We seem always to be looking backward to good times or forward to good times.

People may forgive one's shortcomings but they much prefer his long absences.

Probably it is called free verse because the author has to give it away to get it published.

After a visit to the beautician, female hair usually looks as hard and permanent as cast iron.

Land booms come about every 25 years. It takes that long to produce a new crop of darned fools.

But if one soldier "ears" the Purple Heart by getting a scratch, the same decoration seems cheap to one who loses an arm.

When our men return from the front, we ought to have some War Bonds in storage to prove that we hustled and saved when they were fighting.

The indispensable men today in business are the lawyers and accountants. And it looks as though they may become even more indispensable.

METHODIST CHURCH

The Carillon Bells at the Methodist Church will be dedicated at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, July 9th.

Dr. Costen J. Harrell, pastor of the West End Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., was elected Bishop at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist Church which met in Atlanta, Ga., June 23-26th. Dr. Harrell was assigned to the Birmingham, Ala., Area and Cuba. A native of Gates County, he was reared in the village of Sunbury, N. C., and in the village Church, "Philadelphia." He has one brother, T. C. Harrell, who is business manager of Greensboro College and one sister, Mrs. M. Y. Self, of Farmville.

ALTAR GUILD

The Episcopal Altar Guild met on Monday evening in the home of Mrs.
Tomnie Ryan, opening with a devotional. In the business period, Mrs.
John D. Dixon, directress, announced that the super-frontal and pulpit hangings of green brocade have been ordered; and plans for a benefit brunswick stew supper in the early fall were discussed. Mrs. C. S.
Hotchkiss has been elected Guild Secretary.

JUNIORS

The Presbyterian Juniors met with Miss Patricia Corbett on Thursday afternoon of last week, when Miss Nancy La Moore gave the devotional, telling two stories: "Finding God in People" and "Hallowed Be Thy Name."

Miss Jean Flora and Miss Corbett developed the program which concerned "The Lord's Prayer." Refreshing popo-coles were served with cookies, candies and crackers in the social period.

BIRD CLUB

Paschal Barrett read about Klondike, the Fat Crow, at Thursday's meeting. He is a sly, smart, tricky and friendly pet. He takes the dog, takes everything small enough for him to carry and enjoys his meals much better if he can have fun while eating. He soon learns to know his owner but won't go near strangers.
He was given the odd name of Klondike because he came from a section of the country by that name near Kearney, Michigan. This is wonderful bird country and the Fat Crow Wildlife Sanctuary is situated there. Due to the marsh, swamp, thick brush and a large overgrown forest it is suitable for many kinds of wildlife. Mr. Lussala who established this sanctuary has been studying birds since he was a small boy.
