LAMRAD CLUB

Mrs. Alex Allen was a charming hostess to the Lamrad Club and other guests, Mrs. Harry Harper and Mrs. Frank Allen for bridge on Friday afternoon.

Quince, pasties and spring bulbs were in graceful arrangement in the home.

Following the games in which Mrs. Harry Harper scored high, refreshing food drinks, party crackers, pickles and candies were served.

Mrs. Lewis Allen was a special guest during the refreshment hour.

CIRCLE MEET

The Business Women's Circle of the Baptist Church, met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Vaughan, with nine members present.

Mrs. J. H. Moore conducted the devotional, talking of Abraham.

Mrs. Leland Day, guest speaker, gave an inspiring talk on "The Individual Witness," and Mrs. Joseph Ratchelor taught the 1943 Yearbook of the Women's Missionary Union.

Special guests were Miss Mamie Lavis and Mrs. Leland Day.

During a delightful social hour, the hostesses served punch with a variety of cakes and pickles.

CONTRACT CLUB

Mrs. H. N. Howard delightfully entertained the Contract Club on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

Spring flower arrangements accentuated by attractive groupings of bunnies and chicks, brought the Easter motif to the decorations.

Additional to the Club members, guests included Mrs. Bill Murray, Mrs. Pat Ruffin and Mrs. James Lang who won the visitor's prize, a double deck of cards.

Mrs. Marvin Jones scored high for the Club, and received War Savings Stamps. Mrs. Will Joyner retained the floating prize, playing cards, given to the player holding a hand, ten spot high.

Refreshing drinks and sandwiches were served following the games.

U. D. C.

Mrs. B. S. Smith graciously entertained the Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, on Friday afternoon at her home in which red quince, purple pansies and white gladioli were used in lovely decoration.

In the absence of the President, Mrs. W. M. Willis presided, opening the meeting with the ritual and flag salutes.

Mrs. Willis and Mrs. G. M. Holden developed the program for the afternoon, giving a sketch of the life of James Monroe, fifth President of the United States, and talking on the Monroe Doctrine.

After adjournment, hot tea was served with party sandwiches and cookies.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Estelle McBride and Miss Hazel Baker were hostesses to the Junior Woman's Club at a lovely meeting on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. R. A. Parker which was decorated with beautiful spring flowers.

Mrs. Mabry Pollard, President, presided and appointed committees of the month for the Club Project and for the Club's part in the Cancer Control Drive.

Miss Frances Winstead, speaker for the evening, took her listeners on an imaginary trip to Washington State, visiting points of interest enroute, sharing with them the many pleasures of such a trip taken by her at this time last year. She illustrated her talk with colorful scenic cards.

The hostesses served delicious lemon chiffon pie with coffee and salted nuts.

RED CROSS

Local Red Cross contributions continue to come in and the total figure to date stands at $3,100.

In a follow-up campaign here this week, the Farmville Theatre collected $125.00 to aid in Farmville's quota.

Under the able direction of H. B. Sugg, moving spirit of the colored section, and the committees working with him, a splendid report was brought in with a total of $257.00 being contributed by the colored people of Farmville.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Reverend E. S. Currie, returned missionary from China, now residing at Mission Court, Richmond, Va., will preach at the Farmville Presbyterian Church, at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday morning, April 11th. He will also hold services at Carraway's Chapel at 3:30 P. M. and at Ballard's at 8:00 P. M. The public is cordially invited.

NOTE OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt appreciation to Farmville friends for their many acts of kindness, cheering cards, messages and flowers received while I was in the hospital.

Mrs. J. M. Wholes.

LITERARY CLUB

Miss Annie Perkins was a gracious hostess to the Literary Club on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, which was lovely with vases of crabapple blossoms and an Easter scene which decorated the dining room table, complete with garden flowers, Easter bunnies, chicks, eggs, and picket fence.

In the business session, Cancer Control literature was distributed and plans made for the club's participation in the Cancer Control Drive to be made here next Tuesday.

Miss Perkins made a plan for the club to aid in the upkeep of the Library, to which it responded.

Mrs. R. S. Sheppard gave the program for the afternoon in two parts: first, giving a review of "Today and Tomorrow" by Spengler; and second, making a splendid talk on "Women in War Time." She spoke of the Amazon Women as Warriors, Joan of Arc, Molly Pitcher, Emma Carroll and Edith Cavell and the part they played in the war's of their time, closing with a portrait of Madame Chiang-Kai-shek and a poem written about her.

After adjournment, delicious strawberry shortcake was served followed by coffee and cheese straws.

BIRD CLUB

Johnny Barrett read an article at the Bird Club meeting on Saturday entitled, "Gunless Hunter's Club for Boys." In this club a bird is "in the bag" when a member has made an instantaneous and correct identification—a bull's eye, but without a gun and so a new meaning to the terms "bull's eye" and "in the bag" has been given. The patience, speed, precision and sportsmanship are all there—yet the duck thus "bagged" still swims, the hawk still soars and the mourning dove still calls.

Billie Russell read the Legend of what happened to the swallows in the wintertime. After many years it was found by Naturalists that instead of sleeping in the mud all the winter they fly from England, to south to Africa in small groups.

Pictures of birds were studied and drawn and scrambled Bird names, were used.

George Manning was welcomed as a new member.

MANNING-CLARK

In the presence of a few intimate friends Miss Evelyn Clark, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Clark, Jr., of the Belvoir community, Pitt County, and Sergeant Paul G. Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Manning of the same community, were united in marriage by Reverend C. B. Mashburn at the Christian parsonage Tuesday afternoon, April the sixth.

Sergeant Manning who has seen foreign service in the Pacific, being at Pearl Harbor when it was bombed and later in the Solomon Islands and Guadalcanal, is now on furlough, after which he will return to Camp Croft, accompanied by Mrs. Manning.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmville Building and Loan Association will be held in the City Hall Tuesday night, April 20, at 8:15 o'clock. All members urged to attend.

J. O. POLLARD, President.
G. A. ROUSE, Secretary.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

JASON L. JOYNER

WHEREAS, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call our Comrade and Brother Jason L. Joyner to the Glorious and Celestial Temple above; AND WHEREAS, we desire to place upon our records an appropriate resolution to his memory, and expression of the esteem in which he was held by us while he was permitted to remain in our midst; THEREFORE, be it resolved by Farmville Post No. 151 American Legion:

FIRST: That in the death of our Comrade and Brother, we feel that a citizen and Legionnaire has gone to his reward, and while we mourn his departure, we cherish the hope that he is now enjoying the fruits of his labors.

SECOND: That we extend to all members of the bereaved family our deepest sympathy in their loss.

THIRD: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the family of our deceased, and a copy sent to The Farmville Enterprise for publication.

Committee,
C. F. Bancroft,
W. S. Royster,
W. M. Willis.
