BOOST FARMVILLE EVERY DAY!

Farmville Enterprise

VOLUME THIRTY-EIGHT FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1947 NUMBER TWENTY-SIX

BOOST FARMVILLE EVERY DAY!

CEMETERY MAINTENANCE GETS ATTENTION TOWN COMMISSION

No matters of vital importance came before the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Farmville Monday night when the members met in regular monthly session to transact routine business.

George E. Creekmur and Dan H. Jones appeared before the Board and asked for assistance in obtaining signatures for a petition asking for sidewalks on streets near Church and Pitt streets on which several residences, a church and six houses now stand. The Board promised to do whatever help it could and requested that the town engineer and members of the street committee meet with the lots to ascertain what steps could be taken.

An ordinance regulating the parking of trucks was considered.

The Cemetery committee was instructed to investigate the advisability of the town's assuming the maintenance and operation of municipally owned cemeteries, whether in the eastern North Carolina and determine what means were taken to provide funds for the maintenance and care of the burial plots. Recommendations will be made at the next meeting of the Board.

The street committee was instructed to investigate the possibility and advisability of installing several additional traffic lights in the town.

It was recommended that the intersection of Main and Wilson streets was one of the most dangerous in the town.

On a motion by C. H. Haskins and unanimously carried, Mayor Joyner was asked to contact the county health department and ask for assistance in putting on a rat extermination campaign at an early date.

A letter concerning a clash of opinion between the Chief of Police and the sponsorship of the Institute of Government was read before the Board, upon recommendation of Chief Lucas, it was agreed that no member of the force could be spared at present and no one from Farmville will attend the course. The Board decided, that as no one will be sent to the course held at the Spring and summer some of this experience when he spoke to the Kiwanis Club Monday night.

The Board voted to reimburse Chief Lucas $25.00 for cash bonds to help from the police office between the time the bonds were posted and Sunday night and the time he was called for court.

Children's Book Week —The Story of a Good Crusade

Next week, Nov. 9-15, will mark the 28th observance of Children's Book Week in the United States. Launched by the Boy Scouts of America in 1919, it was founded to put good books in the hands of American children, the campaign is now sponsored by 229 additional national groups in the education and civic welfare field.

The influence of the Book Week campaign has a cultural crusade has been tremendous. It has spread across the nation, fostering the growth of personal libraries for children and of publishing industry which is unparalleled in any other country. American children's books have already produced the best ever published before. This year 222 titles are listed as suitable for the various age groups.

A parade on Saturday, Nov. 22 will be the finale to the Book Week celebration here.

A Tribute To Kiwanis Club

Everett Blake, W. Wilson Boles, Scout executive of the Coastal Plains Area Council, and Lois Williams, 4-H Club member who represented Pitt County in the National 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C. in July, attended the Kiwanis Club meeting Monday night at which time Blake paid a tribute to the Kiwanis Club for its support of Scouting and 4-H Club work.

Blake, who spoke with the purpose of securing a sponsor for a Scout troop, told the Kiwanians that the Scouting program is available to any boy who is interested and that the Kiwanis Club could render a great service to the community by sponsoring a troop.

Lois Williams, a member of the Ayden 4-H Club, told of her trip to Washington and of the many interesting things she saw and did while there.

Ernest Pettyway, Farmville Scout, was a guest of the club.

Dr. D. M. Melchor To Talk To Junior Woman's Club

The Junior speaker at the Junior Woman's Club meeting Tuesday night will be Dr. J. M. Melchor, who teaches history at Atlantic Christian College. Dr. Melchor will discuss "Communism." Mrs. Frank Williams is program chairman for the evening.

A report on the campaign to raise funds for the Community Chest was given by the chairman of the campaign committee. Mrs. J. R. Holliday reported that the club had reached 92.5% of its goal. The club voted to sponsor a monthly fall and spring run-a-way sales.

Mrs. T. T. Nolen made the Girl Scout report and asked for volunteers to help the Scouts in selling Dec. 6 to 20 on the Fleetwood train.

The president, Mrs. W. W. Cafinger, announced the coming by reading the election returns.

Fall days, pumpkins and chrysanthemums were used decorations in the home of Mrs. Ernest Cox when she was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge Club. Mrs. Roscoe B. Whichard won the prize for high score. The guest was Mrs. Ernest Clegg.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL NEWS

Basketball practice was held by members of the girls' team on Tuesday afternoon. During the practice the [illegible] out plans for participating in the Book Week parade.

Marie Forlaw, [illegible] Mary Margaret Gardner, [illegible] at the [illegible] opened [illegible] and [illegible] Book Week parade.

Figures [illegible] hymn [illegible] ments.

Group [illegible]

Band Selected To Play At Pirate Game

[illegible] Farmville [illegible] Pirates [illegible] Nov. 22 [illegible] Pirates [illegible] Nov. 22 [illegible] Pirates [illegible] Nov. 22