Activities Of Local Church Organizations

Baptist

The Woman's Missionary Society met Monday afternoon in the Church with Mrs. A. B. Moore presiding. Singing of "We've a Story to Tell the Nations" opened the meeting.

The devotional topic was developed by Mrs. C. L. Beaman from Isaiah 54:1-5, Matthew 6:19-21 and Acts 13:1-3. "World Investments of Southern Baptists" was the missionary theme given by Mrs. W. H. Fisher and Mrs. Manly Liles.

After the reading of quarterly reports, the president announced that Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. C. L. Beaman and Mrs. W. J. Rasberry compose the nominating committee.

On October 17 the associational meeting will be held at New Bern. Welcomed visitors were Mrs. Dameron Fields and Mrs. J. A. Wheeler.

The Y.W.A. met with Mrs. Marvin Speight, Monday evening, with Acts 1:7-8 being used as the devotional. Miss Myrtle Nichols developed the study on "World of our Witness." Homemade chocolate cake and ice cream were served by the hostesses. Arrangements of fall flowers were on tables and the mantel.

Miss Annie Perkins was elected chairman of the Baptist Circle which bears her name and Mrs. George W. Davis, sponsor, at the regular monthly meeting held in the Church, Tuesday evening, with Mrs. A. J. Melton, as hostess.

After the opening hymn, "We've a Story to Tell the Nations," Mrs. J. W. Miller, chairman, announced that efforts are being made to secure Miss Elizabeth Hales, a former missionary to China, to teach the mission study class to be held in the near future.

Mrs. Robert Joyner gave the devotional using verses from Isaiah, Acts and Matthew. The program topic centering around "World Investments of Southern Baptists" was presented by Mrs. C. L. Langley and Mrs. Joseph Batchelor.

"I Gave My Life for Thee" was used as the closing hymn. Mrs. Melton served ice cream and cake in the social hour.

Mrs. Ted Albritton presiding over the Christian Woman's Council, Monday afternoon, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer. "Jesus Is All the World to Me" was sung followed by group and treasurers' reports.

Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Moore were in charge of the devotional for Group 4. "Pure in My Heart, O God" was sung before the devotional and afterwards "Stand Up for Jesus." Rev. Z. B. T. Cox gave some interesting remarks on how the Church will appear after the proposed remodeling, illustrating his talk with drawings and pictures.

The meeting was adjourned with the Council Benediction.

Discussion of Hidden Answers from "The World Call" featured the program of Group 2 of the Christian Woman's Council, Thursday evening. Mrs. Clarence Moye, a special guest, led the devotional.

During the social hour, the hostess, Mrs. L. L. Hardy, served lemon chiffon pie and coffee. Dahlias were used in artistic arrangements as decoration.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Having this day qualified as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary I. Davis, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of the deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at Farmville, N. C., on or before the 25th day of September, 1947, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This 25th day of September, 1946.

H. D. JOHNSON, Administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary I. Davis. (9-27-46-c)

Episcopal

Mrs. J. W. Joyner, who presided at the Episcopal Auxiliary held in Mrs. J. H. Darden's home on Monday afternoon, also gave the devotional based on Mark carrying out the missionary theme.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver read the recommendation of the nominating committee which resulted in the election of the following officers: Miss Helen Smith, president; Mrs. R. S. Scott, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, secretary; Mrs. G. Alex Rouse, treasurer; Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, educational secretary; Mrs. John D. Dixon, box work; Mrs. J. H. Darden, united thank offering and Mrs. Will Jones, Jr., public relations.

An interesting report on the Triennial held in Philadelphia, in September, was given by Mrs. J. E. Warren, of Battleboro, a former member of the local group.

Mrs. C. H. Joyner, Mrs. J. W. Joyner and Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver were appointed to make plans for the annual church get-together to be held in the home of Mrs. E. C. Beaman in November.

The study of Winifred Bryce's new book, "India at the Threshold," was begun at this time with a sketch of the life of the teacher-missionary by Mrs. G. Alex Rouse, who also reviewed the first two chapters, "I Am Proud of India and The Man with the Wooden Plow," which dealt with the ancient and modern culture of India and the problems of her rural people.

Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Miss Ida Cowan, following adjournment.

The auxiliary remembered with a gift at this time Mrs. W. R. Burnette, a member who left Wednesday, to make her home near Rocky Mount.

Special guests were Miss Ida Cowan, of Durham, and Mrs. J. E. Warren, of Battleboro.

Methodist

Continuing the Bible study from the book, "Divine Fatherhood," Mrs. E. R. Clegg and Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., presented several chapters at the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held in the Church Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt, presiding.

"Peace, The Gift of God" was used as the opening hymn with Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck as accompanist. Observance of the Week of Prayer will begin with a service, Sunday evening, October 27, followed by a meeting on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Bobbitt gave a report on the fall seminar held recently in Elm City with several ladies from this Church attending. Farmville will entertain the zone meeting to be held on October 31, with Mrs. E. R. Clegg, recently elected president, presiding.

Appointment of the following to serve on the flower committee for the month of November was made: Mrs. Bennett Fields, chairman; Mrs. Lynn Eason, Mrs. J. Frank Harper, Mrs. J. H. Harris and Mrs. R. D. Harris.

Mrs. Roebuck, who is secretary of Youth Fellowship, told of the remarkable work being carried on by this group. Mrs. A. C. Monk, Sr., Mrs. W. R. Willis and Mrs. Ben Lang were appointed as a nominating committee.

The leaflet topic, "Preparing Indian Leaders for the Postwar World," was presented by Mrs. Bennett Fields. The gathering was adjourned with prayer by Mrs. E. R. Clegg.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy extended us during the sickness and death of our sister, Mrs. J. H. Paylor and Mrs. K. E. Darling.
