Office holders can't get rich on their salaries but some get rich on their jobs.

Is it better to lead a narrow and intense life; or to branch out in more unconventional ways? How much experimenting is worth while? Every man must decide this for himself.

BIRD CLUB

The Bird Club met on Thursday morning of last week when Howard Pope Murphrey read an article on the Golden Winged Warbler.

"Two large yellow wing bars account for the name given to this bird. Its crown is also yellow but its throat and ear patches are black. The rest of its plumage is gray and white. The female bird has less black than her mate. Leaves, rootlets, strips of bark and grasses are used in building its nest which is placed on the ground in some moist place and among a clump of weeds. Its eggs, white with brown specks, are laid in late May or early June."

Ice cream cones were served members during the social period.

At this week's Bird Club meeting Charles Melton read an article on the varied Thrush or Alaska Robin. This bird dwells in the spruce forests of the Pacific coast. It is a beautiful bird with underparts of rusty brown. The black bands crossing on the throat resemble a necklace. Its song has been described as "most unique and mysterious and may be heard for a great distance, being very loud and penetrating."

"The varied thrush is fond of mast and holly berries. It also consumes quantities of insects. The nest is placed in low bushes and small trees or on near the banks of a stream. It is bulky and made of grass, a few rootlets and moss. Four pale, greenish-blue eggs speckled with brown are laid."

A contest on birds was used and pictures studied. Candy was served.

BAPTIST CHURCH

At the eight o'clock service on Sunday evening, the pupils of the Baptist Vacation Bible School will present their Commencement Program, to be followed by a Baptismal Service. Parents and friends of the children are cordially invited to attend.

ALTAR GUILD

The Episcopal Altar Guild met in the home of Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver on Monday evening when seven members were present.

Mrs. John D. Dixon, Directress, lead the devotional. In the business session, plans were made for the group's sale of cookies, candies and pies, to be held Saturday, June 10.

METHODIST CHURCH

Services Sunday morning and evening as usual. At the evening service, Rev. Lester Jackson, Jr., student at Duke University Divinity School, will preach.

Daily Vacation Bible School begins June 19th. During this period, Youth Week will also be observed, with Rev. Paul Beale, as leader. The Methodist and Presbyterians are uniting in these endeavors, with all classes to be held in the Methodist Church.

JUNIORS

The Presbyterian Juniors, formerly called Pioneers, met with Miss Nancy Lu Moore Thursday of last week. The meeting opened and closed with prayer. Carol Butts conducted a devotional using the story of Daniel in the Lion's Den, and Nancy Lu developed the program, "300 Men are Chosen."

In the social period coca-colas, mock fruit cake and pickles were served.

COUNCIL GROUPS

Groups of the Christian Church Woman's Council held final meetings, before regrouping, on Monday evening, giving splendid yearly reports.

Group 1 enjoyed a picnic supper in the Church basement, opening the program with the song, "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." Mrs. Lester Turnage conducted a devotional after which each of the eighteen members present contributed extemporaneously to the program, with poems, remarks and words of appreciation for the past year's work and fellowship. Sweetpeas, ragged robins and larkspur were used in decorating.

Group 2 met in the home of Mrs. R. D. Rouse, with Mrs. Florence Thorne, leading the devotional and members discussing "Hidden Answers" from the World Call.

In the social period, vanilla's frappe was served.

Group 3 met in the home of Mrs. C. L. Ivey. Mrs. Harrietta Williamson gave a devotional after which plans were made for the group's hostess duties at the Service Men's Center, this week end.

Group 4 was invited to meet in the home of Mrs. Howard Moye. Mrs. T. R. Mizell was in charge of the devotional and Hidden Answers were discussed by the eleven members present.

In the social period, chocolate cake was served with a refreshing fruit drink. Perennial sweetpeas were used in decorating.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

In cooperation with Presbyterian women throughout the Southern Church, the local group met on Monday afternoon, in celebration of the Auxiliary's birthday. Mrs. R. G. Smith, President, presided and Mrs. Cherry Easley gave the devotional, "Light For Tomorrow" which had as its basis, Christ, the Light of the World through prophecy, testimony and assurance.

The program had a two-fold objective; "Presbyterian Schools for Mexican Girls," presented by Mrs. John McWhorter and "The Defense Service Council," spoken of by Mrs. Will Moore, Jr. A special offering for these two endeavors was received at this time.

The meeting was held in the garden of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood and in the social period refreshments of punch and wafers were served to the twenty-eight members and guests attending.
