Washington, Nov. 29.—American Superfortnesses have raided Tokyo for the third time in six days, it was announced today, and Japanese broadcasts said that two separate first attack on the city last Friday fleets of the giant B-29 bombers had hit the capital, one at 11.55 p. m., Wednesday and a second at 4:15 a. m., Thursday, Japanese time.

Admitting that fires had been started, Tokyo said that raiders had showered incendiary bombs on the Command base at Saipan in the bla city and intersperied them with Marianas.

Tokyo reported that the first fleet of Superforts had attacked from 11:55 p. m., Wedresday to 2 a. m., Thursday, Japanese time (1 p. m., Wednesday EWT.)
