To the People of this Community

"My Thinking — My Money —
My Time will stay in this war to the finish."

Ted R. Gamble, National Director of the War Finance Division and leader of the millions of volunteers who are selling you the extra War Bonds needed to beat the Japs and complete the war job in Europe, put the wartime credo of Americans in these 14 words.

It's good advice to follow not only during war loans but every day. You can't help too much to win a war.

Today's community and national war loan totals should reflect your personal determination to see the war through. Regardless of what the War Bond score is today, it is not high enough unless you have gone to bat and bought bonds to the actual limit of your buying power.

Farmers Urged To Sell 1943 Cotton and Liquidate Loans

All 1943-crop cotton still under loan August 1, 1945 will be pooled for producer's accounts by the Commodity Credit Corporation, according to J. V. Taylor, chairman, Pitt County AAA Committee.

"Producers may, repay outstanding 1934-crop loans and redeem their cotton under the terms of the 1945 cotton crop loan prior to this date," Mr. Taylor declared.

In explaining the procedure to be followed in the liquidation of these loans, the AAA leader said that "all of the 1943-crop loan cotton which is not redeemed by August 1, 1945, will be placed in a pool, as provided in the loan agreement, and sold in an orderly manner by the Commodity Credit Corporation. On final liquidation of all cotton in the pool, the net proceeds, if any, after deductions of all advances and accrued costs, will be distributed among producers whose cotton has been placed in the pool in proportion to their investments."

"Payments will be made to the producers at the time the cotton is placed in the pool, and after August 1, 1945, individual producers will not be entitled to order the sale of the particular cotton which they placed in the pool," he added.

Mr. Taylor pointed out that the average 1943 loan rate for 15-16-inch cotton, net weight, was 20.06 cents per pound. Cotton at the present time is selling for considerably more and producers are urged to redeem the cotton they have under loan in order to take advantage of the higher price and at the same time make storage space available for the 1945 crop.

HISTORY'S INCREDIBLE
30 DAYS

In the years to come, the boys and girls of today will have to buckle down to a hard grind when studying world history of this day, the events of which are thrusting themselves forward with amazing rapidity.

These youngsters of ours, in reviewing the happenings of the 30 days beginning April 12, 1945, will be overwhelmed by the quick succession of events that altered the history of mankind throughout the world. Each of these events, by itself, is of transcendent importance. Taken together, they constitute a cross-section of what can happen when democracy and tyranny come to grips in a life and death struggle for supremacy.

- Here is an itemized list, so far as memory serves us, of the 30-day row of milestones toward victory:
1. Death of President Roosevelt.
 2. Truman takes office.
 3. Vienna falls.
 4. Roosevelt funeral.
 5. Truman address to congress.
 6. Ernie Pyle's death — "G. I."
 7. San Francisco United Nations conference opens.
 8. Allied blitz advances.
 9. Ruhr surrenders.
 10. Prison camp, hunger, cruelty, horror, death stories.
 11. Russian east front drive launched.
 12. Italian collapse and surrender.
 13. Austrian landing on Borneo.
 14. Mussolini assassination.
 15. American and Russian armies meet at Torgau.
 16. Swedish reports of Himmler peace feelers.
 17. Hitler death story.
 18. Berlin falls.
 19. Admiral Doenitz peace offer.
 20. V-E Day (Fiascos).
 21. Truman $7 billion retrenchment.

ment.

22. Surrenders—(official).
23. Arrest of 16 Polish leaders by Russia.
24. Truman - Churchill - Stalin messages.
25. Von Rundstedt, Goering, etc., captures and interviews.
26. Meanwhile, the war with Japan is being vigorously pursued.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Daily Vacation Bible School will begin at the Baptist Church Saturday, June 9, at 3:00 o'clock p. m., with registration of the boys and girls. This meeting will last only one hour. On Monday, June 11, the classes will begin at 9:00 a. m., and end at 11:30. Courses are planned for ages 4 through 13. The boys and girls of the Mission Sunday School on the Wilson Highway will be brought in to attend. Miss Annie Perkins is principal of the school.

The Sunday night's service will be suspended in favor of the revival service at the Presbyterian Church. On Sunday afternoon the regular religious services will be held at the Caswell Training School. The Rev. Mr. Chamblee, assisted by Raymond Shearin, conduct this service once each month.

