She also brought out the fact that people can go to war without an Ideology. "Nazi Ideology is anti-Latin, anti-Christian and anti-Liberal and teaches there is a higher social thing, such as the German race. It substitutes its own private culture for universal standards, dedicates itself to its own power, regardless of the balance of mankind." In closing, Mrs. Easley pointed out that "American Ideology has endured because the great law of life, still known to us as the Golden Rule, underlies our freedoms and gives to life the maximum of flexibility and growth and to human history as a whole a direction and meaning.

During the social period, the hostess served cranberry salad, fruit cake and hot tea.

The second part stressed the challenge to Christian America to meet and solve the problems which have arisen within our nation and closed with this thought: "Our hope and our faith is that the Christians of America will make of our Churches, sanctuaries, in which we, all of us—America, will sit at the feet of the Master of all; learn best to serve our fellow Americans, our nation, our world, our God."
