A motion was made and carried to give points for club magazine subscriptions.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. M. D. Brinson and Mrs. G. D. Hathaway, after adjournment.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's club will entertain members of the Junior Woman's, Literary, Garden and Merry Matrons clubs at a covered dish supper to-night at 7 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood with Miss Annie Perkins as joint hostess.

The program will be featured with an address about libraries by Miss Marjorie Beal of the State Library commission, Raleigh.

U. D. C.

An election in which officers who served in the 1946-47 year were re-elected featured the meeting of the Rebecca Withborne chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Friday afternoon. Officers are: Miss Annie Perkins, president; Mrs. W. M. Willis, vice president; Mrs. Fred Darden, secretary; Mrs. T. W. Lang, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Darden, historian.

Articles dealing with Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, and "Is It True What They Say About Dixie?" were discussed by Miss Perkins. Mrs. R. D. Rouse read a poem, "The Portrait on the Wall."

The state convention, scheduled to be held in Rocky Mount Tuesday and Wednesday, was called to the attention of members.

Mrs. Preston M. Murphrey, hostess, served a congealed salad, sandwiches, pickles and coffee to the chapter members and a guest, Mrs. L. E. Turnage. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

DANCE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Petteway and Dewey Fuquay were hosts to the Dance club Saturday evening and carried out the Halloween idea in decorations and refreshments.

An arrangement of corn stalks, surrounded by pumpkins, was used in the center of the lounge. Hanging from the ceiling were numbers of skeletons, cat and witch cutouts. The individual tables were covered with Hallows'en cloths and centered with jack o'lanterns, which, with the lanterns on the mantels and piano, furnished light. Pyranantha berries were also used on the mantles.

Forming the centerpiece for the refreshment table was a large pumpkin on which were stuck vienna sausages. Cheese straws, doughnuts, potato chips, pickles, cream cheese spread, ritz and pimento-cheese sandwiches on black and orange bread were placed on the table. Coca colas, carrot curls and nuts were passed.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Green and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Purdy of Clinton and Valdosta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clifton of Mount Olive.
