

Social and Personals

Miss Adelaide Dall spent last week end at Carolina Beach.

Little Miss Nan Williams is visiting relatives in Elizabeth City.

Misses Ruth and Margaret Williams spent last Friday in Wilson.

Miss Annie Lee Jones, of Raleigh, is visiting Mrs. D. R. Morgan.

Mrs. C. C. Simpson and son are visiting relatives in Hertford.

Joe Trotman, Jr., of Greenville, spent last week with his father here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Register, of Newport News, Va., spent Sunday here.

Mrs. John B. Lewis and Mrs. B. M. Lewis were Rocky Mount visitors, Tuesday.

Miss Myrtle Nichols is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chester Outland, at Ocean View, Va.

Mrs. W. A. McAdams and granddaughter, Annette, spent Thursday in Greenville.

Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Y. Self have returned after a visit to relatives in Greensboro.

Mrs. James Edwards returned Saturday after a visit to her husband at Norfolk, Va.

Miss Etta Lewis spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sawyer in Elizabeth City.

Mrs. Bill Williams, of Greenville, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Williams.

R. T. Norville and Gordon Lee spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eagles in Crisp.

Mrs. C. R. Dodson, of Cherry Point, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Greene.

Mrs. T. E. Barrow and son, Taylor Everette, of Greensboro, are visiting the Barrow family.

Mrs. Archie L. Speight has returned from a Wilson hospital and is recuperating at her home.

Mrs. R. T. Williams and Mrs. Will Jones, Jr. and children, were Greenville visitors, Tuesday.

John D. Dixon and Elbert C. Holmes spent Wednesday and Thursday fishing at Morehead City.

Mary Frances Joyner returned Sunday after spending a week at Camp Leach, near Washington.

Edward Harris, of Newport News, Va., will spend the week end with his sister, Mrs. John D. Dixon.

Miss Louise Farrior, of Warsaw, spent several days here last week as guest of Miss Nellie Butler.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Mashburn and grandson, George Farr, spent Thursday in Dover with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, of Kinston, spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gaynor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, of Greenville, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Norville.

Mrs. S. Herbert Bundy and grandson, Craig Harris are visiting friends and relatives in Richmond, Va.

Mrs. L. E. Satterfield and Mrs. Harvey Clayton, of Wilson, were guests Tuesday of Mrs. W. Leslie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hotchkiss and son, Charles, returned Tuesday from a visit to Virginia Beach, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards and children, of Jacksonville, Fla., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wheelless.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Jones and children returned Sunday from a stay of several weeks at Ocean Drive, S. C.

Mrs. J. C. Manning and son, Dick, of Williamston, arrived Sunday for a visit to Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mann, of Jonesboro, former citizens of Farmville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Melton.

Mrs. Lula Peebles, of Macesfield, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nash Warren and Mrs. J. E. Warren.

Mr and Mrs R. D. Rouse and son, Harold, who have been on the Nashville, Ga., tobacco market returned Sunday.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Lula Forbes, who has been ill for several days, continues to improve.

Mrs. Larry Averette and Mrs. Dennis Frowler, of Greenville, were guests of Miss Martha Lewis, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh W. Munden and small daughter are spending this week in Elizabeth City and Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Charles Ray Townsend, of Newport News, Va., spent a few days this week with his mother, Mrs. Vernessa Townsend.

Misses Sallie Parker, Delphia Wainwright and Louise Roberson were week end guests of Messrs. Doris and Lydia Tugwell.

Mrs. Annie Lee and Mrs. Myrtle Manks have returned to Greenville following a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lee here.

Miss Connie Rollins left Tuesday for Scotland Neck where she will join a cousin and go to Washington, D. C., for a visit to relatives.

Miss Doris Tugwell, Miss Poggio Griffin and Mrs. Ace Griffin were dinner guests of Mrs. Hermon Munnell in Kinston, Monday.

Mrs. Lelia Calloway, of Washington, left Thursday after a visit to her sister, Mrs. C. C. Joyner. She is now visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. Taylor, of near Snow Hill.

