IN FARMVILLE

******

Interesting News Items JAYCEES PUT NEW MARKERS From Ballard's

On the Wednesday evening preceding Christmas, a program on the birth of Christ was given in the Ballards Presbyterian church with Mr. J. C. Corbett taking the reader's part and the choir singing Christmas carols between the reading. Following the program there was a Christmas tree and fruit and candies were ser-

On Thursday evening, Dec. 23, the Youth Fellowship group enjoyed a weiner roast at the church and then all of them went riding on a truck, singing Christmas carols in the com-

On Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 22 at 4 o'clock in a private ceremony at the home of Rev. W. B. Nobles in Winterville, Miss Marianna Holloway and Roy Smith were married. Rev. Nobles performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mrs Mamie R. Holloway and the late Frank Holloway. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Ayden and is now serving in the U.

The following young people, college students, spent the holidays at their homes in this community: Edwin Tyson, Duke university; Ann and Jean Crawford, Louisburg college; Betty Joyner, Raleigh School of Commerce; Margaret Hemby, A. C. C., Wilson; John Flanagan, State college; B. F. Strickland, Wake Forest; Alvin McArthur, E. C. T. C., and Jessie Tyson, Berien Springs, Michi-

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jones of Danville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowen of Plymouth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones during the Miss Marjorie Flanagan has returned to San Francisco after spending several weeks with her mother. Mrs. Annie Flanagan.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Stokes Washington were week end guests of Mrs. Mamie R. Holloway.

Turnley Rawls of the U. S .Army. who has been in Germany for several years, is visiting friends and relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pleasants of Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Roebuck of Christmas trees. Robersonville and Miss Frances Jones of the James-Walker hospital in ing was decorated throughout with Mrs. C. L. Jones Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gillette have lighted Christmas tree. returned to Richmond after a visit to Mrs. Annie Flanagan.

returned to her position in Charlotte college; Edwin Tyson, Duke student, after spending the holidays with Mr. and A. C. Turnage, Jr., of State coland Mrs. G. S. Nichols.

ville, Mrs. Leon Joyner of Winter- their families and invited guests at ville, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gur- the Chrsitmas party than at any simganus of Farmville were guests of ilar meeting of the club. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ross Christmas. The Christmas spirit seemed to Black Creek, spent the holidays at an evening of fun and entertainment. this week with his sister, Mrs. Geo. her home. er home.

Miss Thelma Flansgan of Cam-

Mrs. E. M. Tyson, Sr.

ON FARMVILLE STREETS

New, neat street markers have been placed at the intersection of Farmville streets by the Junior Chamber tion a year ago has participated in everal worthwhile projects.

The new markers are the first ed several years ago.

Citizens of the town are indebted to the Jaycees for the improvements.

spending several weeks with Mrs. Jones' parents in Meridian, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. Noah L. Edwards of Greenville and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Evans were guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Ray Crawford Christmas day. Miss Louise Tyson and Miss Juan ita Sugg visited relatives at Lucama and Stantonsburg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bateman spent the holidays with Mr. Bateman's sister. Mrs. Grayson, in Savannah, Ga. On Monday evening, Dec. 20, about 100 people were present for the annual Christmas party of the Ballards Home Demonstration club which was held in the new club house at Langs

Mrs. L. R. Jones greeted the guests at the door and after the arrival of everyone Mrs. G. S. Nichols, president of the club, said a few words of welcome and invited them to join in the singing of Christmas songs.

Mrs. B. L. Tyson then took charge of the recreational program and all square dance. Mr. Tyson called the figures for the dance .

At the close of the recreational period, the guests were asked to form a line so refreshments could be party sandwiches, home made candies, nuts and red and green Christmas cookies cut in the shape of

The main auditorium of the build-Wilmington were guests of Mr. and Christmas greenery, red and white candles, and in a corner was a lovely

Outof-community guests were Mrs. Fred Langford, home agent, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones were Ruel Tyson and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Erwin Tyson, all of Greenville; Miss Laura Williamson of Wilson, Miss Ann Miss Mary Elizabeth Nichols has Turnage, student at Flora Macdonald Flanagan of Farmville now serves as

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ross of Green- There were more club members,

