Clubs Meet In Settings of Seasonable Decorations

Meetings This Week Marked by Variety and Programs of Timely Interest

Social events of the week have taken the form of lovely Christmas parties with the favored combination of the traditional colors of red and green noted in the Yuletide decorations of plants, forest greens and candles, used effectively in their homes by the hostesses, whose refreshments plates were also seasonal as to color and content.

Junior Woman's Club
Mrs. Josh Munden was hostess at a delightful meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, held Tuesday night at her home with Mrs. M. E. Pollard presiding.

The program was developed by Miss Annie Perkins, guest speaker, who gave an interesting and timely discussion on the subject of "Propaganda."

The Club made plans for Christmas cheer, which will include the filling of a number of Christmas stockings for Marines at New River this season.

Mrs. Stuart Surg was extended a cordial welcome, as a new member, by the Club president.

During a pleasant social hour, Mrs. Munden served fruit jello, topped with cream, and fruit cake.

U. D. C.
The December meeting of the Rebecca Winbourne Chapter, U. D. C., was held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Willis with the president, Mrs. C. E. Moore, presiding.

A splendid selection, "The True Meaning of Christmas," was read by Mrs. Robert D. Rouse, followed by an enjoyable musical program, presented by Mrs. Haywood Smith and five of her piano pupils, Barbara Greene, Julia Satterthwaite, Pelay Allen, Nancy Lu Moore and Carolyn Brobeck, in the form of a playlet. Bringing the program to a close were solos and duets in a Southern air arrangement by the pupils.

The hostess served delicious fruit cake with whipped cream, coffee and nuts.

Contract Club
Members of the Contract Club held an enjoyable meeting, on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. H. Neal Howard. Table appointments and tallies carried a holiday note.

Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner won War Stamps as the club high score prize and Mrs. Pat Ruffin received a double deck of cards as guest prize. The floating prize for slams, a powder jar, was retained by Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner and the low score prize of Stamps went to Mrs. M. V. Jones.

The hostess served ice box lemon pie with coffee and nuts after the guests arrived and coca-colas were enjoyed during the games.

Special guests were Mrs. R. E. Pickett, Mrs. Pat Ruffin and Mrs. J. H. Darden.

Lamrad Club
Mrs. W. Alex Allen delightfully entertained members of the Lamrad Club this week and several additional friends, including Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Louis Allen and Mrs. Tommy S. Ryon, at her home on Church street.

Roses predominated in floral decorations and were used as centerpiece arrangements when refreshments of fruit cake and coffee were served, and later for the guest prize won by Mrs. Frank Allen and the low score award, which went to Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr. Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., compiled high score for the club and won the award.

New Deal Club
Members of the New Deal Club enjoyed an afternoon of bridge, Wednesday, with Mrs. S. A. Roebuck as hostess at her home on Wilson street.

The high score prize, towels, went to Mrs. G. Alex Rouse and Mrs. Pat Ruffin received a wall memo pad as the consolation award.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was centered with an artistic arrangement of fruit, holly and glowing candles. Pineapple upside down cake, coffee and salted nuts were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pat Ruffin, who was a special guest at this meeting.

Wednesday Afternoon Club
Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Jr., was a gracious hostess to her bridge club on Wednesday and to Mrs. R. T. Williams, who shared in the pleasure of the afternoon.

In the progressive games Mrs. W. Alex Allen, who scored high, was presented a potted plant, and Mrs. Harry Harper received the consolation, novel coasters.

Delicious tippy cake, coffee, nuts and mints were served.
