When the public dictates the tunes, the Metropolitan stars sing songs that could be done well by any member of a good church choir.

When I've eaten or drunk too much or stayed up too late I expect to suffer and always do, despite what is promised by the radio commercials.

About 68 million bushels of sweet potatoes are now being harvested in the United States and it's good time to feature them on the menu.

Most men can enjoy fun and then dismiss it from the mind; but some women's minds don't work that way. They just don't dismiss anything from anywhere anytime.

METHODIST CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Dail have established an endowment for the Farmville Methodist Church. By their request the gift, the sum of $5,000., will be invested in government or municipal bonds, the dividends to be applied, when needed, to balance the annual budget.

From the Church bulletin, Oct. 21, we quote, "Mr. and Mrs. Dail have been faithful to their Church, and now as the shadows lengthen, find joy in contributing to worthy causes—thus building for the future."

It will be recalled that in 1943, they contributed $5,000 to the endowment fund of the Methodist Orphanage.

Sunday Morning

Rev. T. M. Grant, Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District, will conduct the worship services, Sunday at 11 o'clock, and immediately following hold the last quarterly conference for the Church year.

Week of Prayer

On Sunday evening, the first service in observance of Week of Prayer and Self-Denial will be held at 7:30, with members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and Wesleyan Guild conducting the program. The Youth Choir will sing.

This is a world-wide annual observance of Methodist women, the purpose of which is an enrichment of spiritual life through prayer, meditation, study and self-denial offerings. The offering this year is to be used for our Mission work in Africa, among the Mexicans in Texas and for Deaconess work in America.

The second service will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30. All members of the W.S.C.S. and the Guild are urged to attend these services and know what our Church is doing to help make a better world.

Participating on the program Sunday evening will be Mrs. Bennett Fields, Miss Bertha Lang and Mrs. Curtis Flanagan; on Monday, Mrs. Pearl Johnston, Mrs. Leon Eason and Mrs. M. Y. Self.

RUSSIA KNOWS

Hamilton, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Dean Sidney J. French, of Colgate University, said today that Russia knows everything about the atomic bomb except how to put one together.

"Russia knows everything except the very dangerous trick of putting charges together and providing the mechanism to explode those charges," he said. "But she has smart scientists, plenty of them. She will find the resources, the equipment, the labor, and the factories, too."

"If we insist on challenging Russia with the atomic bomb, we will get nothing less than a return in greater kind."

Addressing the 12th Colgate commencement since Pearl Harbor, he predicted that Russia would have her own atom bomb within five years and "There is no reason to exclude the possibility that Russia might develop a better bomb."

French was advocating a world foundation of science which would be staffed by "thousands of great scientists who will owe allegiance to no national government. Each nation must provide its best scientific brains and the foundation itself must have the authority to seek out, encourage and finance young men and women of all nations, colors and creeds who show great promise in scientific work."

BIRD CLUB

An article on the Eskimo Curlew was read by Paschall Barrett at the meeting on Saturday. It is a great pity that we must speak of this bird in the past tense. Its disappearance is but another tribute to the effectiveness of modern fire-arms and the short-sightedness of the average American hunter.

In the seventies and eighties Eskimo Curlews, in countless numbers, came to the coast of Massachusetts and they were plentiful in the Carolinas, also. Their summer home was in the northern part of North America. In autumn they would collect in Newfoundland, then from Nova Scotia launch out over the ocean for South America.

Many of them never sighted land until they reached the West India Islands. Some however were diverted from their course and landed on the Bermuda Islands and along the coast of the beaches of New England where they were mercilessly shot for food. In March and April the great flights would appear on the shores of the states bordering the Gulf of Mexico where they passed another gauntlet of gun-fire en route up the Mississippi valley to northern Canada and on to their breeding grounds.

They were of no special value to the farming interests for they did not feed on insects injurious to crops, but they were of much value, as a food product and with proper laws enforced for their conservation the great flocks might have been spared indefinitely for the pleasure and benefit of mankind.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramps, aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "blow" to come.
 2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
- Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
