

Otter Creek Presbyterians In New Building

In October, 1948, the area served by the Otter Creek Presbyterian chapel, 2 1/2 miles north of Falkland, was surveyed. This showed that only a handful of the residents were connected with any church. The survey was sponsored by the Falkland and Fountain Presbyterian churches, of which Rev. Philip M. Cory is minister, and was conducted by Miss Ruth Hafner, then extension Sunday School worker of Albemarle Presbyterian. Residents were asked if they would cooperate in the establishment of a Presbyterian chapel if help and leadership were supplied by the sponsoring churches. One-third replied in the affirmative and the chapel was begun in a vacant two-room tenant house, offered as temporary quarters by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore.

60 were enrolled, and the work was started Oct. 31, 1948. Sunday School and preaching services were conducted on Sunday afternoons, since Rev. Cory's mornings and evenings were already devoted to filling his regular churches—Falkland, Fountain and Boyd Memorial. The chapel soon outgrew its two rooms and a committee was appointed to select a site and make plans for the erection of a church. Of three sites offered, the group selected a site on the Pitt farm, donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mercer of Fountain.

Voluntary labor graded and ditched the lot on N. C. Route 48; the foundation was dug, poured and the building was begun. The entire venture has been on a "pay as you go" plan. All the labor, with the exception of $200 worth of skilled labor, was furnished by residents of the community and Mr. Cory. The building, 28 feet wide and 66 feet long, was ready for use on the Sunday preceding Christmas, Sunday School was conducted on Dec. 18 in the new building. A Christmas program was held on Dec. 22. On Christmas day Mr. Cory preached and two new members were received.

A revival was conducted in the church week before last. Unable to secure a visiting preacher, Mr. Cory conducted the services and Charles F. Baucum of Farmville led the singing. During the week, 22 were received on profession of faith and baptism, two on reaffirmation of their faith and two by letter. The chapel now has 28 members and will observe its first communion Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The present membership is made up of the following 19 adults and 9 young people: Mrs. Mae Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bright, Mrs. Maida Ellis, Mrs. Ruby T. Deans, Mr. and Mrs. William Gus Little, Miss Myrtle Louise Norville, Mrs. Johnnie Deans, Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Brill, Lonnie Thomas Little, Mrs. Sarah Rouse, Bobby Baker, Janet Norville, James Wiley Norville, Don Ray Deans, Patricia Little, Maybelle Deans, Robert Clayton Bright, Aaron Earl Pierce, Emily Lee Pierce, and Mesdames Bertie Viola Deans, Lillian Moore, Norville, Ruby Lee Deans and Lella Vivian Moore.

The chapel conducts Sunday School each Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and church services at 8 in the afternoon. The midweek song and prayer service is held Thursday evening at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Last Sunday there were 68 at Sunday School and 84 at preaching. Members of the chapel are indebted to the men and women of the community for their contributions of labor and money, without which it would not have been possible to erect the chapel.

HEAR NEW WAGES-HOUR LAW EXPLAINED IN GREENVILLE

Fred C. Moore, secretary of the Farmville Chamber of Commerce, and Jonnie Taylor, representative of the Lang Seed and Feed company, attended a meeting in Greenville last Thursday night and heard Forest H. Shuford, Commissioner of Labor, explain provisions of the new wages and hour law which went into effect on January 25th.

The new law sets a minimum wage of 75 cents for all industries engaged in interstate commerce. The minimum has been 40 cents an hour.
