

Social and Personals

Miss Adelaide Dail spent last week end in Raleigh.

Mrs. H. L. Mann has been on the sick list this week.

Mack Carraway, of New Bern, will spend the week end at his home here.

Mrs. T. S. Ryan, Mrs. Coy Monk and Mrs. Walter Jones were Greenville visitors, Thursday.

Mrs. E. L. Finch, of Weldon, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gaynor.

Miss Myrtle Brown of Raleigh, will spend the week end with Miss Adelaide Dail.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brock, Jr. and Mrs. Melton Allen spent Sunday in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Perry, of Apex, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harper, Wednesday.

Cpl. James R. Jones' new address is: 805 Chem. Co-P-1-AAB, Lake Charles, La.

S. H. Wooten of Charleston, S. C., is spending the week with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. C. E. Moore returned Friday after a visit of several days to relatives in Wilson.

Mrs. Robert Lee Smith and Miss Bertha Lang were Rocky Mount visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Patrick, of Elm City, will spend the week end with Mrs. DeWitt G. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lang attended the Methodist Conference in Rocky Mount on Wednesday.

Mrs. Cherry Easley and Miss Jen Easley spent last week end with relatives in Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hedgepeth and children moved their residence this week to the Shoe Apartments.

Mrs. Sara Perry, of Durham, spent several days of this week with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Harper.

John Stanley Smith visited relatives here Sunday enroute from Virginia Beach, Va., to West Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Paul McDonald left Thursday for a visit to her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald, in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. E. W. Staton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nonkes of Scotland Neck, will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Rollins.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wesley Joyner and daughter, Patricia, of Newport News, Va., spent the week end with relatives here.

Mrs. Ronald Nichols returned to her home in Plymouth Sunday after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ivey.

Miss Frances Banks of Elizabeth City who is a student at E. C. T. C., was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Butterfield.

Mrs. W. R. Dixon, Jr., and daughter, Barbara Ann, left Sunday to join Mr. Dixon in Miami, Fla., where they will make their home.

Ensign and Mrs. James Lee Cox, of Ithaca, N. Y., and Norfolk, Va., spent the past week end here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Monk.

Jack Blount left Tuesday for Baltimore after a visit of ten days with his mother, Mrs. Agnes Blount, and his sister, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davis, of Tarboro, and Mrs. W. R. Creech, of Smithfield, were guests of Mrs. Cherry Easley, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Melton returned to their home in Jacksonville Wednesday after a ten day visit with their son, A. J. Melton and Mrs. Melton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Green of Washington, D. C., will arrive Sunday to spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Thomas S. Ryan and Mr. Ryan.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Gay, a former resident of Farmville, are glad to know she is improving from a sinus treatment in a Richmond, Va. hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Cedric Davis and Otis Lee attended the Jeanette MacDonald Concert in Raleigh, Tuesday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Mashburn attended the funeral of Mrs. Cecil P. Outlaw in Ellenton, S. C., Wednesday. Rev. Mashburn conducted the service.

Mrs. Cecil E. Thorne and infant daughter, Paula Sue, arrived Friday of last week to make their home with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Joyner, 12 (1/2) Thorne is now on the Pacific Coast. Mrs. Thorne is the daughter of Mr. H. A. Joyner who accompanied her here.

Rev. James J. Ellis of Atlantic Christian College will preach at the Liberty Advent Christian Church near Mashburn on Sunday at 11:00 A. M. Everyone is cordially invited.

CALENDAR

Monday, Nov. 8
8:00 P. M.—Spiritual Life Group, Methodist, meets in the Church.

8:30 P. M.—Woman's Council, meets in the Christian Church.

8:30 P. M.—Woman's Missionary Society meets in the Baptist Church.

8:30 P. M.—Woman's Society of Christian Service meets in the Methodist Church for Harvest Day meeting. All members are reminded to bring in their mite boxes.

8:30 P. M.—Circle No. 1, Presbyterian Auxiliary, meets with Mrs. George Beckman.

4:00 P. M.—Episcopal Auxiliary meets with Mrs. J. H. Darden.

8:00 P. M.—Circle No. 2, Presbyterian Auxiliary meets with Mrs. J. L. Smith.

Tuesday, 9
3:00 P. M.—P.T.A. Benefit Bridge Tournament.

