Gas Ration Off Other Items Too

Washington, Aug. 15.—The government hurried aside many war-time controls today, but solemnly pointed out that reaching a fully prosperous peace at home will be neither quick nor easy.

Reconversion Director John W. Snyder frankly painted a picture of wide unemployment which he hopes will be only temporary: Five million or more within three months, perhaps eight million by next spring.

He told President Truman in an 8,000-word report on what the country faces that the "outlook for peacetime victory is bright but it will not be won easily nor immediately."

The government shot at the peacetime goal from all angles, with orders ripping away wartime controls following one another in rapid-fire order from the various government agencies.

The government—through one official or another—announced:

1. An immediate end to the rationing of gasoline, fuel oil, stoves, canned fruits, vegetables, catsup, chili sauce, grape juice.

2. The armed services will discharge seven million men and women within a year or 18 months; perhaps 5 1/2 million from the Army, 1 1/2 million from the Navy. Army and Navy both disclosed their new discharge systems.

3. Price controls were taken off scores of consumer items like jewelry, sports equipment, toys selling at retail for 25 cents or less, cigarette lighters, pipes, some photographic material.

4. Shoe rationing may disappear before year's end because of a drastic drop in shoe requirements by the armed forces.

5. Large cuts in the Army's woolen and cotton needs, thus freeing thousands of yards for the civilian market before Christmas.

6. About 2 1/2 billion dollars in war contracts and purchases were cancelled; six billion by the Army, 2 1/2 billion by the Navy.

7. Lend-lease based on war needs will be ended as "rapidly as possible" with help given only to those nations aiding in the redeployment of our troops.

Censorship Office Abolished.

8. Mr. Truman abolished the Office of Censorship, the first of the strictly wartime agencies to disappear since the war's end.

And here was the other side of the picture:

Price controls will continue on scarce items. Rent controls will continue. So will the ban on wages and, for a while, on railroad travel.

Coal for use in this country probably will remain short throughout next winter.

Because of the "very large" demand for food at home and abroad Snyder says American farmers will be required to keep up "all-out" production.

He added: Needs very likely will exceed supplies of meats, fats, oils, sugar and some other important foods.

OPA Boss Chester Bowles said "Right now it's impossible" to estimate when other countries' mate when other commodities—besides those mentioned above—can be removed from rationing.

WILLIE RASBERRY

Willie Rasberry, 46, of Farmville, died in the Kinston Hospital Monday morning following an extended illness. Funeral services were conducted from the home of a brother, P. S. Rasberry, of near Bell Arthur, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. C. B. Mashburn, pastor of the Farmville Christian Church, officiating. Interment was in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. I. I. Jones of Kinston, and Mrs. Guy Case and Mrs. Earl Davis, both of Norfolk, Va.; and three brothers, P. S. Rasberry, E. C. Rasberry of Norfolk, Va., and J. J. Rasberry of Farmville.

PEACE! PEACE!

Peace in a new world! It is a great challenge. Our eyes light up and our hearts beat high at the very thought. We have met the challenge of war in a way that has startled the world and brought consternation to the enemy. God grant that we may have the will, the strength and the endurance to meet the challenge of the Peace that is now dawning upon us.

WE PLEDGE OUR FAITH

Out of the darkness of sacrifice and sorrow, out of the storm of war, there streams suddenly the shining light of Victory!

This year, of all years within living memory, has brought to a groping world the assurance of the Triumph of Good over Evil.

All over the civilized world, in tiny hamlet churches, in great cities, in the bombed, ruined towns, in jungle chapels, free people have assembled in the past three days to celebrate the greatest news of the past war weary years through which they have stumbled. All over the world men and women are joining hands and hearts and voices to thank God for Victory and for the peace that is to come.

An Allied Victory, a just peace... all of this means a better world for all men... free from war, tyranny and want, and broader, brighter horizons. What will be our part in this new world? We can't look that far ahead but to each individual it offers a great challenge.

