Joyner gave a splendid review of several chapters of the Auxiliary's current study book, the closing chapter of which will be given at the next meeting to be held with Mrs. Moore on 3rd Monday.
Roses, iris, narcissus and pansies in lovely arrangements decorated the home and the hostess served fruit salad and iced tea.

ATTENDANCE RECORD

Two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holloman from Farmville have attended school from the first grade through the twelfth without missing a day, receiving a perfect attendance certificate for all of these years. These two girls, Joan and Nancy Holloman, graduated from Maury High School, April 29. They have been awarded a medal from this school for their splendid record.

HARRIS-JEFFERSON

Miss Heien Brown Jefferson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lang Jefferson of Fountain, was married on Friday evening to Private John Roderick Harris, Army Air Forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris of Farmville, in a private ceremony performed in the parsonage of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, Greenville, by the Reverend G. W. Perry, in the presence of a small group of friends.
The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dawson Jefferson.

She wore a tailored suit of white gaberdine with matching accessories and a corsage of valley lilies and red roses. Miss Anne Marie Jefferson, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. Herbert Hart and LeRoy Bass acted as groomsmen.

The former Miss Jefferson attended Greensboro College and was graduated from East Carolina Teachers College.

Mr. Harris attended Davidson College, East Carolina Teachers College and Smithfield-Mansley Business School in Richmond, Va. Prior to entering the service he was in business with his father. He is stationed with the 7th Ferrying Group, Gore Field, Great Falls, Montana. The wedding was arranged to correspond with his furlough.

There is no harm in writing spring poetry if you'll not let any one see it.

BRIDGE CLUBS MEET

Mrs. W. L. Smith entertained the New Deal Club on Thursday of last week. Beautiful spring flowers decorated the home.

Mrs. P. E. Jones served high for the club, winning a double-deck of cards. Mrs. Pat Ruffin, high for visitors, received a bottle of perfume.

Mrs. L. E. Walston was presented a lovely handkerchief in consolation. Upon arrival guests were served iced coca-colas and following the games, vanilla ice cream sodas and cookies. Bouquets of valley lilies decorated the refreshment plates.

Mrs. M. V. Jones was hostess to the Contract Club on Tuesday of this week at her home which was decorated with artistic arrangements of pink and red roses, snowballs and lavender iris.

War Savings Stamps were won by Mrs. M. V. Horton, high scorer, and a gift of bath powder was retained by Mrs. Lath Morris as little slam prize.

Refreshments were party sandwiches, served with iced coca-colas.

CIRCLE MEET

The Business Woman's Circle of the W. M. U., Farmville Missionary Baptist Church, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. J. Melton.

Mrs. Dorothy Gay was in charge of the devotional, using references from the Book of Job. Miss Annie Perkins and Mrs. A. B. Tyson gave a splendid program on Christian Education, the Sunday School, and the Daily Vacation Bible School.

All members were present except two. Mrs. Jake Joyner was a visitor. After the business session, the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

The hostesses, Mrs. Melton and Mrs. Robert Joyner served delicious cake and ice cream.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES MEET

The Circle groups of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met on Monday of this week with Mrs. W. C. Holston, hostess in the afternoon, and Mrs. Cherry Easley, hostess in the evening.

The Bible Study, "John, the Praying Partner" and the program, "Through the Printed Page," were developed by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood and Mrs. J. C. Corbett in the afternoon when 13 members were present and by Mrs. Cherry Easley and Miss Margaret Smith in the evening when 11 members attended.

Roses, iris, narcissus and pansies decorated the homes. Mrs. Holston served fruit salad and Mrs. Easley, chilled fruit cocktail with cake. Pansy blossoms decorated the plates.

LITERARY CLUB

Miss Elizabeth Davis presented a most interesting program at the meeting of the Literary Club on Wednesday afternoon.

The home of the hostess, Mrs. Haywood Smith, was beautifully decorated with quantities of roses, pansies and valley lilies.

Mrs. Henrietta Williamson presided during the absence of the president and Miss Tabitha DeViscotti gave a report on the recent Cancer Control Drive in which the club took part. At the request of club members, Mrs. J. B. Joyner will be asked to give a full report at the next meeting of the State Convention, which she attended in High Point recently.

Mrs. Marvin Self and Mrs. G. M. Holden were special guests and the hostess served a delicious salad course with iced tea. She was assisted by Miss Dorothy Smith.

CORRECTION

Due to an error the officiating minister, Rev. C. B. Mashburn, was omitted from the account of funeral services for John W. Moore printed in these columns last week.

We take pleasure in making the correction.

Farmville's Federated Clubs Recognized At State Convention

Junior Woman's Club Receives Outstanding Award

Farmville Clubwoman attending the State Convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs in High Point recently were Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, State Chairman of the Saffie Southall Cotton Loan Fund; Mrs. J. B. Joyner, past president of the 15th District, who represented the Literary Club; and Mrs. Jesse Moye, past State Junior Editor, who represented the Woman's Club, of which she is president, and the Junior Woman's Club.

The Farmville Junior Woman's Club won the Llewellyn Williams Robinson Award, a pewter bowl, in the shape of a dogwood blossom, the State Flower, which is given to the Junior Club doing the most outstanding Community Service in a town with a population under 5,000. Mrs. Mabry Pollard is president of the Club and the project for the year was in the field of welfare work. Two other state awards have been won by the Farmville Juniors in previous years, the Hocutt Cup for attendance at District meetings, when Mrs. James Wheeler, Jr., was president; and the Mammie Browne Latham award for Best Community Service, won when Mrs. Jesse Moye was president.

The Woman's Club received a certificate award for being among the Honor Roll Clubs. The Literary Club, the Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club were publicly commended for their work in the recent Cancer Control Drive for Funds which the three Clubs cooperated in making here, and the results of which were considered outstanding for a town of this size.

SHOWER

On last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. Letha Edwards and Mrs. Jones delightfully entertained, honoring Mrs. C. B. Roebuck who will soon leave to make her home in Mississippi with her husband who is in service there.

After several interesting games were enjoyed the hostesses assisted by Misses Pat and Frances Jones served a salad plate with grape juice, after which they brought in a table laden with lovely gifts and presented them to the honoree, who received several pieces of silver and china in her selected pattern.