3:30 P. M.—Merry Matrons meet with Mrs. M. V. Horton in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

6:30 P. M.—Girls leave for Service Men's Dance at Seymour Johnson Field.

6:30 P. M.—Rotary Club.

7:30 P. M.—Boy Scouts.

8:00 P. M.—Business Woman's Circle, Baptist, meets.

8:00 P. M.—Junior Order.

8:00 P. M.—P.T.A. Benefit Bridge Tournament.

Wednesday, 10
8:00 P. M.—New Deal Club meets with Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr.

8:30 P. M.—Wednesday Afternoon Club meets with Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver.

Thursday, 11
8:00 P. M.—Farmville Home Demonstration Club.

8:00 P. M.—Interdenominational Meeting of Church Women to be held in the Episcopal Church.

4:00 P. M.—Pioneers of the Presbyterian Church meet with Miss Janet Stansell.

7:00 P. M.—American Legion meets in the Legion Hall for Armistice Night Banquet.

Friday, 12
8:30 P. M.—Woman's Club meets in the home of Mrs. W. J. Raspberry with Mrs. Raspberry and Mrs. J. W. Bass as hostesses.

Mrs. Louis Swindell will speak on "Clothing Fabric."

7:15 P. M.—Masons will have annual "Ladies' Night," at the Country Club.

8:00 P. M.—Woodmen of the World.

Saturday, 13
10:00 A. M.—Bird Club.

DAR—Postponed to 4th Saturday.

Blair Cox of Winterville was the over-night guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, Tuesday.

Miss Jane Grantham of Goldsboro spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week with Miss Elvira Tyson.

Mrs. Tony Melton and Mrs. W. B. Gardner spent a few days of this week with their sister, Mrs. E. W. Lovic, who is now employed at the State Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Thorne, Miss Mary Leah Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones, Miss Betsy Jones and Miss Anne Jones attended the concert of Jeannette MacDonald in Raleigh on Tuesday evening.

Pvt. Wallace D. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barrett, who was recently inducted, left Thursday of last week to begin his Marine Training. His address is Pit. 798, Recruit Depot, Paris Island, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. David Howard, former residents of Farmville, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Rollins, Sunday. Pvt. Howard was recently inducted into the army and is now stationed in Maryland. Mrs. Howard is making her home in Reidsville.

Mrs. Herbert Acton, Jr. returned to Raleigh Wednesday. Mr. Acton, who has been on the tobacco market here, will join Mrs. Acton and their daughters, Martha Ann and Mary Alice, there Friday, from where they will return to their home in Danville, Ky.

A number of R. A. Boys of the Baptist Church will attend a Convocation of the Royal Ambassadors of the Rocky Mount District, which is being held in Scotland Neck, today. They are Allen Parker, James Thorne, Cedric Davis, Carl Creech, Dan and Ferd Satterthwaite.

Ensign Paul A. Parker, who has been spending two weeks leave with his folks the J. C. Parker family, left Sunday for San Diego, Calif., where he will report for duty, Nov. 6th. He received his pilot wings and commission in July from the Peaseola Training Center and has since completed his operational training at Benjamin Lee Field near Jacksonville, Fla. Before coming home on leave, he went to Chicago for Aircraft Carrier check.

CHURCH NOTICE
Rev. James J. Ellis of Atlantic Christian College will preach at the Liberty Advent Christian Church near Mashburn on Sunday at 11:00 A. M. Everyone is cordially invited.

ATTENTION GIRLS!

You are invited to attend the Formal Dance at Seymour Johnson Field, tonight. The Army bus leaves from the City Drug Store at 6:30 this evening.

At the Tuesday evening dance this week, Miss Alice Taylor lead the grand march.

MISS HOWARD HONORED

Miss Frances Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Howard of Farmville has recently been elected to represent her class on the Student Council at Stratford College, in Danville, Va. Miss Howard will graduate in June.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB BENEFIT SUPPER A SUCCESS

Reports from the Home Demonstration Club state that their Brunswick Stew Supper served recently was a big success. A large number attended and enjoyed the fellowship of the occasion. A log fire burned in the huge fireplace and artistic arrangements of autumn leaves were used in decoration. Stew, slaw, pickles, cornsticks, doughnuts and coffee were served. The Club made between sixty and sixty-five dollars.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

The P. T. A. wishes to announce a Benefit Bridge Tournament to be played on Tuesday, Nov. 9th, in the School Gymnasium at 8:00 P. M. and 8:00 P. M. Tables may be reserved for other games. Attractive prizes will be offered. Players are requested to bring cards, score pads and pencils. For further information and reservations call Mrs. Mack Carraway, Mrs. Neal Howard or Mrs. M. V. Jones, by noon Monday.