Sgt. James Thomas King of the Army Air Force, who returned recently from the European Theatre, and is stationed at Fort Meade, Md., was the guest of Mrs. J. E. Barrow.

CALENDAR

Monday, August 20
 4:00 P. M.—Presbyterian Auxiliary meets in the Church.
 5:30 P. M.—Ammons-Lewis Wedding.
 7:00 P. M.—Kiwanis Club.
Tuesday, 21
 Opening Farmville Tobacco Market.
 7:00 P. M.—Rotary Club.
 8:00 P. M.—Junior Order.
Wednesday, 22
 10:00 A. M.—Bird Club.
Friday, 23
 3:30 P. M.—B. & E. Club meets with Mrs. Tommy S. Ryan.
Saturday, 24
 8:30 P. M.—Dancing at the D. A. R. Chapter House.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Modlin and daughter, Barbara, of Portsmouth, Va., will arrive during the week end for a visit to relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Knott Proctor and daughter, Hannah Dixon, were guests of Mrs. Louise D. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dixon, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton Allen purchased the Hadley Bryan home on N. Main Street this week. The Bryan family left Friday to reside in Rocky Mount.

Lt. and Mrs. E. L. Finch leave today, Friday, for Norfolk, Va., after a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gaynor here and relatives in Wilson.

T S/T E. Barrow who, has been stationed on Guadalcanal for more than eighteen months, has been transferred to the Philippines and is stationed at Manila.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tyson and daughters, Misses Margaret and Joyce, returned Tuesday after a visit with Miss Mary Thorne Tyson at Hampton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Murray and daughter, Miss Novella Horton Capps, of Washington, D. C., will arrive tomorrow, Saturday, for a visit to Mrs. Dora H. Keel.

Miss Martha Lewis and Chief Petty Officer, 2/c, James Leon Ammons, bride and bridegroom-to-be, spent several days of this week with relatives of the latter at Roland.

Mrs. Neta Faulkner and grandchildren, of Long Island, N. Y., who have been visiting relatives here, left Thursday for several days stay in Snow Hill and Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Self and little son, Sammie, of Fredericksburg, Va., will arrive this week end for a visit of several days with Mr. Self's parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. Y. Self.

Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Baines moved their residence to Rocky Mount last Wednesday. Mr. Baines, former manager of the Pender store here, is now manager of the Rocky Mount store.

Cpl. Alfred H. Lewis has returned to Chatham Field, Ga., after spending an 18 day furlough at his home here.

Miss Mary Barbee, of Wilson, is spending this week with Miss Martha Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Bryan and children are moving today to 405 N. Taylor St., Rocky Mount. Mr. Bryan will continue operating his trucking business there. Friends here regret their removal.

Pvt. Max McLeod left Tuesday after spending a ten day furlough with his family here. Mrs. McLeod accompanied him to Raleigh and he will leave there Wednesday to report for duty at Fort Meade, Md.

Miss Iris Dupree returned Monday, from Oak Ridge, Tenn., where she visited her sister, Miss Frances Dupree, who underwent an appendectomy last week. We are glad to report that Miss Frances is recuperating rapidly.

Mrs. Mamie Hasket-Rumley has returned to Greenville after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. George Moore, Jr.

Mrs. J. W. Joyner is visiting Rev. and Mrs. Jack R. Bountree, who are spending a part of their vacation at Swansboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McAdams, of Washington, D. C., will spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McAdams. Their daughter, Annette, will return to Washington with them following a visit with her grandparents here.

Local tobaccoists, who have been on the Georgia, South Carolina and Florida markets, and others who will assist in the sale of the tobacco crop on the Farmville Market, will arrive during the week end and be ready for the opening cry of the auctioneer, Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hunter, of Magnolia, and Mrs. J. S. Jones and Miss Norma Croon, of Wilmington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jno. T. Thorne, Tuesday, enroute to Richmond, Va. Miss Mary Leah Thorne accompanied them to Richmond for a stay of several days.

