V-E DAY

On this, the first V-E Day anniversary, we pay tribute to those who fought the enemy on land and sea and in the air, to those who fought just as bravely and valiantly on the home front, and to our war dead. Especially do we honor those who gave their lives during the long conflict so recently ended—those stalwart heroes whose supreme sacrifice brought Victory and the promise of permanent Peace to a bleeding and suffering world.

Victory will mean nothing, however, if we fail to make a peace that will endure. Count all the lives, that were lost, bodies that were maimed and handicapped and blood that was shed; to them all add the mothers' tears, the orphans' cries and the empty arms of the bereft; all these together loudly plead that the passing of the years since Victory in Europe was first proclaimed shall find Peace made impregnable by the united efforts of all of us—a united people, dedicated to the solidarity of the united nations.

MEMORIAL DAYS

Two Memorial Days in May for those who died in battle and asked nothing in return. Their memory is sacred, and so we honor them on Decoration Day with floral offerings placed on their graves to say, "here lies a hero."

Their names are engraved deep in the hearts of families and friends—it is for us the living to remember, along with their names, that for which they died . . . a way of life rich because of its four freedoms . . . from fear and want, of speech and worship.

SHE SHALL BE PRAISED

Thursday, May 2, marked the passing of Mrs. Nannie Yelverton Lewis, another Southern gentlewoman of the old school, who will be greatly missed in this community.

A devoted wife and loving mother, possessing remarkable energy, and endowed with a compassion worthy of the Master, whose footsteps she followed so faithfully, Mrs. Lewis had a place in her heart and home for the motherless and fatherless, and found time to minister to white and colored alike, for miles around until stricken five years ago. Even then, her loving interest and concern for others was continued and extended through her dutiful children, and the Christian fortitude with which she bore her long illness was a source of constant inspiration to those attending and visiting at her bedside.

"Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates." Prov. 31: 30-31.

Whenever you want to do some good work just go ahead with the enterprise and forget about forming an organization.

Two women can talk as long about a hat as two men about a political issue, and with as many angles and sidights.

Price has very little to do with the successful sales of anything if you can convince buyers that they are getting their money's worth.

First noted 100 years ago as a "harmless weed" in this country, lespedeza now is recognized as one of the nation's greatest soil building legumes.

Some people can do things I can never do, and I can do things they can't ever do, so what kind of law can be framed to correct this inequality?

Senator Clyde R. Hoey says that he knows of "no fraud" by North Carolina meat packers. The FBI now is investigating reports that some U. S. packers have falsified subsidy claims.

Three new, disease-resistant varieties of fine-cured tobacco have been developed since 1903 at a cost of $225,000. Their value to farmers is counted well into the millions of dollars annually.

Senators from cotton states are supporting the three and three-quarter billion dollar loan to Great Britain on the basis that John Bull will not use the money for development of cotton culture.

Deep in the heart of every man, woman, boy and girl is a very special kind of love for a very special kind of lady—Mother. Through the days and weeks of the years she is taken very much for granted—her kind words and deeds, her patience and understanding, her courage and selflessness are accepted as a matter of fact. MAY 12TH IS HER DAY—the Day you may honor her and make her the happiest Mother in the world, if she is with you still, by simply assuring her of your love and appreciation.

The idea of a universal Mother's Day is attributed to Anna M. Jarvis, whose mother did such excellent work among Civil War needy in Harrison County, Va. In 1906; the first anniversary of her mother's death, Miss Jarvis envisioned the idea of dedicating a day to all mothers. She wrote thousands of letters and interviewed thousands of people in this connection.

Finally, on May 10, 1912, a resolution was passed in Congress to make the second Sunday in May a national holiday, "Dedicated to the memory of the best mother in the world, your mother." The following year, on the second Sunday in May, the first Mother's Day was observed throughout the United States.

MOTHER

From early morn till set of sun. Her tasks of love are never done; She shares our hopes, our dreams, our plans— Believes in us and understands; And even when we're far apart She keeps our interests at heart; Her life's a perfect symbol of Enduring and unselfish love."

TO MOTHER

Your painted no Madonnas, On chapel walls in Rome, But with a touch divine You lived one in your home. You wrote no lofty poems That critics counted art, But with a nobler vision You lived them in your heart. You carved no shapeless marble To some high soul design, But with a finer sculpture, You shaped this soul of mine. You built no great cathedrals, That centuries applaud, But with a grace exquisite, Your life cathedralized God. Had I the gift of Raphael, Or Michael Angelo, Oh, what a rare Madonna My mother's life would show.

—T. W. Fessenden.

(In memory of our mother, Mrs. George E. Moore, Sr., who passed into eternal rest, April 20, 1946).

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER

The beauty of spirit that belonged to you Was revealed in so many dear ways,— It lived in your heart, where it fashioned your work, And shines brightly now through our days.

(In memory of our mother, Mrs. Georgia Hill Carraway, by Lena Carraway).
