VISITOR HONORED

Mrs. George C. Moye, of Forest Hills, N. Y., who is visiting here, was honored at a delightful afternoon bridge party given Tuesday by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. W. Jesse Moye and Mrs. Howard D. Moye.

Quantities of roses, iris, narcissus and verbena in lovely mixed bouquets used on the mantels and occasional tables turned the lounge of the Country Club, scene of the affair, into a veritable spring garden. This theme was further carried in the talles.

Upon arrival guests found refreshment covers in the pastel shades laid at ten tables with attractive centerpiece of miniature pitchers filled with flower blossoms. These were presented as gifts to players drawing the opening deal in the first progression.

Miss Elizabeth Moore assisted the hostesses in serving ice cream, chocolate iced cup cakes and toasted pecans, prior to the games, and fruit punch, throughout the afternoon.

High score prize, a crystal cream and sugar, was won by Mrs. Frank Allen; floating prize, a pair of miniature vases, was retained by Mrs. Curtis Flanagan and low score award, a crystal bell, went to Mrs. Lewis Allen.

The honoree was presented a cor-

age of American Beauty roses and a pair of decorative reflectors. Miss Adelaide Dall, bride-elect of May, was remembered with an after dinner cup and saucer.

Out of town guests included the honoree and Mrs. Clarence Moye, Mrs. Lawrence Moye, Mrs. Jessie Hardy, Mrs. Hardy Albritton, of Maury; Mrs. Milton Moye, of Tarboro; Mrs. A. J. Moye, of Scotland Neck.

CONTRACT CLUB

Mrs. W. E. Joyner was a gracious hostess to the Contract Club, Tuesday evening, and to additional friends, Mrs. J. H. Moore, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. Jaima Byrum and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith, entertaining in her home, in which roses and peonies were pleasingly arranged.

Mrs. H. Neal Howard won the high score award, a double deck of Congress cards.

Delicious strawberry ice cream, animal cake and salted nuts were served.

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE, FARMVILLE, PITTS COUNTY, N. C.

Miss Mary Alice Harris Is Bride of Chas. J. Howell

Vows Spoken In Afternoon Ceremony At The Episcopal Church

Impressive in its dignity and beauty was the wedding of Miss Mary Alice Harris, of Farmville and Ocala, Fla., and Charles James Howell, of Ocala, which was solemnized, Sunday afternoon, April 21, at 2:00 o'clock, in Emmanuel Episcopal Church here. The Rev. J. R. Rountree, rector of the Church, officiated in the ring ceremony.

The altar vases of white carnations, snapdragons and fern were flanked by the altar candelabra and the Eucharistic lights and floor candelabra intertwined with ivy and lilies were placed in the chancel to illumine and enhance the beauty of the nuptial scene. Tall baskets of Easter lilies, snowballs and syringa were used in further decoration of the Church. David T. Harris lighted the candles.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. G. Alex Rouse, organist, who played "Oh, Star of Eve," by Wagner, "Traumerei," by Schumann, and "Liebestraum," by Liszt, and by Mrs. J. Knott Proctor, of Greenville, who sang "Still As The Night" by Bohm and "I Love You" by Grieg. Macdowell's "To A Wild Rose" was softly played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride entered the Church with her brother-in-law, John D. Dixon, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a white lace and marquisette wedding gown over taffeta, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice with plenum of the lace and full skirt. Her long veil of illusion was arranged coronet style and caught at each side with orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her only ornament was a necklace, a gift of her father.

Mrs. John D. Dixon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of yellow taffeta, trimmed with matching net ruffles. The fitted bodice had a net yoke and a plenum finished with a net ruffle. The skirt was full. Her headdress was of yellow taffeta and matching roses and her corsage was of talisman roses.

Miss Barbara Franklin, of Ocala, Fla., niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Alice Harper Parker, aunt of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Franklin wore a white nylon frock embroidered with pink and blue roses. It was a bodice and full skirt model with a square neck and puffed sleeves. Her half-hat was of pink net and her colonial nosegay was of pink sweetheart roses. Miss Parker wore a pink marquisette dress over taffeta in the off-shoulder and hoop skirt mode. Her half-hat matched and her corsage was of pink roses.

John D. Dixon, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. He wore a white linen suit and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Miss Vivian Taylor, of Wilson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of heavenly blue taffeta and a flower and net hat. Her shoulderette was of pink sweetheart roses and she strewed rose petals from a silver basket.

The bridegroom has as best man, his brother-in-law, William Franklin, of Ocala, Fla. Ushers were Allen Moore and David T. Harris, cousins of the bride, Edward S. Dixon, of Wilson, and Ernest N. Petteway.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Howell left for a motor trip to Western North Carolina. For traveling, the bride changed to a navy crepe suit with white Swiss embroidery trim and white accessories. Her hat was a pompon model made of white horsehair braid and ribbon. Her shoulder corsage was the center of her bridal bouquet. After May 1, the couple will be at home in the Harrington Hotel, Ocala, Fla., of which the bridegroom is assistant manager.

Miss Elizabeth Moore assisted the hostesses in serving ice cream, chocolate iced cup cakes and toasted pecans, prior to the games, and fruit punch, throughout the afternoon.

High score prize, a crystal cream and sugar, was won by Mrs. Frank Allen; floating prize, a pair of miniature vases, was retained by Mrs. Curtis Flanagan and low score award, a crystal bell, went to Mrs. Lewis Allen.

The honoree was presented a cor-

age of American Beauty roses and a pair of decorative reflectors. Miss Adelaide Dall, bride-elect of May, was remembered with an after dinner cup and saucer.

Out of town guests included the honoree and Mrs. Clarence Moye, Mrs. Lawrence Moye, Mrs. Jessie Hardy, Mrs. Hardy Albritton, of Maury; Mrs. Milton Moye, of Tarboro; Mrs. A. J. Moye, of Scotland Neck.
