BUSH-NORWOOD

Miss Sallie Norwood of Henderson, assistant in the office of the dean of women at East Carolina Teachers college, was married on Saturday afternoon, July 12, in the First Baptist Church of Rocky Mount to James Clinton Bush of Rocky Mount. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Kinchloe and was attended by a small number of friends and relatives of the couple.

Mrs. Bush wore a costume of aquamarine crepe and a hat of natural straw and black taffeta. Her accessories were black, and her flowers were tallisman roses.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bush will return to Rocky Mount, where they will be at home at 261 Hill street.

Mrs. Bush is the daughter of Mrs. Eather Royster Norwood and the late Robert Alexander Norwood of Henderson. She is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers college and for the past five years has been assistant to the dean of women at the college. Before coming to Greenville, she taught for a number of years at Farmville.

Mr. Bush, a native of Georgia, has been engaged in business in Rocky Mount for several years. He attended high school in Cordele, Ga., and the Georgia-Alabama Business College in Macon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clifton Bush of Cordele.