Miss Edith Tyson, who teaches at prevail and everyone seemed to have Hostesses for the occasion were M. Allen. Mesdames J. D. Jones, A. J. Garris, bridge, Mass., is visiting her sister, Lloyd Allen, James Moore, L. R. Williams and E. W. Mills helped in

At The Rotary Club

For its first meeting of the New Year, local Rotarians and guests en joyed a visit to and from New Orleans and attended the Sugar Bowl of Commerce which, since its forma- football game between Carolina and Oklahoma through the eyes of John B. Lewis, who with his son, Jack, to Lath Morriss and Elbert Moye made e installed on Farmville streets the trip by auto. Places of interes since mail delivery service was start, were enjoyed on the central route going as well as over the extreme Southern route on returning. Of course, everybody enjoyed the game, Guests of the club were J. Thorne, Washington, D. C., and Wilton Wilkerson, the new manager of Pecan Grov Dairy.

PEACE IS DISCUSSED AT LITERARY CLUB

Three characteristics of a lasting seace—it is in the making and unity, it is in religious education and it is in the advance in a social way that all races have to live together-were named by Rev. Z. B. T. Cox. guest speaker, at the Literary club Wednesday afternoon. He emphasized that it takes strong character to live during times of peace, stronger than it does in war times. Peace grows out of Christian character and the world cannot have lasting peace without lasting character, he told the Acting as program leader, Mrs. E. W. Holmes introduced the speaker. During the regular business ses sion, the president, Miss Mamie Daywho know Mrs. Tyson realize that is, brought New Year's greetings and when she is present there are no dull Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, seal sale noments. She directed simple games, chairman, stated that $536 had been after which followed the grand march sent to headquarters by purchasers of which culminated with the guests the tubercular seals. Miss DeViscondancing the Virginia Reel and a ti reported on what different towns are doing for young people as dis- thur Gay. cussed in the "North Carolina Club-by her twin daughters, Misses Louise served. Mrs. L. R. Jones served and Virginia Harris, served block punch from a beautifully appointed strawberry and vanilla ice cream table. Other refreshments were and decorated pineapple cakes. Poinserved buffet style and consisted of settias, lvy and carnations made a setting for the meeting.

Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Lloyd Smith and Mrs. E.

FIREMEN MEET TUESDAY NIGHT IN BEAUFORT

regular quarterly meeting and for

The Eastern Carolina Association is the largest in the state. Curtis its president. One of the items to be discussed is the proposed legislation which will provide fire protection to those residents outside the bounds of an incorporated town.

Lt. and Mrs. Jesse Beasley of Patuxent River, Md., spent a few days afternoon at 2:30.

WALSTONBURG ... NEWS ....

Mrs. C. T. Hicks and Mrs. R.

Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Bennett

Ramona Rouse, Margaret Fields and Frances Dixon back to Greensboro College after spending the holidays at their respective homes here. Mrs. Mattie Gay of Dunn is spending some time here with her brother.

Major Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gay have turned from their wedding trip and at present are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jones.

was the decision of Group 1 of the Christian church at its meeting Monday before Christmas with Mrs. Ar- the playing of bells by Miss Carolyni

After the Lord's prayer, a resun of the last six months' work was Mrs. J. H. Harris, hostess, assisted made by Mrs. R. G. Fields, leader. Miss Lillian Corbett was devotional leader. The group sang "More Love to Thee" and "Silent Night."

> CUB SCOUT PACK WILL BE FORMED

> Did your boy ever say, "Gee, why, mother, I wish I were old enough to > join the Boy Scouts!" Here is his chance. The Farmville ers of the Christian church.

must attend two meetings in order the college livestock judging team to get the pack organized. The first which participated in contests at the meeting of parents will be held at the National Livestock Show, Timonium. Christian church, Thursday evening, Maryland, and at the International January 13, at 8 o'clock.

All parents of prospective cub who are to have fun in Scouting.