J. H. Moore, who, for the past few weeks, has filled the position of Assistant State Campaign Director of the United War Fund, with headquarters in Greensboro and Winston-Salem, has returned and is completing preparations for the opening of the Farmville schools on the 30th of this month.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor, present this ad to Williams Grocery & Market before noon August 18th for your gift book of White Cottons Clean Wax or White Cottons Clean Wax or White Cottons Clean Wax.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fields and Mrs. John King and daughter, Betty, attended the birthday party of little Jenny Perry Fields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fields, Jr., Saturday afternoon, in Robersonville.

Sgt. E. F. Wilson, Jr., of Fort Bragg, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Rouse. Upon his return Sunday afternoon he was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and little daughter, Julia Anne, who spent the past week here.

Mrs. Kathleen Moore and daughter, Janet, of Richmond, Va., are spending several days of this week with Mrs. Albert Horton, who is leaving Saturday to make her home in Richmond. The many friends of Mrs. Horton regret her removal from our midst.

SERMON TOPIC
 Rev. C. B. Mashburn, pastor of the Christian Church has announced that his sermon topic for Sunday, August 19, will be "The Day Dawns."

METHODIST CHURCH
 There will be no worship service at the Methodist Church on Sunday, but there will be the usual service on the fourth Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Sunday School will be as usual each Sunday.

CLASS PICNIC
 Members of the Loyal Women's Class and the Girl's Class of the Christian Church Sunday School enjoyed a picnic supper at the Municipal Park on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Tom Taylor and L. L. Hardy, special guests, were presented with silver candlesticks

AMMONS-LEWIS
 The following invitation has been received by friends here this week: "Mrs. John Redden Lewis requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Martha May, to James Leon Ammons, United States Navy, on Monday, the twentieth of August, at half after five o'clock, Nineteen hundred forty-five, Methodist Church, Farmville, North Carolina."

BRIDGE AND BOOK CLUB
 Mrs. Irvin Morgan, Jr., delightfully entertained the Bridge and Book Club, Friday afternoon, at her home on Church street, in which bowls and vases of roses and simias in shades of pink were used with artistic effect.

Mrs. R. T. Williams compiled high score. Individual pecan pies, coca-colas and cheese crax were served after the games.

Mrs. Robert Lee Smith, Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., and Mrs. John E. King were special guests of the hostess.

TO ATTEND S. S. CLINIC
 Rev. E. C. Chamblie is leaving today for a fifteen day stay in Nashville, Tenn., where he will attend a southwide Sunday School Clinic, to which he is being sent by the Wilmington Baptist Association.

The Rev. Mr. Chamblie resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Church here some weeks ago to accept the position of Superintendent of Missions in the Wilmington Association as of August 15.

Upon his return from Nashville, Rev. Mr. Chamblie will go to Wilmington where he will assume his new duties and will move his family there as soon as desirable living quarters can be arranged. In the meantime, Mrs. Chamblie and son will visit relatives in Middlesex.

SERVICE MEN'S CENTER
 Visiting Servicemen at the Center during the week end were:
 Farmville—Pfc. Lester C. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Skinner, who has recently returned from the European Theatre of Operations after serving twenty-eight months there. He has received his discharge and is at home with his family.
 Cpl. Alfred H. Lewis, Chatham Field, Ga.
 Pvt. Walter J. Worth, Athol, Mass., and Seymour Johnson Field, Goldsboro. Guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Beaumont, Saturday night.
 Cherry Point—Cpl. Jerry A. Peck, Lake Placid, N. Y.
 Pfc. Hale B. Martin, Knightville, Ind.; Cpl. Frank Danyanovich, Lincoln Park, Mich.; Cpl. J. E. Sticker, Jonesboro, Ill. Cpl. J. R. Wiseman and Cpl. J. Geatras, Baltimore, Md., guests Wednesday night of Miss Tabitha M. DeVisconti.
 Cpl. Chas. E. Sholdes, Greenville Air Base and Cleveland, Ohio.
 Pfc. T. E. Drake, Camp Lejeune and Coffeyville, Kansas. Week end guest of Miss Tabitha M. DeVisconti.

