Lives that overflow to others gather no scum.

Political "deals" are not an adequate post-war plan.

Morale—the spirit that keeps you eager to do what's right.

Even a mistake can be useful—if we are honest about it.

Hint to cranks: Let the Lord make you over into a self-starter.

Overheard: He has no trouble making up his mind. It is so small.

Claiming your attention more than tomorrow is the day after yesterday.

It would help some people if they could change their dollars into sense.

Industrial relations will be solved when domestic relations are solved.

Don't tell all you know. Then you will know something that others don't.

One has to learn to get along with people. He can't get along without them.

Let's make every family dinner table a multiplication table for sound homes.

A man is great only when he feels as deeply and acts as courageously as he thinks.

Life can be a constant fuss, a constant farce or a constant force. We have the say.

Character is tested by your attitude towards the fellow who doesn't agree with you.

In unity there can be more than strength. If we achieve it there is national destiny.

These times demand that we think like great men while we live like common people.

Are we out to win the war just to keep our country as it is, or to make it what it can be?

Recipe for a Sound Home: Turn over a new leaf together and keep your lives an open book.

False whiskers hide the man. Fine shrubbery often provides false whiskers for the unsound home.

A large hand saw in a sawmill travels about 10,000 feet a minute or nearly 114 miles an hour.

Because of irregular topography, logging railroads sometimes cost as much as $25,000 per mile.

There can be no real economic, political or social recovery while there is spiritual and moral destitution.

Run your life on honest lines and you won't have to worry about anyone reading between the lines.

Reseeding, fertilizing, and mowing pastures to control weeds will give big returns in milk per acre.

People seem more concerned with putting over their personality than in building up their character.

When it comes to planting peanuts, pegs, shrivels, or otherwise poor planting seed are costly at any price.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

EPISCOPAL

The Episcopal Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. J. H. Darden on Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. S. Ryan presided and conducted the devotional with scripture reading and prayer. During the business period, Mrs. James Lang was elected president of the Auxiliary for the coming year. Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss presented the program and gave an interesting talk on "Peoples of the Mosque." Mrs. Jesse Moye will give the program at the meeting next Monday, at the home of Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, on the subject, "The Dumbarton-Oaks Peace Proposals."

Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss was hostess to the Altar Guild, on Tuesday evening, with Mrs. John D. Dixon, Directress, presiding.

During the business session, the motion was made and carried to purchase a new candle lighter for the Church.

Mrs. T. S. Ryan led the program, continuing the Lenten study of the creed. The meeting was closed with prayer.

PRESBYTERIAN

The Presbyterian Auxiliary held its last meeting of the Church year, on Monday, at the home of Mrs. John M. Mewborn. Mrs. J. M. Hobgood presided and presented the devotional, the topic being "Twelve Months Reviewed—Onward."

Oral reports were given by each of the Cause/secreteraries and officers. The newly elected officers were installed for the coming year by Rev. E. S. Coates. Mrs. Hobgood reminded the group of the Intensive Bible Study and covered dish luncheon to be held at her home, on Thursday.

METHODIST

The March meeting of the Wesleyan Guild was held in the home of Mrs. Joshua Munden, Monday evening.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Curtis Flanagan, who led in prayer and gave a meditation on "Hast Thou Not Known?"

Mrs. Lynn Eason presented the program and gave an inspiring talk on "What Our Missions Are Doing For Women in the Far East." After a brief business session, the hostess served delicious ice cream and cookies.

Circle Four met with Mrs. M. Y. Self, on Monday afternoon, when twenty members were present. Mrs. Pearl Johnston led the devotional, the subject being "Christian Witnessing," taken from the 107th Psalm.

After a short business period, chicken salad sandwiches, cake topped with fruit cocktail and coffee were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Bob Joyner and Mrs. C. C. Simpson.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

I wish to thank friends for the many nice cards and flowers sent to me during my recent illness at the Park View Hospital.

"More and better living for people" is one of our industrial slogans. What about more and better people for living?

The REA has announced a loan allotment of $38,550 to the Ocracoke Electric Membership Corporation for emergency rehabilitation and refinancing.

Wheat grown 22 years ago in Colorado has recently been made into good bread. Yes, it had vitamins too but no one was unduly excited about them then.

Poultrymen who wish to grow crossbred broilers should be sure to get crossbred progeny of strains of purebreds noted for rapid growth and early feathering.

L. I. Case, Extension animal husbandman at State College, reports that 10 bulls and 48 females have been selected for the State Hereford Association Sale at Statesville on April 13.

Tests in Raleigh food stores show that growers can market five times as many sweet potatoes as formerly to home consumers, if they will grow disease-free Louisiana Porto Ricos of the proper size.

Symbolic Red Cross Emblem To Appear In Windows Again

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Once again, next month, the scarlet emblem of the American Red Cross will appear in the windows of American homes, symbolizing the financial support of the nation in supporting the manifold services of that organization to American fighting men overseas.

In every nation of the world, this red cross has long been the symbol of universal humanitarianism, both in peace and in time of war. Today it is worn by medical corpsmen of all armies and navies serving the wounded. It protects hospital tents, ships, planes and trains. Painted on each of the international Red Cross ships bearing food parcels to prisoners of war and exchanged prisoners homeward, it is a guarantee of safety from acts of war. To the giver doing his part to fulfill the $200,000,000 goal of the American Red Cross in 1945, it represents his personal part in supplying the material things which add to the morale of the American serviceman whether hospitalized or able-bodied.

"The window sticker means more than dollars contributed to the Red Cross," Chairman Basil O'Connor declared. "It means service clubs, canteens, recreation rooms and clubhouses for the men in war theaters."

To the American Red Cross, each window sticker is a family's request to the Red Cross to continue its responsibilities on behalf of the son in Italy, the neighbor's boy half a turn around the globe in the Philippines, and the brother fighting on the Western Front. It is the expression of faith of the American people that Red Cross will maintain the supplies of surgical dress-

Once again this year, in March, the world-known scarlet symbol of mercy will appear in windows throughout the nation, indicating that Mr. and Mrs. America are solidly behind the 1945 American Red Cross War-Fund campaign.

ings, blood plasma and whole blood, kit bags and comfort articles to the battlefronts. It is a vote of gratitude for the millions of food parcels reaching American men in enemy prison camps.

Opening March 1, the third American Red Cross War Fund campaign for $200,000,000—the same as last year—will continue throughout the entire month. More than 3,000,000 volunteers will distribute the familiar window emblems, conducting a house-to-house canvass to fulfill the 1945 quota. Along with the window emblem, each contributor will receive a lapel tab fashioned after the Red Cross flag—the flag known to all as a sign of aid and comfort.
