National, State VFW Officials At District Meeting were hosts Sunday afternoon to the quarterly meeting of the Second Dis-

partment inspector, Joe V. Gallon of vived, in 1932. Winston-Salem, assistant state de-partment service officer and buddy and loved throughout many communi-being and loved throughout many communi-Bobby Smith, Bobby Brock, Clarence of Greenville, Second District commander; Glenn M. Hayes of Kinston, 2nd District senior vice commander; Mount, Mrs. Ollie Wood of Pink Hill, Mrs. R. R. Harris of Clinton, Mrs. Johnny Barrett, Harry Albritton, Bil-District deputy chief of staff; Roy George Malcolm of New York, Mrs. ly Russell, Claude Tyson, Zeb White-Wooten of Kinston, 2nd District inspector; Jules C. Tatka of Elizabeth Mrs. C. L. Braxton of Grifton, Mrs. William R. Pollard, James Thorne, City, 1st District deputy chief of M. J. McLeod, B. F. and Dan Single-City, 1st District Americanism chair- of Newport News, Va., J. W. Single- wan; E. P. Hyman of Roanoke Ran- ton of Fountain and Richard A Williams, Jackie Williford and A. J. man: E. P. Hyman of Roanoke Rapids, representing the 3rd District; Al Thomas of Beaufort, past state Cootie commander: Vincent Schaaf of children, 13 great-grandchildren and Pittsburgh, Pa., national Cootie adju-eight step-children. tant: W. L. Godwin of Richmond, Va. Virginia Cootie commander; R. E. COMMUNITY SING AT Will of Portsmouth, Va., Va. state aide de camp of the Cooties; S. W. Oliver and C. A. Hess of Portsmouth, Va., past national hospital chairman of the Cooties: Mrs. Bessie Hyman of Gaston, state auxiliary president; Mrs. Audrey Boone of Midway Park, state treasurer; Mrs. Carrie West of Greenville, 2nd District president; Mrs. Elizabeth Mattox of - Kinston, 2nd District senior vice president and N. C. Cootiette Number One; Mrs.

ing the 4th District auxiliary. At the end of the introduction by Averette and several short talks by distinguished guests, the auxiliary disbanded and reconvened in the town hall. The VFW remained at the club house for their meeting. Commander Marvin G. Hinson the host post welcomed the guests and man. delegates. State Commander Humphries told the members of the pur- GREENVILLE CHOIR TO founded by comradeship and service by men who have served overseas and fought to protect the American way of life.

Humphries also declared that another type of service is to the community and emphasized that no selfish organization can long survive.

Gallon gave an interesting talk on the work of the Veterans Administration and the work of VFW with the VA. He emphasized that the service record of every veteran should be

Mr. Tatka introduced Wesley Cullipher, who in addition to being Americanism chairman of the 1st district is a member of the National Paraplegic Foundation.

S. Cole Ogburn outlined the duties of the state and district inspectors and asked that post quartermasters cooperate with them. Schaaf in a brief talk, claimed that Pennsylvania is the best VFW state in the nation but added that North Carolina is pushing his state for the Mrs. West presided at the auxiliary peting. Mrs. Hyman held a school ruction for all members present. All members were instructed or the correct procedure in doing the floor work and ceremonial work of

Mrs. Hyman leaves Farmville with host of well wishers, Mrs. Boone, state auxiliary treer, instructed all of the ladies handling of funds and books. Mrs. Mattox and Mrs. Mashbu talled in their district offic

Mrs. Hyman. Mrs. George M. Allen is presi of the local ladies' auxiliary, ho

of Pink Hill and Mount Oliv

endar of Our bors' Events lay, Nov. 25

Mt. Herman WSCS a

Mrs. J. E. Garris Died Last Night At Her Home: Services Thurs

Mrs. J. E. Garris died Tuesday a

The Burnette Rouse post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the auxiliary were hosts Sunday afternoon to the trict.

