U. D. C.

program was given by Mrs. Rouse

Charleston, S. C., May 13. - Two North Carolinians recently were graduated here with a class of Naval officers and men selected for special training in detecting and destroying enemy submarines.

They are: Ensign Thomas Eli Joyner, Jr., of 302 N. Main Street, Farmville, and J. K. Wilson, Jr., Sound-man third class, of High Point. The anti-submarine training is a part of the Navy's comprehensive preparedness program in which regulay duties are supplemented by brief but intensive courses in various phases of Navai warfare.