Mrs. Travis Hooker, Mrs. Vance Perkins and Miss Eunice McGee will Jones and G. S. Nichols. Mesdames decorating the building and assisted entertain the Major Benjomin May chapter, Daughter of American Revolution, at Mrs. Hooker's home, 419 Greene county 4-H club pig chain W. Fifth street, Greenville, Saturday

It pleases us mightily when Inand the sacraments were taken by the entire group exactly at midnight. service was patterned after Watch-

It is interesting to note that this night Service held in Cleveland, Ohio. December 31, 1947, in which mor than 10,000 Methodist youth parti-

To join with the other churches in Churches represented at the meet-the community for the mission study ing were Walstonburg, Wesley Community and Farmville.

The New Year was ushered

J. W. WILKERSON NOW MANAGER OF LOCAL DAIRY

J. Wilton Wilkerson of Rock Ridge has accepted a position as manager of the Pecan Grove dairy and farms of the John T. Thorne estate.

Mr. Wilkerson received his degree at State, he was a member of Mu Beta Christian church will sponsor a cub Psi, national honorary music frater-Members of the Eastern Carolina pack, which is the program designed nity, and Alpha Zeta, national hono-iremen's Association will meet next by the Boy Scouts of America for Firemen's Association will meet next boys 9, 10 and 11 years old. Mem
Tueday night in Beaufort for their bership in the pack is not limited to secretary and president of the State

State of America 107

Ous times he served as treasurer, handle the contest, and arrangements were made to start the series of pro
Bethel; Tuesday, Jan. 25, Grifton, were made to start the series of pro Bethel; Tuesday, Jan. 27, Snow Hill; College Methodist Student Group. In Before a boy can join, his parents the fall of 1947 he was a member of Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

Since September, Mr. Wilkerson scouts are urged to attend so that has served as teacher of agriculture their sons may be among the boys at the BelvoirFalkland high school. He assumed his new duties January

MEETS IN GREENVILLESHERMAN CROOM GAINS

Herman Croom of the Maury ju for club has gained valuable experi ence by his participation in Herman was given a young gilt through the chain and has done an excellent job of growing it. He has dinner guests Wednesday evening: fed a balanced ration consisting of com, 40% protein supplement, planted in two foot rows. He also Robert Rollins returned home Mon-bas, with the help of his father, day from Duke hospital where he un-ruined South Edgecombe's hope built an "A" type farrowing pen.

Herman has learned that for profitable hog production, sanitary conditions, belanced diet, and good care an operation on a knee that a victory. The halftime football. He is improving.

The girls have defeate
Saratoga, Chicod, and So must be provided.

Two other club members will be selected to receive a gilt pig from Herman's first litter, which he ex-

HEALTH LEADERS CONFER

were held. Those participating in the worship program were Aaron Tyson, Bob Morgan, Donald Baucom, many of the seal sale letters were John R. Joyner, and Misses Mary overlooked in the holiday rush. Frances Oakley and Jean Flora. The Holy Communion was administered by Rev. Davis and Rev. Key Taylor, and the sacraments were taken by season." Contributions should be mailed to Mrs. Moye in Greenville.

BEING HELD BY WILSON RADIO STATION

The first really big radio talent those with radio talent to perform, champions.

and all entries will be judged by the general public, as voting will be done by mail entirely.

Winners will receive handson pri s totaling $1,000 in cash, and the possibility of landing a radio

The idea of conducting such a contest was instigated by several outstanding firms in Eastern North Walston, 2; D. Whitley, 5; C. Webb Carolina, who felt that a great deal H. Webb, 8; Anderson, 2; Stancil, had the highest scholastic average of These people also felt that much of Total—23. any individual graduating in the De- These people also felt that much of partment of Animal Industry. While this talent, given an opportunity, would develop into something truly worthwhile for many individuals, and Friday, Jan. 7, Grimesland, there; bring happiness to all concerned. Ra- Tuesday, Jan. 17, Belvoir; Friday, dio Station WGTM was selected to Jan. 14, Walstonburg, there; Tuesday, handle the contest, and arrangements Jan. 18, Ayden; Friday, Jan. 21, Saturdays at 3:30 p. m.

test are: J. A. Tharrington & Sons, Feb. 25, Ayden, there. Rocky Mount; Southern Cotton Oil Companies of Wilson, Fayetteville, Farmville girls were defeated in the Rocky Mount, Weldon, Tarboro, Hert- semi-finals by Deep Run; 19-18. The ford, Selma and Goldsboro; Wilson girls last year won the Pitt county Hatchery, Wilson; Waldensian-Pitt tournament.
Baking Company of Greenville, and The boys. the Garner Gas & Equipment Company of Farmville.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Dixon had as Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wainwright and of the state.