Among the state and national officers attending were: William S. Humphries of Raleigh, state commander; Earl D. Knauff of Jackson
Mrs. Garris, 67, was born in Lenoir County and is survived by 12 children present, Harry Zrakas, Malphus Bradbury and John Moore, who made a short, interesting talk on inside functions of a Key club.

W. A. Harris of Griffon and the third ville, state junior vice commander; W. A. Harris of Grifton and the third

F. Cole Ogburn of Canton, state de- to J. E. Garris, by whom she is sur-Mrs. Garris was prominently known poppy chairman; Larry L. Averette ties in Pitt and Lenoir counties. District deputy chief of staff; Roy George Malcolm of New York, Mrs. staff; Wesley Cullipher of Elizabeth ton of Greenville, Mrs. V. L. Edwards

> Singleton of Seattle, Wash. She is also survived by 38

PTA NEXT THURSDAY

The Parent-Teacher program for next Thursday night, December 1. will feature a community sing to which the public is invited. Mrs. J. W. Miller will preside at

C. B. Mashburn, Jr., of Farmville, 2nd District junior vice president ence in singing four favorite Christ- ners. and Mrs. Earl D. Knauff, representmas carols, a solo by Mrs. Bernice by a male quartet and "O Holy Mrs. Dan H. Jones, Night" by Patsy Roberts.

Immediately following the program by Dr. Karl Gilbert, will sing in the Farmville Methodist church on Sunday, Dec. 4. The choir, organized two years ago, has made remarkable pro-

The hour for the program will be announced next week.

BAPTIST SERVICES

"No Greater Power," a motion picture, will be shown at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev E. W. Holmes will preach on "Denominational Loyalty" at the morning

Farmville And Scotland Neck End Season Here

Farmville and Scotland Neck high school football teams are meeting in the local park on Wednesday night of this week in what promises to be a night with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Monight with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Monight with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. close contest. It is the final game of zingo. Mrs. C. A. Mozingo and chilthe season for both squads.

Farmville has won five games and Md., where they will visit relatives lost three, the most recent victory be-ing a 32-0 win over Wakelon high Mr. and Mrs. Alton school last Friday night.

Farmville is seeking revenge year at the hands of the Scotland

The game has been designated

Union Thanksgiving Service Thursday A. M.

st minister, will deliver a talk

At The Kiwanis Club

man at the Kiwanis meeting Mono principal of the Charles L. Coon hig school in Wilson and a member of th the procedure for founding a Key clu formed in the state and has made fine

The following local high school boys, prospective members of a Ke club here, were present: Bobbie Ful Joyner, Roy Flora, Carl King, Jack Everette Roebuck, Geo. Wooten. Jul-

The Farmville club will take par in Stantonsburp Follies on Dec. 2. It was announced Monday night that the Follies would be given Nov. 25, but this was in error.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Richard Tugwell is improving from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jones had Included on the program will be a Judge William Hatch of Raleigh, who prayer by Rev. Z. B. T. Cox, selectis holding court in Greenville this tions by a group of primary pupils week, and Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Foununder the direction of Miss Alma tain of Falkland. Mr. Jones and Whitley, who will also lead the audi- Judge Hatch were formerly law part- given by Miss Mamie Davis, with

Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges and Turnage, "Silent Night" Geneva family of Chapel Hill will spend Braxton, a sixth grade pupil, a song Thanksgiving with Mr. Hodges' sister,

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson and refreshments will be served in the Columbia, S. C., with Mrs. Johnson's program of directed singing and the lounge by the hospitality committee mother, Mrs. Lelia Sanders. Miss of which Miss Ruth Parker is chair- Mamie Davis accompanied them and is visiting Mrs. Robert Cookrell.

children and Mr. and Mrs. James Creech of La Grange, Rev. Key Taylor of Walstonburg and Miss Edna Boone were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Joyner. ,

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Joyner of Hen derson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mewborn of Griften and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Joyner Thanks-

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Bobbitt attended the funeral of Mr. Bobbitt's uncle, for Fletcher Bobbitt, in Macon Tuesda Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss son of Elizabeth City will spe Tahnksgiving day with Mrs. Coring Stilley, Mrs. Hotchkiss' mother.

