Gregg Cherry To Be Next Governor; Hoey. Wins Race For U. S. Senate Monday, June 12

L. Y. Balentine Had Local Bond Drive Walk-away for Lieut. Governor; Eure, Pou and Johnson Re-nominated

By a better than two to one ma jority North Carolina Democrats have chosen 66-yearf-old, frock-coated Clyde Hosy, for their next junior senator, and by a slimmer but still impressive vote nominated Gregg 66-year-old, frock - coated yer, for governor. Fairly complete returns turned the race between Hoey, known as the silver-tongued orator from Shelby, and 74-year-old Rep. Cameron Morrison, into virtually a Hoey landslide, with Morrison failing to carry even his home county of Mecklenburg. The race between Cherry and Dr. War Bond Drive which means that Ralph McDonald, the Winston-Salem greater effort must be put forth. educator and militant sales tax foe, was closer, but the outcome was so Chairman Munden is as follows: educator and militant sales tax foe, decisive that McDonald conceded de-feat less than eight hours after the Mrs. M. L. Eason, W. H. Duke, Frank licity outlay for B ballot-counting began Saturday night. Cherry lod McDonald 173,841 to 127.749, after returns from 1.713 precincts had been tabulatd.

Most heat in the campaign was generated by the gubernatorial race. It was the second time that Dr. Me-Donald had bid for the governor's office and lost. In 1936 he ran against Hoey, and lost in a second primary. The 1944 campaign began listlessly but became heated toward the end. Pa., and Fort Fisher, N. C.; Cpl. Jack McDonald, however, accepted his defeat graciously. Accompanied by Marine Air Base, Greenville, N. C.; B. Scott, Minneapolis, Minn., and defeat graciously. Accompanies by his campaign manager, E. D. Broad-hurst, he went to Cherry's head-quarters in the Sir Walter hotel in N. C. Raleigh, and said:
