BIRD CLUB

Ray Prescott told the members about a brown thrasher, named Jerry, who talked himself to fame—Tom and Jerry Thrasher, when left orphans, were raised by a kind bird lover. After their babyhood days were over they were given the run of the house and were a source of much pleasure to the family. When grown they were released out doors, but after a day, Jerry returned to his foster mother and then she taught him to talk and soon he would repeat almost every word he heard. He now had a vocabulary of ninety words and an extensive repertory of phrases or sentences. Jerry is seven years old and has been a case, of course, but his friend says she has been repaid for all the trouble in what he has taught her about bird's reaction and bird ways, and in the facts that he never forgets to say "thank you—thank you."

Our birds out doors will chirp a grateful cheerful "thank you," too, if you will remember to give them crumbs and nuts to repay them for the many insects they eat.

WE WISH YOU A Merry Christmas — AND — A Happy New Year!

Christmas Spirit Prevails At Local Club Meetings

Woman's Club.
The woman's Club was entertained by Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, Mrs. J. W. Holmes and Mrs. J. M. Hobbyood at the home of the latter on December 11th.

The home was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and red berries. Mrs. Jesse Moye, president, presided over the business session and read letters from National Federation Headquarters relative to a Scholarship Fund for Nurses' training, and from Mrs. George Marshall in regard to the Cancer Control Drive in April. Mrs. Self announced the annual White-Christmas would be held at the Methodist Church, December 20.

The program, symbolic of the Christmas Season, and was very interesting. Mrs. Marvin Y. Self read the scripture lesson telling of the birth of the Christ Child. Mrs. A. B. Moore read two poems, one by Edward Sanford, and the Wondrous Story. Mrs. B. S. Sheppard gave a paper on Christmas greens and traditions, saying that the word Christmas comes from Christ and Mars and means the celebration of the birth of Christ—a festival that has been sinking deeper and deeper into the hearts of man for many hundreds of years—as far back as we find any records of the human race we find the custom of decorating the houses and temples with evergreens on occasions of rejoicing. The first record of a Christmas tree comes from alpsace in 1604. Mrs. Sheppard suggested that we grow pine, cedar, holly, ivy and nandinas and other berry bearing shrubs and so conserve our native evergreens.

Carols were sung, including O Little Town of Bethlehem, Hark, Hark, the Herald Angels Sing, Silent Night, Holy Night.

Delicious cranberry salad, ham biscuits, nuts and coffee were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Frank Harper was a welcome guest.

Contract Club.
Mrs. J. W. Joyner was gracious hostess to the Contract Club on Friday, the Joyner home being made especially festive at this time by a brilliantly lighted tree, and Yuletide arrangements on the mantle and tables throughout the rooms of cedar, red candles, poinsettias and glittering Christmas balls. The tables bore tally-favors, which were little booklets of Christmas Carols, accentuating the Christmas theme.

Mrs. Neal Howard, tallied high for the afternoon and was presented a Defense Corsage.

After play there was an exchanging of gifts from the Christmas tree among those present, while the hostess served plum pudding, followed by a Christmas beverage.

Mrs. John B. Wright, Jr., was a special guest.

Progressive Bridge Club.
Miss Tabitha DeVisconti delightfully entertained the Progressive Bridge Club at her home on Thursday afternoon. Lovely arrangements of red berries and white narcissus, from the hostess' own garden, were used effectively in decorations.

Mrs. R. O. Lang, high scorer for the afternoon, was awarded Defense Stamps.

At the conclusion of games the hostess served a sandwich plate and hot tea.

Mrs. R. O. Lang and Mrs. W. C. Holston were special guests of the hostess.

TO CLOSE FOR CHRISTMAS

D. A. E. MEET

Mrs. T. E. Hooker and Mrs. E. L. Baker, of Greenville, were hostesses to the D. A. E. on Saturday afternoon at the Chapter House. Greenery and candies were used in attractive decorations on the spacious mantles.

Mrs. E. B. Beasley, of Fountain, presided. Mrs. C. S. Eagles, of Saratoga, had charge of the devotional and read the Nativity Story taken from the scripture of St. Luke. Mrs. J. B. James, of Greenville, program chairman, introduced Mrs. June Rose, of Greenville, who presented a program consisting of two short plays; "Christmas Comedy" and "Christmas Mother," also pantomims, the Nativity Scene.

After adjournment the hostesses invited their guests upstairs to the Banquet Hall, where refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table. Mrs. June Rose assisted in serving a salad plate, and Mrs. Bert James poured tea. Nuts, mints and cookies were passed by Misses Joyce Corbett, Mary Rose Crisp, Gatharine Van Nortwick, Elma James, Muriel Shockwell and Jane Hooker Bradshaw, all of Greenville.

State College Hints For Farm Homemakers

By Ruth Current
State Home Demonstration Agent
N. C. State College.

Home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture advise taking a tip from the gas station boy who cleans your windshield, or from the man who cleans hotel windows. They have to know quick, easy methods of getting clear glass. They never use soap because they know that it streaks the glass and is hard to rub dry. And they never use rags that shed lint either.

Do you feel like a flat tire at 4 o'clock in the afternoon? Then, maybe what's wrong with you is your lunch. Perhaps you need vitamins—not the kind you get by buying pills, but the kind you derive from including raw fruits and vegetables in your lunch. The next time you have your lunch, be sure to include fresh fruit, maybe bright yellow carrot sticks, a couple of stalks of celery, a tomato or a bit of cabbage. These would all fit well in a lunch pail, too. If you like sandwiches, try a combination that includes a fresh raw vegetable, a meat and chopped raw spinach special, or try raisins, cheese and carrot spread.

"Do your feet hurt?" Ask the Consumer Guide. Seven out of 10 people, the Consumer's Guide reports, have foot trouble of some kind, usually due to poorly fitted shoes. You can't get your right size just by asking the clerk for a certain size. Don't go by the size of your last shoes either, because there is no standard for shoe sizes. Don't guess your size. Have your feet measured each time you buy shoes, and keep on trying shoes until you get a really comfortable pair.

Never buy shoes that need alterations.

Allow one-half inch beyond the end of your big toe to the end of the shoe inside. The ball of the foot (little toe to the great toe joint) should rest on the widest part of the sole. The Shank of your shoe should fit snugly under your arch.

The shoe should hug your heel, with no gaping and no slipping when you walk. The fit should be firm at the bottom of the heel as well as at the top.
