional which was taken from the Book of Ruth. Mrs. J. B. Joyner opened the program with a beautiful and inspiring prayer that Christian Graces might be found in all women, this being the subject of the program rendered by Miss Mamie E. Davis and Mrs. A. J. Melton.

At the close of the program all were asked to stand and join hands in a circle, then the following tribute was read and a miscellaneous shower given to one of the members, Mrs. John D. Holmes, who will soon leave to make her home in Texas.

Tribute.

"Members of the W. M. S., just as spring has passed and we are settling down to the long, warm, busy days of summer, our minds go back to days past when God planted in our midst a beautiful life, whose sweet trusting faith has shed about it uplifting and encouraging influences. This life has been a strong link in our W. M. S., doing, sacrificing, always patient and understanding of others. Bringing messages of song to cheer a burdened heart, to fill many a soul with joy, and point the way to a happy spiritual life.

"This life with its patient trusting faith has grown deep into the hearts of all W. M. S. members and cannot go from us to new fields of labor without our expressing our gratitude and love to her." So in behalf of the W. M. S. members a suit case of useful gifts were presented to Mrs. Holmes with love and heartfelt good wishes. All joined in singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." Mrs. A. J. Melton closed the meeting with a prayer.

For the social hour, all were invited into the ladies' parlor which was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of green and white and a soft touch of pink. Delicious ices, frosted cakes and salted nuts were served from a prettily appointed table by the hostess committee of which Mrs. A. B. Moore was chairman.

Bridge Club Meets

LEWIS-ROBINSON

In a setting of quiet dignity in the home of the bride's parents, Miss Ellen Louise Robinson became the bride of Mr. Redden Grimes Lewis, on Friday evening, June 5, with Reverend Phillip Woodard, Baptist minister of Stonewall, performing the ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of pines, fern and madonna lilies. White candles burned in floor candleabra.

The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional.

Little Miss Elizabeth Smith of Farmville was the only attendant. She wore a dress of pink embroidered organdy, trimmed with pink ribbon, and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The bride wore a white linen ensemble with a matching off-the-face hat. Her corsage was of red roses and gypsophila and tied with white ribbons.

Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Robinson of Oriental. She graduated from the Oriental High School and the Portsmouth Virginia, Beauty School, and is now associated with the Farmville Beauty Shop.

Mr. Lewis is the son of Mrs. J. R. Lewis and the late Mr. Lewis of Farmville. He holds a position with Lewis and Lang, here.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. J. R. Lewis, Miss Martha Lewis, Miss Grace Lewis, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss Lottie Korngay, Miss

MAYHELLE KORNGAY AND MISS EVELYN GAY, ALBERT LEWIS AND CHARLES RASBERRY OF FARMVILLE.

DIXON-GRAVES

In an impressive afternoon ceremony on Friday, June the fifth, at the Christian Parsonage here, Miss Edna Cornelia Graves, of Stantonburg, became the bride of Mr. Herbert Lewis Dixon, of Farmville.

Rev. C. B. Mashburn officiated and only the immediate families were present. Madonna lilies were used in decoration in the living room.

The bride wore a dress of powder blue with an off the face white hat and white accessories.

Mrs. Dixon is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Graves of Stantonburg. She graduated from the Stantonburg High School, took nurse's training at the State Sanatorium, and attended Mrs. Flower's Secretarial School at Wilson.

Mr. Dixon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Dixon of Farmville. He received his education from the Maury High School and the Atlantic Christian College in Wilson.

The marriage marks the union of two of the oldest families of this section of the State.

The young couple will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Dixon.

There are some who are so fond of work that they sit by and watch it being done.
