BRIDGE HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN CLUBS AT LOVELY MEETINGS

Mrs. George Moore, Jr., entertained the Lamrad Club and other guests, Mrs. Harry Harper and Mrs. Charles Hotchkiss for three progressive bridge on Friday afternoon of last week, when Mrs. Alex Allen scored high. Scarlet sage, dusty miller and red lilliput sinias in mixed arrangement decorated the home and the hostess served coca-colas with sandwiches and home made cucumber pickles.

Mrs. W. S. Royster was hostess to the Contract Club on Tuesday afternoon, presenting War Savings Stamps as high score prize to Mrs. Hubert Joyner and a crystal basket of Mrs. W. Leslie Smith who held the closest score equivalent to half of the high score. Following play, apple pie topped with grated cheese was served with hot coffee. Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., was a special guest of the hostess.

On Wednesday afternoon, the New Deal Club met with Mrs. W. R. Burke, who had as additional guests, Mrs. M. E. Dixon, Mrs. George Monk, Mrs. Pat Ruffin, Mrs. Frank Gass, Mrs. Ben Vernon, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Paul Kimbrough and Mrs. R. T. Williams. Mrs. Williams scored high among guests and Mrs. Henrietta Williamson, among club members, each receiving prizes of dusting powder. Mrs. Zeb Whitehurst was presented a crystal hat for low score.

After the games, party sandwiches, cookies, and nuts were served with tea. Roses in graceful arrangement decorated the Holden home in which the meeting was held.

Mrs. Tom Ryon entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club this week at her home in which a variety of fall bloom was used in decorating. Mrs. Coy Monk and Mrs. Irvin Morgan, compiling top scores, won War Savings Stamps. A fruit salad course was served with home made nut bread and hot coffee, after cards were laid aside. Additional guests were Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss and Mrs. Irvin Morgan.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Junior Woman's Club held an enjoyable meeting on Thursday, September 16, at the home of Mrs. R. T. Williams, which was decorated with beautiful fall roses. Mrs. Leroy Parker presented the program, "White Cliffs" as narrated on a photograph recording by Joan Fontaine.

Members voted to select a project in the line of welfare work and a committee was appointed to see how best the club could serve the community in this capacity.

The President, Mrs. M. E. Pollard reported on the Clubwoman magazine, mentioning several articles therein. One stressed the buying of War Bonds and another concerned a tribute to Miss Marie Stewart, writer of the Clubwoman's Collect, who died in April. Miss Stewart wrote the Collect, with no particular group of people in mind, but for use only as a prayer, upon the occasion of her first position as teacher in a high school. She later offered it as a Clubwoman's Collect, because at that time she felt that women working together with wide interest would need something special for mediation of their own.

The afternoon group is arranging to circulate books among themselves, each one contributing one of their present collection or purchasing a new one. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss is in charge of this activity.

OUR APOLOGIES

Apologies to W. E. Joyner, in whose advertisement on this page of last week's issue, we made an error. North Carolina Couple Married in Evening Ceremony in Miami

Of interest to friends in this State, the District of Columbia, and Florida, was the marriage of Miss Dora De-Grace Rountree, of Washington, D. C., and Miami, Fla., and Wayne A. Mitchell, Jr., Lieutenant, United States Army Air Corps, of Kinston and Goldsboro, on Thursday evening, September 16, at 8:00 o'clock, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Miami, Fla. Rev. G. I. Hiller, rector, officiated in the impressive, double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, Bruce DeLis, organist, presented a program of nuptial music, including "Ave Maria," by Schubert, "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond, and "To A Waterlily," by MacDowell. The traditional wedding marches were used and "Liebestraum," by Liszt, was softly played while the vows were spoken.

The bride was attended by Miss Virginia Holliday, of Talloquah, Okla., as maid of honor. Miss Holliday wore a dress of purple crepe with sequin trim and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bridegroom had as best man, Lieutenant Frank McCarthy, of the United States Navy. The bride was attired in a dress of beige crepe made with a marquisette yoke of flesh color, outlined with gold beads. Accessories were brown, and her corsage was of orchids. Her only ornament was a crescent shaped, diamond and pearl brooch, a gift of the bridegroom's father to his bride on their wedding day. The wedding ring was the bridegroom's mother's also.

Mrs. Mitchell, a descendant of prominent pioneer families of Eastern North Carolina, and the only daughter of Mrs. Madeline H. Rountree, of Farmville, and Washington, D. C., and Charles S. Rountree, of Belhaven, is a charming young woman of exceptional talents and intellect. She received her education at East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, and Temple Business College, Washington, D. C. She has held a responsible position with the Federal Bureau of Investigation for several years, having been transferred from the Washington department to the Miami branch in recent months.

Lieutenant Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. Mitchell, of Kinston. He was educated in the Kinston schools and at Oak Ridge Military Institute. Prior to entering the Army Air Corps, he was engaged in the livestock business in Kinston. Lieutenant Mitchell is now stationed at Seymour Johnson Field, Goldsboro, where the young couple will make their home.

Immediately after the ceremony, Misses Virginia Holliday, Ethel Rothfuss and Virginia Young, roommates of the bride, entertained at an informal reception, honoring the couple, at the Clyde Court Apartments, in Miami.

Cords of Pulpwood—Cords of Shells

CORDS OF SHELLS protected by casings made from cords of pulpwood cut in farm woodlots of United States are needed for our armed forces along the road to victory. At U. S. Army ammunition dump in South Carolina members of 51st Ordnance Company "pass the ammunition" during recent maneuvers. Later they will pass it for guns to blast the Axis. Inset shows cord of pulpwood which will make enough smokeless powder to fire two rounds of a 16-inch naval or coast defense gun. Cut more pulpwood and help win the war!
