If a person loses his money he soon misses it. If he loses his mind he never misses it.

If many people turn to the eating of horse meat, horses will become as scarce as horse sense.

Usually when one puts the other fellow in his place he gets out of his own place while doing it.

State College Hints
For Farm HomemakersBy Ruth Current
State Home Demonstration Agent
N. C. State College.

We must make the most of what we have—and do it well and quickly. Don't let food stick or burn. Use the right cleansing agent for each kind of utensil. Do not subject pots and pans to sudden changes of temperature. Have small breaks repaired at once.

Take care of the clothes you have. Keep shelves and drawers neat, so that ribbons, ties, extra collars, underwear do not require pressing. Have a completely equipped shoe cleaning kit for the family. Check personal hygiene to avoid damage by perspiration.

Learn how to buy in wartime. This is no time to hold grudges. Learn to help each other do the extra jobs: laundering, shopping, and other household chores that demand special attention.

Carry packages. Shop for the neighbor—let her shop for you. A boy's wagon may do neighborhood war service!

Be resourceful. Keep your sewing basket handy to mend tears immediately. Out off worn parts of towels, napkins, cloths, and sheets, sew together neatly and use again.

Learn the right way to make minor mechanical repairs to your own equipment, safely and neatly.

MACHINERY

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced an order releasing all new farm machinery and equipment which was "frozen" in warehouses and distributors' stocks on October 31.

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Worthington, dressed soberly and wearing their best black gloves, walked along the story country road back toward Sophia Hardy's farm, to pay their visit of condolence.

"How do you reckon she'll be bearing up?" Mrs. Kimball asked Mrs. Worthington. Both ladies wore their most solemn, funeral expressions.

"A mighty severe blow," Mrs. Worthington said. "Mighty severe. To lose your only son, the mainstay of your declining years. And such a dreadful death, too—to go down with a ship, 'Mercy'!"

"The first of our boys from Hand County to go, too," Mrs. Kimball said, mournfully. "I wouldn't blame Sophia Hardy for feeling right bitter."

They stood on the simple stone doorstep, with downcast eyes, getting themselves into the proper commiserative mood.

"Come in!" the voice was brisk and cordial. They looked up in surprise. Sophia herself had come to the door. As they followed her into the parlor they exchanged glances, with eyebrows lifted. Sophia was not even in mourning. The parlor shades were not even drawn.

"It's nice of you to come," Sophia said. "Do sit down."

"We came," Mrs. Kimball said almost reprovingly, "to tell you that our hearts are bleeding for you in your great loss."

"We know how lonely you must be out here," Mrs. Worthington said. "With nothing to take your mind off."

"Oh, I keep busy," Sophia said. "I've just finished applying for the Government insurance on Tom's life."

The visiting ladies could not resist a shocked glance at one another.

"I want to get it right away," Sophia said. "So I can put it into War Bonds. My boy hasn't finished fighting yet, not by a long shot."

The ladies were so occupied with feeling horrified, so titillated by this callous behavior in a bereaved mother—that neither of them noticed Sophia's hands. Under the folds of her clean print dress, against the seat of her chair, they were tightly clenched.

(Story from an actual report in the files of the Treasury Department.)

Carry on for mothers like Sophia. Buy War Bonds till it hurts.

New Potato Variety
Gains In Popularity

The Sequoia variety of Irish potato, developed by N. C. State College horticulturists and made available to the public only about two years ago, is rapidly creating a place for itself in North Carolina farming.

Tested side by side with other of the older varieties commonly grown in this State, the Sequoia has consistently outyielded its competitors, according to reports of county farm agents.

One of the most outstanding examples of the superiority of the new potato comes from a Piedmont county where 19 farmers tested the Sequoia in competition with the older, widely-grown Irish Cobbler.

Reporting on the procedure carried out, O. F. McCrary, northwest district agent of the Extension Service, said each of the 19 growers in the demonstration planted 10 pounds of the Sequoia and an equal amount of the Irish Cobbler.

The two varieties were grown on the same type of land, with the same kind and amount of fertilizer, and the same kind of cultivation. Accurate records were kept and turned in by 15 of the demonstrators.

The records showed that the total yield of the Sequoia potatoes was 2,462 pounds and the total yield of the Irish Cobbler only 1,638 pounds. This was an increase in yield of 894 pounds in favor of the new variety, or 50 percent better than the Irish Cobbler.

Because of its excellent yields and its resistance to diseases and insects, the Sequoia will be planted by even larger numbers of North Carolina farmers this year, McCrary said.

On the same program Major-General Edmund B. Gregory, Quartermaster General of the United States Army, said in part, "Army nutrition experts find that the American soldier is a better fighting man when candy is a part of his diet."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

American flyers with the RAF are raining demolition bombs on Nazi cities today. These instruments of destruction so important in rasing Nazi war plants, interrupting rail, road transportation, and other war objectives, range now into several tons.

The 500-pound demolition Bomb is one of the lighter ones. Bombs are attached to facilitate handling and the fins are not attached until the Bomb reaches the airfield, because bending would injure accuracy. They cost up to $500. Your purchase of War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan will help provide Bombs for our airmen. Let's "Top that Ten Percent."