The Farmville Home Demonstration Club was the hostess group with Mrs. J. R. and Mrs. B. M. Lewis in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Bennett B. Fields acting as hostess. Fried chicken, boiled ham, potato salad, lettuce, tomatoes, biscuit, cake, bread, milk, stuffed eggs and apples were furnished by this group as well as the flowers used for the desk and centerpieces.

Other donations were: ten pounds of pecans by Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, salted by Mrs. Bob Jagger, pears by Mrs. Apple Pennington, milk by Mrs. B. A. Norman, Mrs. A. M. Moore and Pecan Grove Dairy; $3 for current expenses by the Town of Farmville.

Popular Bride-Elect Feted At Charming Parties Here

Misses Lang Entertain At Country Club

Miss Martha May Lewis, whose marriage to James Leon Ammons, United States Navy, will be solemnized at 5:30 o'clock, Monday afternoon, in the Methodist Church, has been the recipient of numerous social courtesies since announcement of her engagement.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. E. Grimes Lewis were hostesses at a lovely party at the D. A. R. Chapter House in compliment to Miss Lewis.

Summer flowers in pastel shades and mixed arrangements were used as a setting for the six tables. In the progressive contract games, Mrs. Herman B. Baker compiled high score and was awarded smoking accessories. The consolation prize, a vase, went to Mrs. Curtis H. Flanagan. The honoree was presented a gift of china in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

Party sandwiches, assorted cookies, pickles, salted nuts and an iced fruit drink were served after the games.

Out of town guests were: Miss Mary Barbee, of Wilson; Mrs. Larry Averette and Mrs. Dennis Frowler, of Greenville.

Mrs. Ellen Lewis Carroll, Mrs. Jack Lewis and Miss Nancy Lewis were hostesses at a dinner party, honoring the bride and bridegroom-elect, Thursday evening.

The dinner table was centered with a crystal bowl of white roses and fern and illuminated by candles in the national colors, which burned in crystal candelabra. The fruit and dessert courses emphasized the tri-color note as did the place cards, favors and other table appointments.

A course dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock. Covers were laid for twenty-four. Places of the honor guests were marked by a miniature bride and a sailor bridegroom.

The bride-elect was presented with silver in her chosen pattern by the hostesses.

Mrs. Albert V. Lewis and Miss Etta Lewis will entertain at a rehearsal party, Sunday evening.

Mrs. B. M. Lewis and Mrs. John B. Lewis will be joint hostesses at the home of the former, Monday, at a luncheon for the bridal party and out of town wedding guests.

MISSES LANG ENTERTAIN
 Misses Elizabeth and Bertha Lang delightfully entertained fifty friends at a coca-cola party at the Country Club, Saturday morning. The club lounge was decorated with floor baskets of dahlias, gladioli and phlox and the mantels were artistically arranged with trailing ivy and floral plates.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table centered with an arrangement of zinnias of varied colors. Mrs. T. W. Lang, mother of the hostesses, Miss Agnes Moore, Miss Betty Joyner, Mrs. Robert Lee Smith and Mrs. E. C. Copenhaver assisted in serving coca-colas, ham biscuits, sandwiches, crax, cookies and salted nuts. The guests were seated at auxiliary tables which were centered with miniature bouquets.

Out of town guests were Miss Annie Lee Jones, of Raleigh, Miss Louise Farrior, of Warsaw, and Mrs. John D. Holmes, of Fort Worth, Texas.

VISITORS HONORED
 Mrs. J. W. Hardy, Mrs. Albert Bell and Mrs. Harvey Winstead entertained at a weiner roast Friday evening, at the Park, in compliment to Miss Carrie Ann and John Dickey, of long Island, New York, house-guests of Mrs. Hardy.