Friends will be glad to know tha Mrs. R. D. Rouse, Sr., has returned from Duke hospital, where she under nt an operation, and is im-iren will spend Thanksgiving day Dudley with Mr. Smith's mother, Mr.

The list of cash prizes to be awardparade on Saturday, Dec. 3, has been lengthened to include a $5.00 prize for the best individual entry by success of the celebration. A parade at 10:80 will be one of the high-lights. Santa Claus will be on hand, giving favors to youngsters. Both the Farmville white and colored high is being done toward developing oil is being done toward developing

Church Organizations

The Ernest circle met in the home

A report on the successful collec tion of World Alliance packages was made and the chairman announced the meeting which begins at 7:30. | their dinner guests Tuesday night that the December meeting would be held in the church with the Truett circle.

> The program, a missionary mess age, "Carist Is the Answer," Mrs. George W. Davis closing with prayer.

Mrs. Johnson, president of the Woman's Missionary society, presented plans for the White Christmas Community service to be held Decembe daughter are spending the holidays in 11 at the Christian church with a presentation of gifts for the needy. After adjournment, the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. A. McAdams and Miss Gertrude Bundy, student nurse Henriperle Johnson, served coconut at Carolina General hospital, Wilson, cal a and London mist.

guests Mr. and Mrs. M, L. Eason, Jr., for Peace" bundle and announced that Mrs. Paul Craft was guests Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Eason, Jr., for Peace" bundle and announced that and son and Mrs. Eason's parents, Mrs. Bergeron has been chosen to Christian Woman's Missionary Society Monday afternoon. In the abliamston.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Pate and Community White Christmas service. Mrs. W. F. Easley opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. J. C. Corbett had the closing prayer. Corbett had the closing prayer.

TOBACCONISTS LEAVE FOR BURLEY MARKETS cream and cake.

opens immediately after Thanksgiv-night. Corbett, Richmond, Ky., and James honor of Miss Betsy Fountain.

Earl Corbett, Greeneville, Tenn., R.

J. Reynolds; R. S. Scott, Louisville, Mrs. Neta Shackelford is improved. Ky., Scott and Bright; H. N. Howard, sufficiently to be home again. zingo. Mrs. C. A. Mozingo and chil-dren left Sunday for Hagerstown, len, Lexington, Ky.; H. H. Bradham, daughter, Mildred Ann, are plant N. Howard, Jr., Springfield, Tenn., lina.

Farmville Leaf Tobacco company.

R. E. Pickett, who will represent the Redick left Tuesday for Green. For R. J. Reynolds company on the Returning home with them Wed Shelbyville, Ky., market, left two day for the holidays were their day eeks ago to visit his mother, who is ters, Joyce and Jean, students I, in Norwood, Ohio.

Employees of the A. C. Monk comany have been assigned to the following places:

W. C. Monk, R. V. Fiser, J. M. Monk, is able to be out again. ill, in Norwood, Ohio.

ibbs, Lynwood Carraway and Joe

J. P. Surrett and N. C. Fe le: G. E. Beckman, Jr., Sw ing the bolidays with her pa Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kemp. nd Mrs. R. G. Ruffin nksgiving day in Ro th her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

At The Rotary Club

Today many of us are suffer m occupational fatigue and fail ognize open avenues to new bu ness, said J. Van Rogers, representa-tive of the Educational Division of the National Cottonseed Products asciation, at the weekly meeting the Rotary club, Tuesday night.
"Industrial Relationship to Agri-

A grand prize of $25.00 will go to the winning float or entry with a second prize of $12.50.

The Farmville Character of the winning float or entry with a second prize of $12.50. ond prize of $12.50.

The Farmville Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association, promoters and sponsors of the event which formally ushers in the Christmas trading season in this community, is going all and this community, is going all and this community.

