
Gave The Address of The Evening

The Rev. E. W. Holmes offered the in its history. invocation after which a turkey dinmer with all the trimmings was served with places laid for a hundred bringing the season's total to 31,345, members, their ladies and other special guests. The tables were arrangsi6,597,703.39, at an official average ed in the form of a huge K and deco- of $53.02 per hundred. rated effectively through the center These figures do not include Tues with trailing ivy, fruits and yellow day's and Wednesday's sales. Comkins made a seasonal setting for the banquet table.

Charlie Hotchkiss, president of the club, acted also as toastmaster of the occasion and in his usual happy manner presented Frank Allen, who introdu ed Eli Bloom, president-elect of the Greenville Kiwanians, as entertainer of the evening.

Kiwanian Bloom directed the club's quartet composed of Hubert Joyner, Henry Johnson, Zeb Whitehurst and Grady Gilchrist, in female attire, who sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," with Frank Harris, baby member of the club, "Zoot suited, as the object of their affection. The entertainer, well known for his humor and showmanship, then made a talk, afterwards calling on Sam Bundy, immediate past governor, who continued to keep the assemblage "in stitches" throughout his discourse.

John Parker extended a cordial welcome to the guests on behalf of the members, to which Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver responded in her usual apt way. Dr. John M. Mewborn, president of the Rotary Club, Mrs. Mewborn, Mrs. J. R. Rountree, Miss Elvira Tyson, Mrs. Eli Bloom and Mrs. Frances Allen were presented as special guests.

Brinbing this part of the program to a delightful conclusion was a group of solo numbers by Miss Rosemary Holmes, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Joyner. Miss Holmes sang "Without a Song," "Stout Hearted Men," and "The World Is Waiting For The Sunrise."

The presentation to the ladies of compacts in pastel shades embossed with the Kiwani emblem was put in the hands of Kiwanians Zesely Cox Rent Representative and R. C. Copenhaver. The girls serving the dinner were also remembered with compacts, following committees, whose efforts were coordinated in making the affair success: reception-Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Lewis, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Petteway. Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Sam. D. Bundy: refreshment—Jack Lewis and Louis Williams; seating—R. C. Copenhaver, Rev. Zesely Cox and Bob Wheless; decoration-Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Barrett, Cotton Davis and Billy Smith; dance Bernice Thrnage, Lewis Allen and Dr. Frank Harris.

The evening's entertainment was concluded with a dance held at the Country Club.

Local Legionnaires Stop Snow Hill, 27-24

Tuesday evening the Farmville American Legion Basketball Team led by Bob Paylor and Ed Morton, scored a win over the Snow Hill Legion. In a fairly evenly matched Legion. In a fairly evenly matched contest Farmville held the lead in all but the third quarter, when Show Hill gained a one point margin. Becovering quickly, the locals finished the fourth quarter with a 3 point lead.

The Charlotte on December 9 and then join the National Cotton Council conference, also at Charlotte, on December 10," says Fred P. Johnson, executive secretary of the N. C. Ginners Association.

At the ginner's meeting Director D. W. Watkins of the South Carolina

Price was high searer for Snow
Hill with 6 points, closely followed by Hinson and Pate with 5 each.
Sowers, Tyndale and W. Pate turned in good games also.
For the winners Paylos was leading scorer with 13 points. Ed. Moston made 5 points and played an excellent floor game. Clifton Barfield,
Burman Joyner, Lester Turnege,

The Rev. J. R. Rountree The Farmville Market Closed Wednesday, 27

The Evening

(Sam D. Bundy, Supervisor)

The Farmville Tobacco Market

A gala social event of the week closed Wednesday, November 27, for was the Kiwanis Ladies' Night banthe 1946 season after passing its quet, held Friday evening in the goal of $1,000,000, and experiencing school dining room.

tapers. Ears of yellow and red corn, plete official figures as to pounds, cornstalks, autumn leaves and pump-dollars and average will be issued in next week's edition.

