Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Neal Howard, Parents of the Bride, Entertain at Reception at Country Club

Of widespread interest to friends, is the marriage of Miss Frances Covington Howard, of Farmville, and William Graydon Liles, of Durham and Farmville, which was solemnized in a formal ceremony at five-thirty o'clock, Saturday, September the fourteenth, in the Farmville Methodist Church and characterized by beauty and dignity. The Rev. E. R. Clegg, pastor of the church, officiated using the double ring ceremony. Oregon fern and palms were arranged as a chancel background for tall baskets of white gladioli and for the cathedral candles in floor candelabra. Smilax entwined the altar rail, which was interspersed with sprays of white gladioli, and enhanced the setting for the wedding tableaux. Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner rendered a program of pre-nuptial music, including "Schubert's Serenade", "To An Evening Star" by Wagner, "Poem" by Fibich, "Angel Serenade" by Braga, and Schubert's "Ave Maria", "Oh Promise Me," by R. deKoven, was sung by Elbert Holmes, baritone, and Mr. and Mrs. Holmes sang a duet, "The Want Of You" by Vanderpool. "Estrellita" by Ponce-Kohlmann, was softly played by the organist during the ceremony. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. "Lutkin's Benediction" was rendered as a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes. Mrs. Joyner was attired in a gown of dusty rose silk jersey. Mrs. Holmes wore a gown of floral silk jersey and white net. The bride entered the Church with her father, Hosea Neal Howard, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was a lovely creation of French lace and net. The bodice was fashioned in the basque mode of French lace over taffeta with a round yoke of net in an off-the-shoulder effect outlined in pleated net, as were the lace sleeves which extended to points over the hands. The gown was fastened down the back in tiny self-covered buttons. The bouffant skirt, of net over taffeta, was shirred at the hip-line and extended into a cathedral train. Her wedding veil of illusion fell from a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet and extended beyond the train of the dress. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of bride's roses centered with a white orchid and showered with white satin ribbon. Mrs. Lowell Fulghum Liles, of Raleigh, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of white net over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a bertha in an off-the-shoulder effect. The full skirt of net featured bands of blue ribbon which terminated in lover's knots. She wore white elbow length mitts and carried an old fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades, blue predominating, showered with contrasting ribbons. A coronet of the same flowers was worn in her hair. Miss Agnes Virginia Quinerly was maid of honor. Miss Mildred Howard, of Louisburg, cousin of the bride, Miss Mae Knott, Mrs. Allen Moore Harris and Mrs. Carol Willis Modlin were bridesmaids. They all wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor and carried old fashioned bouquets and wore coronets in their hair. Lowell Fulghum Liles, of Raleigh, served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Neal Howard, Jr., brother of the bride, Robert Pierce, Donald Walston, Douglas Kemp, William Thorp, Jr., cousin of the bride, of Rocky Mount, Milton Heath, Jr., of Chapel Hill, and Claussen Allen, of Raleigh. Mrs. Howard, mother of the bride, was attired in a gown of powder blue crepe with sequin design and wore an orchid in her hair. Mrs. Liles, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua crepe gown with silver sequin trim and an orchid at her shoulder. The bride, a young woman of beauty and charming personality, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Neal Howard. She received her education in the Farmville schools and was graduated from Stratford College, Danville, Va. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manly Liles. He received his education in the Farmville schools and was graduated from the University of North Carolina. He was recently discharged from four years of service in the United States Army Air Corps, as pilot, holding the rank of Lieutenant. He served actively in the Pacific area for ten months, and holds the following ribbons, the Asiatic-Pacific, with 6 bronze stars, American Theatre, Philippine Liberation with 1 star, Victory Ribbon, was awarded the Air Medal and Presidential Citation. He recently was released to inactive duty as Lieutenant Army Air Corp Reserve. Reception Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Neal Howard, parents of the bride, entertained at a formal reception at the Country Club. The club house was decorated throughout with white, chrysanthemums, white gladioli and ferns. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thorp, of Rocky Mount, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lea, of Rocky Mount, introduced them to the receiving line composed of members of the bridal party, the bride, the bridegroom, and the father and mother of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver directed the guests to the bride's table, which was spread with a lace and cutwork cloth, and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and fern flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Seated at either end of the table and serving the bridal loaves and decorated cakes were Mrs. Turner B. Howard and Miss Ruby Howard, both of Danville, Va. Miss Susan Thorp and Miss Henrietta Thorp, of Rocky Mount, Miss Anne Jones, Miss Vivian Scott, Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mrs. John Parker assisted in serving mints and nuts. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Albritton directed the guests to the punch table.

MRS. WILLIAM GRAYDON LILES, of Durham, who bore her marriage on September 14 in the Farmville Methodist Church, was Miss Frances Covington Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Neal Howard, of Farmville. Mr. Liles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manly Liles, of Farmville.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Thorp, of Rocky Mount, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pickett served punch from a beautifully appointed table. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Scott presided at the bride's register. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones. Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Willis received guests at the Howard home where the gifts were displayed. Wedding Trip Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will reside in Durham. For traveling, the bride chose a winter white wool gabardine suit. Her hat was a small off-the-face model of brown felt and trimmed with ostrich tips. Her accessories were of brown alligator, and her shoulder corsage was a white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the rehearsal on Friday evening, Mrs. Lowell Liles, of Raleigh, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Agnes Virginia Quinerly, of Farmville, entertained the bridal party at a cake-cutting at the Country Club. Since announcement of her engagement Miss Howard has been extensively entertained. On Saturday, Mrs. W. D. Hackney, Jr., of Wilson, and Mrs. W. L. Thorp, of Rocky Mount, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. W. L. Draper, of Rocky Mount, cousin of the bride, entertained the bridal party and out of town guests at a luncheon at the Country Club.