The Intermediate Union of the Church will render a "Model Program" at the Pitt-Beaufort B.T.U. rally Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This meeting will be held at Everettes. Miss Agnes Melton is president of the Union and A. J. Melton, leader.

Revival services will begin Sunday morning, June 17, instead of Sunday night. Further announcements will be made next week.

How many bureaucrats will it take to investigate and replace the social security cards, ration books, and war bonds that will be lost or misplaced the next year?

OPEN LETTER

To the Citizens of Farmville and Community: Having lived among you these nine months and having shared with you your joys and sorrows—mother and I have come to know you and to count you among our dearest friends.

In this year's study of the Bible in our local school, the keen interest manifested by your fine sons and daughters has been a delight to our hearts, while the spiritual fellowship in our Bible classes will ever remain a most precious memory.

It has been good to be here and we have appreciated sincerely the opportunity you have given us of spending these months in service to you, to the school, and to our Lord and His church. Our Lord's constant using of us in His service here has been proof of His blessing and approval. We could ask no greater evidence of God's sanction of the Bible study classes than that He has given throughout the school year in the spiritual strengthening of lives and the rich harvest of souls.

As we go from Farmville we want to express by this means—our high hopes for a splendid future for this community, our interest in your behalf and our prayers for God's glory among you.

May a glance at the following statements given by the pupils in our school Bible classes help you as the fathers and mothers, the citizens and upbuilders of this community to realize how very fruitful has been this year's study of God's Holy Word:

1. "The Bible Course in the Farmville School this year has helped me—1. To understand God better. 2. It has strengthened me spiritually. 3. I now read and understand my Bible more. 4. It has helped me to surrender my life to the Lord for service. 5. I not only have learned to know the Lord myself, but I now have a desire to tell others about Jesus. 6. It has drawn me closer to God, and made God seem nearer to me in my everyday life. 7. It has helped me to desire the better things of life. 8. It has helped me to overcome some bad habits that were weakening my life and usefulness. 9. It has shown me things that I never realized before that God wants me to do. 10. We have no church nor Sunday School in our community, so this Bible class in the school has been my only contact with holy things. 11. It has helped me to pay more attention to my Bible in my daily life. It has taught me more of the wonderful works of God. 12. Yes, it has helped me much more than ever I realize, for I pray now, and I truly love God. Through this class I have come into contact with Him every day, and this contact is making a real change in my life. 13. The study of the Bible has led me to understand better what God means when He said 'Remember the Sabbath Day and to Keep it Holy.' 14. The Bible study helped me to get a better picture of my own life, to make me look at the way I was living, and to make me ashamed of the sinful habits I was practicing. God has helped me to overcome these this year.
- Signed (Pearl V. Eichelberger).

BIRD CLUB

Tommy Little read an article written by Phillips Russell, Chapel Hill on Night Birds in Chat, Bulletin of North Carolina Bird Club. It states that there are several species of birds that sound some kind of note at night. Purely nocturnal birds like the Whip-poor-will, the Chuck-wills-widow, and Owls are of course well known. But strange to say, the common bird that carries the word "night" in his title does not sound his call after dark.

The one bird that gives forth his full repertoire as gloriously by night as by day is the Mockingbird. Moonlight nights of April and May and sometimes the harvest moon nights of early September, are very exciting to the mocker and he will sing for an hour with no accompaniment other than a sailing moon overhead. Another bird to whom the full moon is stimulating is the Chat. On silver nights he wakes up at intervals and give his list of toots, whistles, rasps and chirps. And again, the Field Sparrow is a musician often moved to give his solitary tinkles and chirps when the moon is high and grand. His is at all times a delightful song but when in the stillness of a summer night he suddenly sounds his lay, it is exquisite. He rarely keeps up his nocturnal ditty more than a minute or two.

The Great Blue Heron seems to be subject to nightmares or sudden alarms on quiet, densely dark nights, for at such times he is given to outbursts of croakings that may result from terror or just resentment. The little Green Heron also rouses itself at night with grunts and flappings. The Bob-white is a decorous daytime bird but occasionally calls plaintively from the fields while the night is still dark. The Killdeer, too, often adds its 'one-some cry to the sounds of the night.

The members enjoyed a letter from Pfc. Eddie Drake, Jr., in which he said Camp Lejeune is a regular Bird Refuge. At Cherry Point, from which he was transferred, there was very little grass and fewer things to attract the birds and they do not like to be around planes evidently for there were very few there. They add to the beauty of Camp Lejeune.