the program at the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening. He spoke of his travels while serving with the armed the featured speaker on a varied and forces, which included landing at interesting program. The Command-Casablanca, going to a ulace near Tunis, to Naples, Italy, to Vatican City, Nice, France, points in Switzerland, which he described as the most beautiful of all countries that he had seen. He also told of a trip to the beautiful Isle of Capri. In conclusion community to hear Commander Jack-Charlie stated that he had seen many son speak on this timely topic. parts of Europe but that the good old U. S. A. was the best. Charlie was discharged November, 1945, and said he was quite happy when that time came. President Johnnie Mewborn complimented Charlie on giving the club highly esteemed Greenville citize one of the best prepared talks that died Sunday at 4 p. m. at his home the members have heard.

Visitors were Tom Rivers, of Green ville, guest of W. A. McAdams; Mayor J. W. Joyner, guest of John Lewis before going to Greenville in 1929 to and visiting Rotarian, Jimmie Fuller, work for an insurance company. He scout executive of the Pitt-Greene was a member of the Farmville Chris-District.

During a brief business session the proposed increase in salaries for school teachers was discussed with many favorable comments made resulting in the club's going on record as favoring immediate action in this connection. The secretary was instruced to relay this information to as favoring immediate action in this

The speaker of the evening, the Rev. J. R. Rountree, Episcopal rector, rent control representative for Pitt a sister-in-law of the home, Elizabeth county, stated yesterday that a representative of his office will be at Joyner, Mrs. Ruth Teel and Harriett womankind.

President Charlie brought the banquet to a close by recognizing the following committees, whose efforts

the Chamber of Commerce office, Carr, all of Farmville, and Winnie Carr, of Wilson; and four brothers, to 4 for the purpose of accepting following committees, whose efforts to assist in preparing the forms. He Carr, of Raleigh will also accept registrations for hotels and rooming houses.

With the exception of commercia establishments, all rented dwellings must be registered.

Offering For Poor

Wilmington, Del.-Parishioners fashionable Christ Episcopal Church in suburban Christiana will bring live animals to the church grounds on Thanksgiving Day as an offering for

Cotton Industry To Meet At Charlotte

"North Carolina and South Caro na cotton sinners are going to at mpt to do something about this business of aiding cotton in its fight against synthetic fibers, when they

TYSONS-MAYS ARE HOLDING ANNUAL ASSEMBLY TODAY

ander P. Y. Jackson To Be nored Guest and Speak

Descendants of the Tyson and May Descendants of the Tyson and May families will assemble at the Chapter House of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at 10:00 o'clock this (Friday) morning for the annual reunion of this group, which despite difficulties of bravel, brought on by the late war, met without interruption in seand proved an invaluab those fighting on the home front.

The custom of carrying the spirit of Thanksgiving over into the next day will be continued again this year and those here from distant pla visiting their families will have the added opportunity of renewing ac-quaintances and enjoying the fellow-ship of an ever widening circle of

At The Rotary Club

Commander Perry Tstes Jackson, of Baltimore, Md., the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Jackson, of

James F. Carr

James P. Carr, 60, well known an after an extended Illness.

He was born in Greene County, but spent most of his life at Farmville tian Church and served as Sunday School superintendent for six years.

Pitt County's representatives in the Legislature.

Tuesday at 1 p. m., and lay in state age here until 3 p. m., when funeral services

Burial was in Forest Hill cemetery. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eula To Be Here Tuesday Barrett Carr; two sons, James Carr, Jr., of Tallahassee, Fla., and

High Honor Given Commissioner Scot

Raleigh, Nov. 27.-W. Kerr S North Carolina Commissioner of Agriculture since 1986, was elected president of the National Associa-tion of Commissioners, Secretaries, and Directors of Agriculture at the recent meeting of this group held in Scott succeeds Rufus M. Howard Nebraska Director of Agriculture. During the past nine years as a various sections of the nation.