After a swim in the pool, the weiners were roasted and served with iced drinks. Immediately afterwards, the young guests went to the home of Miss Connie Rollins where they enjoyed games and contests.

WATERMELON PARTY
 The Baptist Training Union entertained at an enjoyable affair, a watermelon sicing, Friday evening at the municipal park, which was attended by fifteen members.

Carl Tyson, chairman of the social committee, was assisted in receiving and serving by Mrs. Robert Joyner and Mrs. Joseph Batchelor.

After enjoying the iced melons, the Juniors played games.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
 Mary Lou Moore, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Moore, Jr., celebrated her seventh birthday, Tuesday, with a lovely party, to which nine of her little friends were invited.

Games were played on the lawn prior to the serving of refreshments. The dining room table was centered with the huge birthday cake, which was flanked by pink candles in crystal holders. This was cut and served with ice cream. Favors were baskets of sweets. Pink and white simias were used as floral decorations in the home.

Guests were Theodora Albertson, Mae Turner's Eason, Anna Morgan, Sister Pickett, Albert Monk, Ellen Norris Spencer, Mac and Dyke Holmes and Joyce Harbit.

Farmville Celebrates End of Hostilities in Sober State of Mind

Farmville citizens were awed and sobered by the sudden cessation of hostilities with Japan, Tuesday, and with one accord gathered at the Christian Church, as had been agreed upon previously for a season of prayer and thanksgiving forty-five minutes after the announcement was broadcast. The pastor, Rev. C. B. Mashburn, presided and read appropriate Scriptural passages, and prayers were offered by Rev. M. Y. Self, Rev. E. S. Coates and Rev. E. C. Chamblie.

A planned public service of thanksgiving was held in Perkins Hall, Wednesday evening by the Ministerial Association with the president, Rev. M. Y. Self, of the Methodist Church, presiding. Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian pastor, offered the invocation. Rev. C. B. Mashburn of the Christian Church read the Scripture lesson and Father Mahon, Catholic priest, offered prayers of thanksgiving and an appeal for Divine guidance for world leaders.

Irvin Morgan, Jr., made an inspiring talk on "Keeping Faith With Those Who Made The Supreme Sacrifice in This War," and in this connection read "Poppies Grow in Flanders Fields" and "Let Us Forget." Miss Hellen Rouse sang "The Lord's Prayer" and a choir of women's voices from the various Churches led the singing of the hymns, with Mrs. M. V. Jones at the piano.

The V-J holiday for Farmville stores began Wednesday and was continued through Thursday with the exception of food stores which were open from 8-9:30 A. M.

Other stops, members of the Farmville Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association took two days holiday in accordance with President Truman's announcement proclaiming Wednesday and Thursday as holidays. The legal holiday date for Victory over Japan has not been set yet and will depend upon the day when the official surrender document is signed.

NOTE OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to friends for the many cards, flowers and gifts sent and for other acts of kindness shown us during the illness of Mrs. Dameron Fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Dameron Fields.

HER DIAMOND
 should be the finest.
 Be assured of an "honest value" and the newest in design.
 Guaranteed Quality!

ROBERT'S JEWELERS
 FARMVILLE'S LARGEST JEWELRY STORE
 H. S. HATEM, Manager
 103 North Main St. Farmville, N. C.

NOTICE!

Patrons and Friends
 I will be associated with The Bank of Farmville temporarily but will be in my office late afternoons and evenings.
MANLY LILES

Manning's Refrigeration and Electrical Service

111 East Wilson St. — Phone 4040 — Farmville, N. C.

We do Repairing on Washing Machines, Refrigerators, Fans, Irons, Toasters, Vacuum Cleaners, also Commercial Refrigeration and Electric Ranges.

Welcome Back Farmers and Friends!

Complete Automotive SERVICE

Chrysler-Plymouth SALES and SERVICE

Your Patronage Always Appreciated

Eason Bros. Service Center

PHONE 400-1
 West Wilson Street Farmville, N. C.