

FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE

G. Alex Boman, Editor and Owner... Mary Fricke Harris, Society Editor... Published by THE ROUSE PRINTERY...

Our friends judge us by our deeds... Woman was made of man's rib and it's natural that she should rib him...

"Hail, gentle Spring," said the poet and it hailed on his victory garden... We are making history now. We will make the geography later...

Wilkie has perhaps decided that he can't be right and president, too... There may be a housing shortage but there is always a place for rumors...

If people seek their level, like water, they soon find themselves in a hole... When a woman primp up she expects that men shall accept her at her face value...

Just when you think you are out of debt you find that you still have the devil to pay... The Middle West is the nation's food center and Washington, D. C., its fuel center...

You can't always judge men by their clothes. It is possible to camouflage a jackass... The devil is never on the level. Stay on the level and he'll not be able to reach you...

There is no record of Adam's getting into any more trouble after he had to go to work... A ceiling price on onions won't hold. The onions are stronger than the ceiling...

All the trouble in the world is caused by two classes of people—men and women... If justice were properly dispensed there might be many changes in the prison population...

If Roosevelt continues to run it will be difficult to keep him supplied with running mates... Simple Susie says when Mrs. Newrich broke into high society it was a mild form of burglary...

Men are naturally a little shy of woman barbers. They recall what Dallah did to Samson... The old-fashioned girl wanted a "Prince Charming." A Sinatra is what the modern one wants...

Simple Susie declares that the present price of hosiery keeps women above their knees in debt... Probably the marriage license issued these days are of inferior quality. They don't seem to hold...

Simple Susie says in these war days Cupid has run amuck and is sometimes misleading the stork... The fellow who made his check payable to the Department of "Eternal" Revenue seems to have something...

Johnnie says the day he played hockey from school he caught so many fish his mother forgot to punish him... The trouble about being a candidate it's hard to be elected if you are not known and sometimes impossible if you are...

OBSERVATION POST FOR WEDNESDAY, MAY 24TH... Mrs. J. M. Hotgood, 1 to 3 P. M. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkins, 3 to 5 P. M. Key can be secured at City Hall.

Willis is chairman was the hostess group for the week end and served fried chicken, deviled eggs, tomatoes, lettuce, bread, caramel and chocolate cake, cookies, ice tea and salted pecans. Acting hostesses were Mrs. Willis, Mrs. J. W. Parker and Mrs. D. S. Morrill assisted by Mrs. J. H. Darden and Misses Mary Frances Allen and Sue Taylor.

A letter from Sgt. Leonard A. Scott (better known as Scottie) who has been transferred from Seymour Johnson Field to the Army Air Base at Greensboro, expresses his appreciation for the many pleasant days spent in Farmville and to the friends who entertained him and numerous other soldiers. He is grateful for the fine way the many families of Farmville opened their homes to men so far from home and he hopes to again see all when the war is over.

The Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., will be hostess group this week end.

There is an urgent need of rooms this week end for fifteen service men who will attend the Matthew-El-Ramey marriage. Please call me if you have a room or can invite any of these men for meals. Tobitha M. DeVisconti.

MOTHER

A soldier across the ocean wide Has his dear mother's picture by his side, As the sun goes down, dark brings forth night— With trembling hands, he began to write, Mother, Mother, Oh Mother dear— These words tonight I hope you'll hear, As the Church Bells ring out Mothers Day. Remember I'm near, tho' I'm far away No one knows how we soldiers fair— No one here to love us, no one to care, Keep smiling dear mother, also be brave— Ask the Lord for your son to be saved. Each night as I kneel by my cot in prayer— I pray God to take care of you whose over there, Good night dear mother, the taps ring across the way— May God grant me the pleasure To be with you next Mother's Day. —Polly E. Bundy.

CPL. A. C. DARDEN RECEIVES PRESIDENTIAL CITATION RIBBON

Cpl. Allen C. Darden, 34172447, of Co. C, 62nd Inf. Tng. Bn., Camp Wolters, Texas, has recently been presented the Presidential Citation Ribbon with a silver star. In March he received the Expert Infantryman's Combat Medal. Cpl. Darden returned to the States a year ago in April after 16 months service overseas. He saw combat duty on Guadalcanal and was once wounded by a Jap who ran his bayonet through his hand. He was on the first boat leaving the U. S. conveying infantrymen for duty in the Pacific.

A Word of Appreciation The most gratifying evidence of our patron's understanding of service under wartime conditions is their gracious acceptance of unavoidable delays and slight inconveniences. You can be confident that we will not abuse your kind indulgence, because expert, pleasing service is, as always a point of pride with us. Increased patronage and decreased manpower will make it difficult at times to meet every demand promptly, but we will always do everything in our power to please you.