MASONS TO HAVE "LADIES' NIGHT"

The Farmville Masonic Lodge will have their annual "Ladies' Night" on Friday, November 12th, at the Farmville Country Club. Dinner will be served at 7:15 after which there will be a good musical program.

Dr. T. C. Johnson will be the speaker and a good short and snappy program is promised.

All those who haven't mailed their reservation cards are requested to please do so by Monday.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The services at the Christian Church Sunday will be a special feature—Reminiscences of thirty-seven years in the ministry. The Pastor's subject will be, "Some Things I Know." Mrs. Arthur Jones of Washington, D. C., will sing.

The public is cordially invited. Rev. Masburn wishes to have all his membership present—he would like to greet all of them on this day of rejoicing.

For the Services at 7:30 P. M., the Subject will be, "Shorn Of Strength."

"KID PARTY"

Among attractive parties enjoyed by the younger set recently was a "Kid Party" given by Misses Vivian Scott and Betsy Jones at the home of the former. Stuffed animals and other appropriate toys decorated the living-room. Costume prizes were won by Miss Betsy Morris and Dan Morgan. Other guests included Dora Mae Barrett, Babs Williford, Ann Moore, Joyce Tyson, Neal Howard, Jackie Willis, Charles Parker, Cedric Davis, Harold Rouse and Maynard Thorne. Refreshments were pepi-colas, sandwiches, pickles and "Stick Candy."

DOROTHY LEWIS HEADS ECTC STUDENT BODY

Greenville, Nov. 2.—With special elections completed this week at East Carolina Teachers College to fill vacancies in major student government offices, the student body is headed by Dorothy Lewis of Farmville as president and Virginia Cooke of Greenville as vice president.

Miss Lewis, chosen last spring as vice president, was elected by the Student Cooperative Council at its first meeting this fall to fill the vacant office of president and Miss Cooke, also a junior, was named as her successor in this week's elections.

Other leading officers include Mary Emma Jefferson of Fountain, president of Wilson Hall.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Andresen of Ontario, Va., announce the birth of a son, Per Krogh Andresen, the 2nd, in the Greenville Hospital on Thursday, October the twenty-eighth. Mr. and Mrs. Andresen have been in Farmville during the tobacco season for the past several years.

Captain and Mrs. N. H. Henry of Alexandria, Va., announces the birth of a daughter on Tuesday November the second in Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Henry is the former Miss Lottie Lane Joyner. The baby's maternal grandmother is Mrs. C. C. Joyner of Farmville.

If your friend wants you to sing his notes with him, do it. If he wants you to sign them with him, do it.

CLUBS MEET

THE LITERARY CLUB met with Mrs. J. H. Harris on Wednesday afternoon at her home which was lovely with arrangements of roses and marigolds. Mrs. J. W. Joyner presided in the absence of the president.

Announcement was made that the School has been notified that the Literary Club will offer a $5 prize to the freshman in High School who shows the greatest improvement in English.

Mrs. Cherry Easley gave a most informative paper on "Soviet Russia and the Communists," which was based on Wallace Carroll's book, "We're In This With Russia." Mrs. Easley reviewed the rise of communism in Russia through the three five year plans and discussed the rights of the individual under the Soviet Constitution and future Russian-American relationships. An open forum followed.

Mrs. E. C. Chambliss, Mrs. G. Alex Rouse and Mrs. M. Y. Self were special guests of the hostess. Coconut cake and vanilla frappe were served and the hostess passed a tray of wafers, cookies, nuts and mints.

THE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB held an interesting meeting on Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Alex Allen which was decorated with lovely chrysanthemums in shades of pink and burgundy.