The band will raise one-half the amount necessary for chartering a bus to Chapel Hill and the school of the principal address at the annual ladies night of the Farmville Kiwanis club, an event which formally ushers in the Christmas trading season in this community, is going all and the school patrons are also taking band members in their cars.

Organized a vess of the event which formally ushers in the Christmas trading season in this community, is going all and the school of the purchasing power of the farming the purchasing power of the purchasing power of the farming the purchasing power of the purchasing power of the farming the purchasing power of the purchasing power of the farming the purchasing power of the purchasing power o ity, is going all out to insure the ing and the introduction of livestock the Farmville white and colored high school bands will be in the parade. All in all, it promises to be a lively celebration and those who miss it have only themselves to blame.

The Farmville high school senior few moments on even terms, no mean feat in itself.

The Farmville high school senior few moments on even terms, no mean feat in itself.

For the serious side of his address, and all show a favorable yield of oil and show a favorable yiel

In conclusion, slides in color were Between the acts, an auction etc., of the various oil and protein be held.

producing seeds. Irvin Morgan, proCharacters in the play are well he emphasized that the winner will was gerald.

cation of the Methodist church were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Rouse, C. T. Hicks and daughter, Ann, and son, Tommy, and Chester Langley is the prompter.

Serving on the various committees are the following seniors: Sound effects, Kirby Bell; lighting, Dot Lucas; Poster, Peggy Bell, Rebecca

Gay led the devotion. During social hour the hostess served

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Peeler, Mr. Several local tobacconists will be and Mrs. Carl Hicks, Jake Fields and on Tennessee and Kentncky burley Miss Jane Fields attended the Ki-Cooper of Kinston will be guests of tobacco markets for the season which wanis banquet in Farmville Friday opens immediately after Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Crews, Jr., and daughter, Betsy Harris, of South Boston, Va., spent the week end with Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Holmes, Mrs. Crews' parents. Betsy Harris re
Crews' parents. Betsy Harris re
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Welfare visited relatives here Saturday.

Mrs. W. E. Lang, Mrs. Earl Lang and Mrs. W. E. Lang, Mrs. Earl Lang and Mrs. Sam Jenkins were guests

Tuesday afternoon at a tea in Fountain, given by Mrs. E. B. Beasley in side at the 17th annual joint reuning the state of Mrs. Retsy Fountain.

and Robert Teel, Richmond, Ky.; to spend the Thanksgiving holidays Graydon Liles, Franklin, Ky., and H. with Mrs. Peeler's parents in Nor-

Mrs. C. T. Hicks was nesday afternoon to the Woma Society of Christian Service. Mrs. dorristown, Tenn.; B. F. Wood and Taylor presided. Mrs. Albert Bund ohn D. Andrews, Rogersville, Tenn.; was in charge of the program an account Joyner and A. R. Drake, Mrs. Philip Dixon led the devotion connson City, Tenn.; G. E. Moore, The hostess served a delicious sala aughters of Moultrie, Ga., are ving Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollomer

FOUNTAIN RURITAN CLUB

Farmville Band Will Play Saturday at UNC-Va. Football Game

The Farmville high school band hand has made app making plans to appear at the Caro-lina-Virginia game in Chapel Hill on Saturday.

The Ernest circle met in the home of Mrs. R. L. Rollins Monday afternoon, opening with the singing of "Faith of Our Fathers" The devotional, "God Our Comfort," was given by Mrs. Lewis Creech Prayer was offered by Mrs. H. D. Johnson.

A report on the successful celler.

