SELLERS-COPELAND YOUNG PEOPLE IN FORMAL CEREMONY

On Monday evening, November the fifteenth, in formal ceremony at the Episcopal Church in Greenville, Miss Dorothy Frances Copeiland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Copeiland of Greenville, former residents of Farmville, became the bride of Lieutenant Thomas Soliman of Cherry Point and Dallas, Texas. Father Daugherty performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and cathedral candles burned softly. A program of spiritual music was rendered and Miss Josephine Gibson of Greenville sang, "Ave Maria," "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was attended by Miss Allen Taylor of Farmville as maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink satin with matching feathers, hat from which fell a shoulder length veil. Her bouquets were of pink roses, tied with blue ribbons.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of ivory satin. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book and an orchid.

LA Twi Orleson of Cherry Point attended the groom as best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue gown and a shoulder corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a brown ensemble with yellow roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained the members of the bridal party and friends of the families at a cake cutting. Numerous parties honored the couple during the week preceding.
