First Meeting of D. A. R. Marked By Special Program

Warring Nations And Their Leaders Theme of New Program Outlined by Mrs. Hooker

Another year began officially for the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., on Saturday, when Misses Helen, Hulda and Christine Smith delightfully entertained members and additional friends at the Chapter House. Quantities of dahlias, marigolds, zinnias and crotalaria were used in the assembly room in artistic arrangements.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson presided over the business session, at which time Mrs. T. E. Hooker, program chairman, distributed new year books and outlined the theme as "Warring Nations and Their Leaders."

Dr. R. H. Crossfield, of the Greenville Christian Church, formerly of Birmingham, Ala., a noted world traveler and lecturer, was guest speaker if the afternoon. With first hand information Dr. Crossfield put the spotlight on Japan and pointed out the reasons why that nation turned on America and joined the present world conflict.

The speaker outlined Japan's sense of destiny and ultimate objective as the subjugation of the whole world, and described with a keen insight the place the divine ruler, the divine land and the divine law hold in the life of the Japanese, who regard themselves as a superme people. Tracing the advancement of this nation in the past 60 years Dr. Crossfield gave education and the gift of imitation the credit for its progress. He closed with a detailed sketch of this implausible foe, and the necessity for arousing this nation to its danger.

Rev. C. E. Mashburn led the devotional, based on the 23rd Psalm, and introduced the speaker.

Mrs. T. E. Hooker introduced Miss Jean Ahyonius, soprano, and Miss Camille Jernigan, pianist, E. C. T. C. students, who presented a delightful musical program.

A delicious congealed salad course was served during a pleasant social hour. Special guests were Mrs. F. L. Eagles, Mrs. R. A. Fountain, Sr., and Mrs. C. M. Smith, all of Fountain.

as effective decoration.

Mrs. B. A. Parker, club member, and Mrs. Pat Ruffin, a guest, won the crystal hostess plates, given by the hostess as high score awards. Homemade peach ice cream and caramel cake were served prior to the games.

Sharing with members in pleasures of the afternoon were: Mrs. Herbert Acton, Mrs. Ben Vernon, Mrs. P. M. Kimbrough, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. Jack Stultz, Mrs. P. K. Anderson, Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and Mrs. Fred Oates.

Wednesday Afternoon Club.
 Members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club and special guests, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. Richard D. Harris, enjoyed an afternoon of progressive contract this week at the home of Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr. Dahlias carried a color note of orchid and white in the rooms where beautifully appointed tables were arranged for the games.

Mrs. R. B. Fiser, scoring high for members, and Mrs. Frank Allen, for guests, received War Stamp corsages.

Hostess plates, piled with assorted fruit, were used as table centers when refreshments, consisting of cheese straws, a variety of sandwiches, and arts, brownies and Russian tea were served.

Progressive Bridge Club.
 Mrs. L. T. Pierce was hostess at a delightful meeting of the Progressive Bridge Club this week, at her home, in which quantities of roses were used with pleasing effect. In the progressive games, Mrs. R. H. Knott scored high and Mrs. Jack Smith low. Awards were War Stamps.

A variety of sandwiches, cookies and coca-colas were served. Special guests were Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and Mrs. W. C. Holston.