A report of the farm Bureau had been well cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid sister, Pepper Fuller; Zeb Whitehurst is the mild Mr .Fuller until aroused to quarrell with Nancy Kittrell, his usually adoring wife, Mable Fuller; Connie Rollins is the romantic teem ager. Sherry Fuller: Pat Corbett is cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid safety the side with the most loyal and ardent supporters. He emphasized that the winner will be the side with the most loyal and sister, Pepper Fuller; Zeb Whitehurst is the mild Mr .Fuller until aroused to quarrell with Nancy Kittrell, his usually adoring wife, Mable Fuller; Connie Rollins is the romantic teem ager. Sherry Fuller: Pat Corbett is cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid ardent supporters. He stated that the winner will cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid ardent supporters. He stated that the winner will cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid ardent supporters. He stated that the winner will cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid ardent supporters. He stated that the winner will cast: Jenny Murphy is the typical kid ardent supporters. He stated that the distance of the side with the most loyal and sister, Pepper Fuller; Zeb Whitehurst is the mild Mr .Fuller with the most loyal and ardent supporters. He stated that in cast: Jenny Murphy is ed the Rotarians to rally behind the high school football team in appreciation for the fine showing being made this season.

Attendance was 95%.

Walter Jones presided in the absence of the president Charlie Fitz. watter Jones president in the absence of the president, Charlie Fitzbushand; Bobby Baker is Bessies' wealthy widower, Mr. Gross; Jean Bynum is the minister's wife, Mrs.
Lee; Jean Flora is Bing's one and only, Jennifer Lee; Shelton Smith is

Walstonburg News

Billy Russell is Leila's long-suffering husband; Americans should examine their weaknesses, have a high regard for individual personality, and use what they have to their best ability. On the latter point, he stated that people succeed or fail in terms of their abil-Sherry's current interest, Darrel Sta- ity to develop their talents. leigh and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Taylor and daughter, Gail, of Rocky Mount wer; George Stroud is the dignified was brought before the audience for

Miss Mildred Maddox of the

Frank Dupree, Mary Tyson and Bobby Brock; ushers, Peggy Burgess, Marie Cannon, Claude Tyson and Henry Tyson; y record player, Garland Windham; auctioneer, Bobby

Furniture for the play is by courtesy of Farmvile Furniture company.

17th Joint Tyson-May Reunion Will Be Held Friday

of the Tyson and May families at the D. A. R. chapterhouse Friday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The former Alice Tyson, Mrs. Mo-

Cornelius Tyson's great, great, great, great granddaughter. Cornelius Ty son's daughter, Mary, married Majo Benjamin May, for whom the Farm ville DAR chapter is named, in 1765 uniting the two families.

Mrs. Mozingo is active in the work of the DAR, United Daughters of the lonfederacy, Garden club, American

Dr. I. G., Greer of Chapel Hill, who ge and is now enjoying a su promising units of its kind in this utes old, those attending the banque section of the state. had reached the conclusion that Dr. Greer would have been successful also as a professional humorist. Introduced by Sam D. Bundy, Farmville's Play, December 2 popular speaker and humorist, Dr. Greer orally sparred with him for a of ing our democratic ideals and declarpresented which showed the growth, donated cakes, pies and candy will etc., of the various oil and protein be held.

and daughter, Gail, of Rocky Mount sensational beauty parlor operator, a few minutes when Dr. Greer lashwere the Sunday visitors of Mrs. Ed Sally Smith. high the government and society. "I have Those from here in Snow Hill Sun-day to hear Bishop Peele at the dedi-cation of the Methodist church were ideals but not to live for them.

President John Council Parker pr ided over the banquet, held in the rocation by Rev. Harvey Davis, Methdist minister, the guests were wel ninister, and the very gracious reponse was by Mrs. Alex Allen, to hom Alex referred, when introductions were in order later in the evenng, as "his speaking wife."

Charles Edwards expressed the timents of the club when he welco the special guests and introduced them. These included Dr. Charles E. Fitzgerald, president of the Rotary club, and Mrs. Fitzgerald; Miss Anne L. Jones, school supervisor and a corner member of the local faculty; Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Ralph Tapp of Stantonsburg and Miss Annie Perkins, a former teacher who, as Charles said, "is deeply loved by all rated in the Thanksgiving motif.

THANESGIVING HOLIDAYS