Since announcement of the Nipponese capitulation there has been experienced in the breast of man a glorious rebirth of hope in his future, an establishment of a just peace that will mean a new and more real equality among men and provide a wonderful opportunity for human understanding and human dignity. We believe in these goals... we pledge our full cooperation in their realization.

MR. FARMER—

Time again for the opening of the Farmville Tobacco Market! And we want to do our share to endow this event with old-fashioned cordiality.

We come to you this year in a condensed form. We do not apologize for not presenting you with a big tobacco edition as in former years, circumstances in regard to labor shortage prevented this. We find ourselves overwhelmed with commercial jobs that must be gotten out for the tobaccoists and merchants that the wheels of business here may continue to turn even more swiftly and smoothly in the busy weeks to come. We want you to know that it was not the fault of Farmville firms that they are not represented in this issue as in previous years. They have a hearty welcome awaiting you and would have appreciated this opportunity of bringing you a personal message if it had been possible.

Next year we hope and expect to have included in our annual tobacco edition every single firm in Farmville to assure you that all of our hats are off to you, Mr. Farmer, and we do honor to you as a beam of strength in the structure of our country's past, present and future.

CHURCH GROUPS

Altar Guild
The Episcopal Altar Guild held its August meeting, Tuesday evening, with the directress, Mrs. John D. Dixon, as hostess.

Plans were laid in connection with the coming of a photographer for children in September and Mrs. Tommy S. Ryan and Mrs. R. S. Scott were appointed as a committee in charge of appointments.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver discussed a chapter in "Good News" under the title of "The Resurrection of the Body."

Refreshments were served after adjournment by the hostess.

Circle 4

Circle 4 of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service, held a delightful meeting, Monday afternoon, with Mrs. A. J. Greene as hostess, and Mrs. Nona Barrett presiding. Golden flowers were used as a setting for the meeting.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson gave a meditation on "God's Requirement" based on Matthew 23, verse 8, and presented the missionary hymn "What Is America?"

Mrs. H. L. Mann, of Jonesboro, a former member of this group, was a special guest.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of a fruit drink, a variety of breads, butter, pickles, cookies and nuts were served.

BIRD CLUB

Max Melton read an article on the Orange-Crowned Warbler at the Bird Club meeting, Wednesday. This bird breeds only in the territory north of the United States and winters in Mexico. It is however common in the Mississippi Valley and is also found in Georgia and Florida in the winter. It is dusky olive-green in color and nests on the ground, but spends much of its time in the upper branches of trees. Grasses, rootlets and twigs are used in the construction of the nest which is usually hid under some overhanging rock or under a tuft of grass and weeds. Four to six white or creamy eggs, speckled with chestnut, are laid. The Orange-Crown is five inches long and an expert flycatcher.

The members had an auto trip to the country and were served apples and pears. Then a story "Peter Painter and the Baby Polar Bear" was read. George Farr was a welcome guest.

THOUGHT SHE SAID "SNORT"

Dinner was a little late, so the hostess played the piano. She finished, but there was still an interval of waiting. In the grim silence she turned to one of her male guests and asked, "Would you like a Sonata before dinner?"

He gave a start of surprise and pleasure. "Why yes, thank you, I had a couple on my way here, but I think I could stand another."

With The Kiwanians

The Kiwanis Club was treated to a fine program, conducted by Hubert Joyner at the weekly meeting, Monday evening. He had as his guests Bill Willard and E. H. Taft, Jr., of Greenville. Mr. Willard introduced E. H. Taft, Jr., who gave a fine presentation on "Visions in the dark," in which he brought out the problems with which we are confronted in regard to the national debt and the matter of national wealth, which we will have to depend on to overcome our debt. The ovation given Mr. Taft at the conclusion of his talk indicated the excellence of his presentation, and the interest professed by all present.

The program next week will be under the direction of Jack Lewis.

American soldiers returning to this country want three things—marriage, food and rest. Getting the first is no guarantee that the other two will follow.