Herman has not only done a good from Kinston where she spent sevjob of feeding, but has made plans eral days with her sister, Mrs. John job of feeding, but has made plans eral days with her sister, Mrs. John H. Calloway, who is seriously ill in a crip. The visitors matched this for the future. He realizes the ne- H. Calloway, who is seriously ill in a crip. The visitors ma

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE

A fire of undetermined origin at the home of Red Dupree, corner of pects this month. In this way, club members are enabled to start with good stock and have a chance to do excellent swine project work.

George and Perry streets, on the night of Dec. 24 completely destroyed the residence and badly damaged nearby houses.

Pastor's Wife Most Surprised Of All As Car Given Rev. Cox came back to Farmville and transferred his membership from the

On call 24 hours a day, pastors

Two days before Christmas, a new are bound to have an automobile that will "get up and get" whenever the good parson gives it the go sign.

Rev. Z. B. T. Cox, the popular pastors and ear-marked for one of the good parson gives it the go sign.

Rev. Z. B. T. Cox, the popular pastors and ear-marked for one of the good parson gives it the go sign.

Rev. Z. B. T. Cox, the popular pastors are bound to have an automobile that will members who had been waiting. He offered to exchange places on the list with the preacher, and he and other members decided to B. Roberts and brother of Kiwanian tor of Farmville Christian church, has been handicapped for several months by a jalopy that had seen its best days and was definitely on the down grade.

Cars being as scare as they are, the preacher had been mable to get a new one and was biding his time until his name stood at the top of the dealer's list.

His constituents, however, decided to and the members decided to have would have spent for individual gifts and buy the car for the preacher. The deal was consummated. The preacher was informed of what was being done, but the whole thing was kept from Mrs. Cox. So you can imagine her surprise and delight when she walked cart of the house late Christmas Eve to go visiting with the preacher and will account the work of Greensboro will account the work of the wo ents, however, decided to go visiting with the preacher and will spend the week and will spend the wee

R. Joyner and Miss Jane Fields.

A discussion period followed with Misses Ruby Burch, Miss Virginia Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Gardner and James Albert Gay were the dimer guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Craft, Jr.

Mrs. C. T. Hicks was a Raleigh visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. H. A. Liverman visited friends in Plymouth last Thursday.

Mrs. W. E. Lang visited relatives in Fountain last week end.

Mrs. Myrtle Beamsan of Kinston was in town Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. D. S. Dixon went to Greensboro Sunday to take Misses

R. Joyner and Miss Jane Fields.

A discussion period followed with Misses Dars Mas Barrett, Margaret Fields and Aaron Tyson and Graham Davis leading the discussion on "Aspects of College Life." Rev. H. L. L. Davis, Mrs. Rmily Walston and Miss Evelyn Visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Lang visited relatives in Fountain last week end.

Mrs. Myrtle Beamsan of Kinston was in town Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. S. Dixon went to Greensboro Sunday to take Misses

Mrs. Bob Barry Sunday.

A discussion period followed with Misses Dars Mas Barrett, Margaret Fields and Aaron Tyson and Graham Davis leading the discussion on "Aspects of College Life." Rev. H. L. L. Davis, Mrs. Emily Walston and Miss Evelyn Field led the discussion on "Choosing a Career." Miss Evelyn Field led the discussion on "Beginning is to discuss the possibilities of hewing a mass x-ray survey made of titlens, in the county.

The Farmville high Maistonburg for the Pitt County Health department on Thursday, January 13, at 10 boating is to discuss the possibilities of hewing a mass x-ray survey made of titlens, in the county.

The more than $5,000 which has been collected from the 1946 seal sale will be used to finance the mass x-ray as well as in aiding those who have the disease. Farmville has rais-need to five victories and only one defeat, extended their string is to discuss the possibilities of hewing a mass x-ray survey made of titlens, in the county.

The more than $5,000 which has been collected from the 1946 seal s throw gave the visitors three points, and that's as close as they came t overtaking the winners.