At a meeting of the associate held in Miami, Fig., in 1938, S.

America Observes Thanksgiving Once Again In The Traditional Spirit

We give thanks today for the faith of our Pilgrim fathers, who thanks for their bountiful harvest in 1621, and for their belief that their world would be one of harmony and peace . . .

With that same spirit of thankfulness let us give thanks today and with that same hope, courage and determination strive for better relationship among men

A SONG OF THANKSGIVING

"Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness Each morning Thy mercies are new, Each evening returning with frechness, And gently as falleth the dew.

Thy mercies, how great and how tender, Thy bounty so full and so free; O help us, dear Lord, in our blindness Thy wonderful goodness to see.

Lord, help us in grateful devotion To serve Thee from day unto day, To walk in the paths of Thy choosing, Our pleasure Thy will to obey."

Planning Board Plans A Building Survey

The November meeting of the Community Planning Board, held Tuesday evening with Dr. J. M. Mew-born presiding, was taken up entirely by discussion of "Private Housing" and the Board in this connection re-quested that all citizens interested in building homes for themselves or After moving to Greenville he became a member of the Eighth Street
Christian Church and served faithfully as Sunday School superintendscription of house desired and help

Activities Of Local

. The Young People's Training Union of the Baptist church had a turkey dinner in the Church, Thursday eve ning. Red roses were used in dec rating and the table centerpiece, a bowl of fruit and nuts, emphasized the Thanksgiving season.

Miss Elvira Tyson was in charge of recreation. Mrs. George Davis is sponsor of the group and Mrs. J. W. Miller, leader. Guesta were Miss Myrtle Nichols, ev. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Harry avis and Bill Humphrey, of State

College, and Guy Fuquay. Christian

Mrs. Annabell Allen was hostess
for Group I, of the Woman's Council, Monday evening. Mrs. Flave Darden, group leader, led the devotional based

Mrs. Cliff Jones conducted the Hidden Answers program from the World Call

Cookies, candy, salted nuts and hot ffee were served in the social

eting of Group 3, Tu

Thanksgiving Day Was Holiday Here

Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, was cenerally observed here as a holiday. The town offices and post office, the bank and nearly all business places, including the Enterprise, were close Eating establishments were open. Special union Thanksgiving services were held in the Christian The schools closed Wednesday at noon for a holiday lasting through the week end.

MAIL EARLY!

Henry D. Johnson, postmaster the Farmville postoffice, requests local citizens to mail their Christmas Church Organizations parcels and cards early this season. amount of mail handled by the post-office in the last week before Christ-mas, stating it was impossible to sort all of it before Christmas Day.

Extra caution was urged in the addressing of cards and letters, stating that the use of nick-names or inadequate addresses sometimes prevented delivery, and that undeliverable Christmas cards were destroyed.

Final Rites For Dr.

Sanatorium, Nov. 26.—Final rites for Dr. Paul Pressly McCsin, superintendent of the North Carolina tubercular hospital, were held here this afternoon at 8 o'clock from the patients' dining room of the North Carolina Sanatorium.

The 62-year-old physician was killed instantly about 12 miles south of Raleigh about 9:30 a. m. yesterday while on his way to attend a meeting there of the executive committee of the State Medical Care Commission.

Dr. McCain, driving alone, apparantly follows and best president and secretary of the Carolina Citizens Association in leigh on Tuesday. The meeting there of the executive committee of the State Medical Care Commission.

Dr. McCain, driving alone, apparantly follows and Mark 1:35-41 for the devotional and in commentanty rolled off the shoulder of the highway and swerved into the path of a bus, Wake County Coroner Irving Check said.

Officiating ministers were the Rev. William B. Gaston of Montrose and Following a prayer by the Rev. Following a prayer by the Rev. In Regular Army No. Sanatorium, Nov. 26.-Final rites Officiating ministers were the Rev. Full and calm.

