Miss Gregory Bride Of Private Webber

The marriage of Miss Marie Lealino Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alexander Gregory, and Pvt. Ross Langley Webber, of the United States Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shade Webber, was solemnized Tuesday evening, August 17, at eight o'clock, in the First Baptist Church, in a ceremony characterized by dignity and simplicity. Officiating ministers were Rev. E. C. Chambliss, pastor of the Church, and the Rev. M. E. Godwin of Dunn, uncle of bride.

Nuptial music was rendered by J. R. Shearin and Elbert C. Holmes, baritone. Organ selections included "Indian Love Call," "The Prayer Perfect," and the traditional wedding march of Wagner and Mendelssohn. "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was played softly as the vows were spoken. Mr. Holmes sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Church decorations were in pink and green. Gladioli in floor baskets flanked the tall standards of cathedral candles and the choir loft was banked with greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length dress of heavenly blue organza, trimmed with a lace yoke of self color. The skirt was full and the short sleeves were in puff mode. Her hair ornament was of white tulle.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations sprays tied with pink satin ribbon and cerise chiffon. Lewis Dixon was best man, and ushers were W. A. Martin, C. V. Johnston, J. W. Menden and David T. Harris.

The bride's mother wore a beige dress with a corsage of pink roses, and the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with a shoulder bouquet of red roses.

After a motor trip, Mrs. Webber will remain at Farmville and Pvt. Webber will report to his headquarters at Fort Bragg.

For traveling, Mrs. Webber wore a brown and beige ensemble. Her hat was a small, brown fall model and accessories matched.

The bride was graduated from the Farmville high school in the class of '43, and the bridegroom received his education in Farmville schools also.

Following the rehearsal, Monday evening, the bride's mother entertained at a cake cutting. Clematis graced the mantels of the Gregory home and other floral decorations carried the traditional nuptial colors of white and green.

The dining room table, from which ices, cake and nuts were served, was centered with an arrangement of white roses, asters and feverfew, which was flanked by white candles in silver holders. Mrs. J. R. Shearin, Miss Verla Williams and Miss Jane Turnage assisted in serving.