The president, Mrs. Mabry Pollard, presided and urged each member to continue buying war stamps and bonds and to aid in any type of war work possible. The Club voted to send a check for twelve dollars to the Senior Club for the Librarian Salary Fund. Mrs. John Butterfield announced that a room has been secured in the School Building to be used as a store-room for used clothing and articles which may be distributed when needed. The Club will serve as contact between would-be Waves and Recruiting Officer, Mrs. J. W. Munden will establish contact and Miss Margaret Smith will be publicity chairman. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss gave a report from the Clubwoman Magazine.

Mrs. R. T. Williams was assisted by Mrs. S. T. Lewis, in presenting the program which included an interesting talk on the origin and customs of Halloween and a number of contests, in which prizes were won by Mrs. Jesse Moye, Mrs. Butterfield and Mrs. Frank Allen.

The hostess served a sweet course with coffee.

THE CONTRACT CLUB met with Mrs. Wesley R. Willis on Tuesday afternoon, with two tables at play. Marigolds and chrysanthemums were used in artful decoration. Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner won the high score prize of War Saving Stamps. Refreshments were ambrosia, fruit cake and coffee.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE

The Junior Intermediates of the Baptist Church and a number of their friends enjoyed an evening of fun arranged for them by their leader, Miss Marjorie Parker and their sponsor, Arthur Joyner, Jr., on Friday evening.

Twenty attended and refreshments were coca-colas and cookies.

On Saturday evening fifteen young folks of the Baptist Church, who are members of the pastor's "Go To Church Club" didn't miss over four services during the past fifteen weeks, were entertained at a Halloween party by Mr. and Mrs. Chambliss. Guests were Cedric Davis, Gerald Davis, Videau Joyner, Seleta Tucker, Robert Everett Roebuck, James Thorne, Lola Grey Kemp, Mary Ann Eason, Peggy Eason, Dot-dee Jones, Wilbur Morris, Shirley Newton, Ruth Tyson, Carl Creech and Jimmie Chambliss, and all came in costume. The prize for the most original costume went to James Thorne who came as an old man, complete with long beard and a hump on his back. In an apple eating contest, Cedric Davis and Videau Joyner won prizes. A number of other games were enjoyed. Refreshments were grape-juice, cookies, candies and fruit.

PIONEERS

The Pioneers of the Presbyterian Church met with Viola Smith on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 28. Loraine Butts gave the devotional, using as her topic, "Jesus Loving Little Children." Carol Butts sang, "The Children's Friend." The program was developed by the hostess, who talked of "What Shall We Do On Sunday." The meeting closed with a prayer by Janet Stansell, after which a surprise Halloween party was given for the group by the hostess and her mother. Halloween games were enjoyed, and refreshing iced drinks were served with Halloween candies, cookies and peanuts. Additional guests included Miss Edna Robinson, Miss Annie Lee Jones and Mrs. W. B. Carraway.

WOMEN OBSERVATION POST OBSERVERS FOR THE NEXT TWO WEEKS

Wednesday, Nov. 10—Mrs. Frank Allen, 1 to 3 P. M. Mrs. Eddie Carraway, 3 to 5 P. M.

Wednesday, Nov. 17—Mrs. Lath Morris, 1 to 3 P. M. Mrs. W. H. Duke, 3 to 5 P. M.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE ENTERPRISE

PARTIES GIVEN FOR OUT OF TOWN VISITORS

Mrs. Irvin Morgan entertained at bridge on Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Herbert Acton, Jr. Two tables were at play and guests included the hostess, Mrs. Coy Monk, Mrs. Alex Allen, Mrs. Thomas S. Ryan, Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mrs. George Moore, Jr., Mrs. Frank Allen and Mrs. E. D. Harris. Mrs. Monk compiled high score and won a War Saving Stamp course and the guest of honor was presented a double deck of cards.

Dahlias and roses were in graceful decoration and cake, salted peanuts, and coca-colas were served.

Honoring Ensign and Mrs. James Lee Cox, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Monk, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones entertained on Monday evening. Bridge was played at three tables and players were the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Fiser, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Monk, Mrs. George Monk, Miss Nellie Butler, Mrs. Robert Monk, Arthur Joyner, Jr., W. R. Collier and the host.

