Negro Schools Will Give Music Festival

The Pitt County Negro Schools are scheduled to present a county-wide musical festival at the C. M. Epps High School, in Greenville, Friday, April 26 at 8:30 P. M. Plans are in the making to make this an exceptionally enjoyable occasion. Selections will include renditions of the original Negro spiritual and the master pieces of the world's most outstanding composers. Each of the eight or ten schools participating will give a ten minutes performance.

Music is to the soul what food is to the body. When the burdens of life become heavy and afflictions oppress the soul, it can burst forth in song and the spirit is renewed and the burden is lightened.

It is the hope of the sponsors that this occasion may be the means of inspiring a greater interest in good music. Especially do we hope that youth may be inspired to turn from the jazz craze to a greater appreciation and interpretation of the better and more cultural types of music.

A special invitation is hereby extended to our white citizenry. Reserved seats will be provided for you.

Admission 25c to all.

H. B. Sugg, Coordinator,
Pitt County Negro Schools.

"I'M MAKING
NEW FLORSHEIMS
FOR YOU

JUST AS FAST AS GOOD SHOES CAN BE MADE"

"Why aren't there more Florsheim Shoes on the market? Because quantity must always wait on quality when good shoes are being made. Especially during a reconversion period fine craftsmanship demands extra time... and Florsheim would rather make fewer shoes than have a single pair of them substandard in any particular. Soon, we hope, there will be enough Florsheims for everybody, and I know (because I make them) that they will be Worth Waiting For!"