Villiam B. Gaston of Montrose and he Rev. Harry K. Holand of Rae-lord. Burial was in the old Bethesds was given by Mrs. L. P. Thomas and in the absence of Mrs. Ed Nash Warren, Mrs. Cherry Easley told of the Parent-Teacher magazine.

ON TERMINAL LEAVE

Jennis Perry Harver, Col. T5, of

Thanksgiving Message

Farm Loans Now Available To World War II Veterans

The Pitt County Veterans Service Officer announces that the Farm Security Administration and the Emergency Crop and Farm Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration were merged of November 1, and are now in position to make farm-ownership less that the pastor, the Rev. Z. B. T. Cox. who was away on a mission for the Church.

The Scripture, read by the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the pastor, the Rev. Z. B. T. Cox. who was away on a mission for the Church.

The Scripture, read by the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the pastor, the Rev. Z. B. T. Cox. who was away on a mission for the Church.

The Scripture, read by the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and had as its the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fifth chapter of 1st Thessalonians and the country of the Rev. E. S. Coates, Presbyterian minister, was taken from the fi were merged of November 1, and are now in position to make farm-ownership loans in sums up to $12,000, at $1\(\frac{1}{2}\) percent interest, ropayable over periods as long as 40 years. This type of loan may be used to buy, improve, or enlarge family type farms. Variable payments may be arranged, so that the borrower may make larger payments in good years and smaller payments in lean years.

Veterans of all wars who have other than dishonorable discharges, and "Thanksgiving — Our Pre-eminent who fulfill requirements as to industry, experience, and other assurances of success as farmers, are given spectrally of the fine art of giving up," and deested in buy g, enlarging, or improving a farm are requested to see the County Veterans Service Officer, Arthur B. Corey.

Attention All

Grant of the local U. S. Army Recruiting Station, that all former Army Officers who have not made application for one of the 50,000 Regular Army Commissions must send their formal application to headquarters, Seventh Army, Atlanta 3, Ga., before December 31, 1946 in order for their still sprinkled with blood? Commissions are still sprinkled with blood? It is announced by 1st Sgt. A. W. Seventh Army Atlanta 3, Ga., before December 31, 1946 in order for their application to be considered. Those who have made application and who were disqualified by physical or statutory ineligiblity, and who have new become eligible, may now reapply, observing the December 31 deadline. Those who have applied, and who have meeted notice that they are still qualified applicants, must sent in the supplementary information sheets, postmarked prior to November 80, 1946, to the same address. Complete information may cruiting Station located in the New City Hall Building, Greenville, N. C.

P. T. A.

A musical program featured the p. T. A. meeting, Thursday evening.

Miss Anne L. Jones, sixth grade teacher, directed her grade and Mrs.

J. A. Bynum's seventh grade in singing Lullaby by Brahams; Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, and Movie Dream, Mosart. Under the direction of Miss Rosemary Holmes the glee club ren-dered My Little Banjo, Largo and All

Orthopedic Clinic Greenville, Dec. 6

Sam D. Bundy led the service

Veterans of all wars who have other chose for the meditation subject, ial preference in the granting of clared that "the enriching virtue of farm-ownership loans." farm-ownership loans.

Loans will not be made unless the farm as purchased, enlarged, or improved constitutes an efficient family-type farm unit.

Veterans of all wars who are interlife is the one which goes out and "Freely ye have received, freely

Thanksgiving rests upon one great virtue, that of appreciation, and denounced selfishness and ingratitude as two of the meanest sins. The Former Officers speaker declared further in this connection that "We live in a world that is hungry in many ways, but above ly every day the need of God. Amerireal privilege, the Pre-eminent Privi-

An offering was taken for the Community Emergency Fund.

ATTEND ASSOCIATIONAL MEET

Lewis Allen and Sam D. Bundy

Veterans May Enlist In Regular Army Now

First Sergeant Arthur W. Grant, commander of the Greenville, N. C. army Recruiting Station, announced oday that effective immediately the