THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A guest speaker, Mrs. R. A. Doan, Indianapolis, Ind., who is vice-president of the United Christian Missionary Society, will bring the message at the Christian Church, Sunday, at the 11 o'clock service. Mrs. Doan was, for a number of years, a missionary in Japan.

Begins Fortieth Year

The pastor of the Christian Church, the Rev. C. E. Maashburn, will begin his fortieth year in the ministry on Sunday. Nearly half of this number has been spent in Farmville in two periods, he having answered a second call to this pastorate after an absence of 15 years.

Possessing the rare combination of vision and common sense, together with other indispensable qualities for success in the field of religious endeavor, the Rev. Mr. Maashburn has been zealous in the cause of Christ and loyal to his calling throughout the 39 years.

SERIES OF SERVICES

Rev. E. S. Coates, assisted by Rev. Hayes Clark of Greenville began a series of services at Ballard's Monday which are continuing through Sunday, Nov. 4.

A great deal of interest is being manifested and a splendid attendance reported. Presbyterians at Ballard's were organized Dec. 1944 and now have 40 Church members, who have completed plans to erect a Church building as soon as materials are available.

A fine meeting was held last week at Carraway's Chapel when 12 new members were added. Carraway's membership has recently installed electric lighting in their building.

ALTAR GUILD

Mrs. T. S. Ryon was hostess to the Episcopal Altar Guild on Tuesday evening at her home which was decorated with lovely roses. Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver presided and opened the meeting with the Creed and prayer. The hostess served coca-colas, crax and candy during the social hour.

PRESBYTERIAN JUNIORS

The Presbyterian Juniors met this week with Walter Burgess. Carol Butts chose as her devotional subject, "The Lost Sheep."

The group completed its current study of "The Life of Jesus," at this time with Jess Spencer in charge of the program on "His Ministry."

In closing the 23rd Psalm was repeated in unison. In the social hour, nuts, cookies and cold drinks were served. Plate decorations and favors were suggestive of the Hallow'en season.

CHRISTIAN COUNCIL GROUPS

Group meetings of the Christian Woman's Council were held Monday evening. The Council magazine, World Call, was studied and the Hidden Answers were discussed.

Mrs. G. E. Thompson was hostess to Group One and Mrs. Loyd Smith led the devotional. The announcement was made that Woman's Day will be held December 1. During the social hour the hostess served fruit.

Group Two met at the home of Mrs. L. F. Daugherty when eleven members were present. Mrs. A. C. Turnage conducted the devotional, reading the 23rd Psalm, after which she led the Group in prayer. Ice cream and cake were served.

Group Three met with Mrs. Edison Moore. Mrs. R. V. Fiser presented the devotional and led in prayer. Mrs. Ted Albritton, leader, reported on the Council meeting which was held prior to the Group meeting and announced that Woman's Day will be held December 1. She urged that each member be thinking of plans for that day. The hostess served coffee, cookies and candies.

Mrs. C. B. Maashburn was hostess to Group Four and presided over the meeting. The theme of the devotional, Thanksgiving, was given by Mrs. Lester Turnage. A round table discussion on "What We Have To Be Thankful For This Thanksgiving" was held. "Why Give Thanks" was the topic chosen by Rev. Maashburn for an interesting talk. Following refreshments, Bunsen's tea and cookies were served.

An important guest compels the hostess to buy a new gown and a new hat, which cost you know what.

BIRD CLUB PARTY

Members of the Bird Club were guests at a Hallow'en party at the home of Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, Saturday. Witches, owls and pumpkins were used in attractive decoration of the basement which was lighted by a Hallow'en lantern. The program was a story of a witch, a broom stick and an owl. Cookies, candies and fruit were served from a table which was covered with a Hallow'en cover.