It was at this point that Farmville broke away and was never headed, adding eight more points before the

Although there was less scoring in the second half, Farmville kept its lead as Coach Elbert Moye cleaned the bench, giving all his squad a chance to play.

Farmville has won six games this season. Those teams defeated are contest in a number of years is Bell Arthur, Chicod, Snow Hill, getting under way this week over Maury, Walstonburg and South WGTM, Wilson. The 13-weeks con- Edgecombe. The locals have lost only test will offer an opportunity to all to Bethel, defending Pitt county

The line-ups: Farmville-Carl King, 12; Marvin Tugwell; Billy Russell, 1; Wilbert Morriss, 2; Carson Windham; Albert Cannon, 2; Frank Dupree; Harry Albritton, 17; Johnny Barrett; Claude Tyson, 2. Total 36.

South Edgecombe - F. Jones, 2;

The schedule for the remainder of the season follows: talent contest are asked to contact there; Tuesday, Feb. 1, Winterville the station. They will be given an there; Friday, Feb. 4, Walstonburg; audtion, and if proven successful, Tuesday, Feb. 8, Grimesland; Friday, will be scheduled on one of the talent Feb. 11, Winterville; Tuesday, Feb. programs heard Mondays through 15, Stokes; Wednesday, Feb. 16, Snow Hill, there; Friday, Feb. 18, Grifton; The sponsoring firms of the con- Tuesday, Feb. 22, Arthur; Friday,

In the Walstenburg tourn

The boys, in the Walstonburg tourney, copped the crown by defeating Saratoga, Snow Hill and Walston

FARMVILLE GIRLS HAND SOUTH EDGECOMBE 27-14 LOSS

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wainwright and Edgecombe, 27-14, Tuesday night. It corn, 40% protein supplement, and Mr. and Mrs. was the fourth win against one set-mineral. He now has one of the sons of Winterville and Mr. and Mrs. was the fourth win against one set-back in regular scheduled play. mineral. He now has one of the Johnnie Murphy.

nicest gilts to be found in this section Mrs. C. C. Joyner has returned Coach Dunn's defending Pitt county for the future. He realises the nefl. Calloway, who is the future. He realises the necessity of keeping his stock free of the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and ing on clean ground this fall and son spent the holidays in Orlando, ing on clean ground this fall and son spent the holidays in Orlando, plans to provide summer supplementary plants to provide s

> The girls have defeated Bethe Saratoga, Chicod, and South Edgecombe, losing only to Deep Run in the Walstonburg Invitational tourna-

Scoring for Farmville: D. Hathaway, 4; R. Hathaway, 14; J. Morgan 8; N. Moore, 1.

Scoring for South Edgecombe: Lilley, 2; Phillips, 10; Webb, 2.

At The Kiwanis Club

On call 24 hours a day, pastors Two days before Christmas, a new Greenville Kiwanis club to Farmvile,

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones are J. R. Gowan, H. D. Moye, Dalton with the refreshments. New Triplet Granddaughters Enough To Lure Mrs. Wheless On Long Florida Trip formation, Please, stumbles over something that we knew all along.

Happily married for 40 years, Mrs. J. M. Wheless of Farmville has reached the point in life when she is perfectly content to enjoy the comforts of her home while others take long trips and make extended visits such as trips to Florida.

But the opportunity to see her triplet granddaughters in Jackson ville, Fla., proved too strong for Mrs. Wheless to turn down, and last Friday she left for the Florida city to visit her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Ed wards, and to see, for the first time the three daughters born to Mrs. Edwards in November. Making the trip with Mrs. Wheless who spent Christmas here and were returning to their home in Jackson-The babies remained in the hospital for several weeks after their birth. or until they reached five pounds. Two of the little girls were taken to their home during Christmas week were Mary Jo and Gilbert Edwards and the third was kept in the hospital until Wednesday of last week. Records show that triplets occu nce in seven or eight thousand hirths. The Edwards girls are the fourth set born at St. Vincent's hos-born less than an hour after Mrs. hed three pounds, 11 ounces. The second was born two minutes later, weighing four pounds and eight ounces, and the third, which weighed nds, was born three

These pictures of the Edwards triplets and their mother were made shortly after the birth of the Photos courtesy Jacksonville Postthree little girls in a Jacksonville hospital.