High score prizes were won by Mrs. Cox, who received a crystal egg plate, and by Mr. Fiser who received a carton of cigarettes. Mrs. Cox was presented a fruit bowl as a gift and her place was marked by a corsage of red roses. Roses and chrysanthemums were in lovely decoration throughout the home and refreshments were ice cream, cake and salted nuts.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Little Miss Nan Williams entertained the members of her Kindergarten Class at a Masquerade Halloween Party at her home on Saturday evening. Bobbing for apples and a number of other games were enjoyed and refreshments of punch, cookies and candies were served on the lawn from an attractively decorated table. The hostess' mother showed movies of Mickey Mouse, The Circus, Little Black Sambo, and Donald Duck.

"SLAP THE JAPS WITH SCRAP"

ROBERTS
And his associates say your two best investments of today are—
FIRST — BUY MORE WAR BONDS!
SECOND — BUY MORE DIAMONDS!
Use Our Christmas Lay-Away-Plan Now!
Roberts' Jewelers
H. S. HATEM, Representative Farmville, N. C.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rally Day is being observed at the Baptist Church this Sunday in all the services of the day. By this article, by card, telephone, personal invitation members of the church and others who do not attend any Church or Sunday School are urged to come and bring the entire family as far as this is possible. The goals for the day are, 150 in S. S., 250 in the A. M. worship, 50 in Baptist Training Union, and 80 in the evening service. These goals aren't very high, but unless the people who should be there come they will not be attained. Meet us Sunday at 9:45 A. M.

Progress on the drive to pay off the Church Debt has almost reached the half-way mark. The people are responding in a very fine manner and it seems as though the debt will be paid by the time set. If you plan to come please send the amount to Miss Annie Perkins or Mr. Carl Tyson.

Monthly meeting of the Board of Deacons will be held in the pastor's study Monday evening, November 8 at 8:10.

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina will convene at the First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem November 16-18. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis and Rev. E. C. Chambliss plan to attend from the local Church.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to call its Terrestrial to that glorious and celestial temple above, the soul of our beloved brother, R. E. Belcher, who departed this life, on the 14th day of October, 1946.

And Whereas, we desire to place upon our records an appropriate resolution to his memory, an expression of the esteem in which he was held by us while he was permitted to remain in our midst.

Therefore be it resolved by Farmville Lodge No. 517 A. F. and A. M. FIRST: That in the death of our brother, our lodge has lost a loyal member. We feel that a citizen, and Mason has gone to his reward, and while we mourn his departure, we cherish the hope that he is now enjoying the fruits of his labors, "In that house not made by hands, eternal in the heavens."

SECOND: That we extend to all members of the bereaved family our deepest sympathy in their great loss.

THIRD: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy to the Orphanas Friend for publication. Also, a copy to The Farmville Enterprise.

Committee:
E. C. HOLMES,
C. A. TYSON,
O. H. LEMMON.

Now THE NEWEST IDEA IN INLAID REDI-CUT TREADLITE FLOORS

Precision-cut at the factory from Nairn Treadlite DeLuxe—the inlaid linoleum on duplex felt backing—into Squares and contrasting Color Strips for easier installation and modern style and beauty.

Now you can have the matchless beauty, the longer wear and easy cleaning and maintenance of this thicker, smoother inlaid linoleum plus the easier, more economical installation made possible by the built-in, cushioning felt backing and the modern, factory-cut design—all at pre-war prices!

Among the many gorgeous colors you're sure to find your favorites—colors suitable for all the rooms in your home.

SO EASY TO INSTALL — SO EASY TO CLEAN — SO ECONOMICAL

Squares and Color Strips are cemented direct to the floor. The built-in felt backing bonds to the cement promptly and permanently. No extra lining felt required.

Squares are easy to handle—Only a small amount of cutting is necessary. There's practically no waste. Treadlite cuts easily with heavy shears or tin snips.

Easy, simple installation saves you money—or, if you prefer, we'll arrange for installation at a reasonable charge.

Install it so easy almost anyone can do it. No fuss—no bother—quickly done. Furniture can be replaced and room is ready for use four hours after finishing.

To see your Red-Cut Treadlite Floor bright and gleaming for years, just wipe it with a damp cloth and wax occasionally with Nairn Self-Polishing Wax.

25c Installed PER SQ. FOOT

This low price includes the Squares, Color Strips, Cement and Spreader—No extras to buy.

FARMVILLE FURNITURE CO.
Main Street Farmville, N. C.